1 FRIENDS AND FAMILY

LESSON A ► What kind of person are you?

1 STARTING POINT
Personality survey

A Do you agree with these statements? Complete the survey.

Personality Survey	Definitely agree	Somewhat agree	Definitely disagree
1. I'm not afraid of giving speeches in front of the class.
2. I enjoy going to parties where I don't know everyone.
3. I avoid expressing my feelings and ideas in public.
4. I insist on making my own decisions.
5. I don't mind giving up my time to help other people.
6. I never worry about getting places on time.
7. I always feel like going dancing!
8. I can't stand being in a messy, disorganized room.
9. I prefer telling people how I feel, even if it's embarrassing.

Pair work Compare your responses to the survey. Find two your partner are different.
"I'm not afraid of giving speeches in front of the class. How about you?"
"Oh, I'm definitely afraid of doing that!"

2 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING
How would you describe yourself?

A Which statement from the survey best matches these personality traits? Write the correct number. Then compare answers with a partner.

2 a. friendly and outgoing	d. kind and generous	g. wild and crazy
b. strong and independent	e. honest and sincere	h. calm and cool
c. laid-back and relaxed	f. shy and reserved	i. neat and tidy

Pair work Choose another partner. Find two traits you have in common. Find one way that you're different.
"So, how would you describe yourself?"
"Well, I'd say I'm pretty laid-back and relaxed."
"Me, too. I never worry about getting places on time."
"I don't either. I like taking it easy and..."

Useful expressions

Same traits So am I. (I am, too). I'm the same way. So do I. (I do, too). Neither do I. (I don't either).	Different traits I'm not like that. I'd say I'm more... Really? I don't. That's not true for me.

GRAMMAR

Verbs followed by gerunds

Use the gerund form after these verbs.

I enjoy going to parties where I don't know everyone.
 I avoid expressing my feelings and ideas in public.
 I don't mind giving up my time to help other people.

Use the gerund or infinitive form after these verbs.

can't stand being / to be in a messy room.
 love taking / to take my friends to cool new clubs.
 hate getting up / to get up for early morning classes.

Use the gerund form after these expressions containing prepositions.

I insist on making my own decisions.
 I always feel like going dancing!
 I'm into going out to new foreign restaurants.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 100

A Look at the Starting Point on page 2 again. Can you find other expressions that are followed by gerunds? Which of them can also be followed by infinitives?

B Pair work How do you feel about these things? Discuss your answers using verbs or expressions followed by gerunds and infinitives.

1. tell people that I'm angry with them	4. eat a full meal late at night
2. help with chores around the house	5. start conversations with people I don't know
3. listen to people's personal problems	6. go to places where I have to use English

"I usually avoid telling people that I'm angry with them. I guess I'm just afraid of making them angry at me."

SPEAKING

Personal profiles

A Look at the information about these people. Which person is most similar to you? Why?

Meet Your Neighbors

Emily	Carlos	Linda	Chris
Job: college student	artist	lawyer	teacher
Personality: friendly and outgoing	wild and crazy	shy and reserved	laid-back and relaxed
Lifestyle: loves playing sports, into traveling	loves to dance, can't stand going home early	into watching old movies	enjoys cooking meals for friends, loves to tell jokes

B Class activity Write a similar profile for yourself. Don't write your name. Your teacher will take your profile and give you the profile of another student. Ask questions around the class to find the other student.

SPEAKING

activities spark lively discussions focusing on interesting and relevant situations.

5 LISTENING

Life in Sydney

4 A Listen to Maria and Ian talk about life in Sydney. Who seems to enjoy living there more?

4 B Listen again. Which person has these opinions? Choose Maria, Ian, or both.

- It's easy to get around Sydney.
- The beaches are great.
- The rents are expensive.
- It's a fun place to live.
- The restaurants are all expensive.
- Life is better in a smaller town.

6 DISCUSSION

Quality of life

A Rate these quality-of-life issues as very important (2), important (1), or not important (0). Can you add one more to the list?

Quality of Life

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-------------|
| affordable housing | exciting |
| a variety of restaurants | first-class |
| beautiful parks | historic |
| convenient public transportation | low crime |

B Pair work Which three issues are the most important considering where to live? Explain why.

"I guess affordable housing and exciting nightlife are the ones I find a place I could afford that was near someplace fun."
"I know what you mean. But for me, I guess low crime rates. I want to live somewhere where I feel safe. I don't mind if..."

C Class activity Share your answers with your class. Which one was mentioned most often?

24 UNIT 8 Exploring new cities

WRITING

Brainstorming

Brainstorming means making a list of ideas about a topic. Then you can use this list to come up with a topic sentence and ideas to support it.

A Group work Brainstorm as many ideas as you can to add to the dos and don'ts for living on a budget.

Living on a Tight Budget

Do	Don't
• compare prices	• buy the first thing you see
• look for sales	• buy brand names
• check ads for used items	• use credit cards

B Group work Brainstorm dos and don'ts for one of the following topics.

- getting over a bad cold
- staying safe in a big city

C Read this paragraph about living on a tight budget. Then write a similar paragraph about your topic.

Living on a tight budget is easy if you follow some shopping tips. First of all, you should never buy something you need to check at least a few other stores and go on. You don't be in a hurry! If you take your time, you might find a better price. You can check in the newspaper for secondhand items. You can check in the newspaper for. Finally, you might get a better price at some store. credit card, so be sure to ask about cash discounts.

D Pair work Exchange brainstorming lists and paragraphs. Then answer the questions.

- How many brainstorming ideas did your partner choose the best ones?
- Do you have any questions about your partner's paragraph? Do you disagree with?
- Can you think of a good title for your partner's paragraph?

WRITING
tasks build academic writing skills through step-by-step activities.

Passages Third Edition is a two-level course that will open the door to communicating with greater fluency and proficiency, with:

- more sophisticated real-world grammar and vocabulary,
- thought-provoking discussions and academic writing activities,
- more challenging listening and reading comprehension topics.

READING
Cyber-begging

A Pair work Imagine that a stranger asked you for money to help pay off a frivolous debt. Would you help? Tell your partner. Then read the article.

Can you spare a dime for my
Gucci bills?

There was a time when Karyn Bosnak couldn't pay a $59.00 bill at the grocery store. She was officially broke. She didn't have enough money to get on the subway, but she looked rich. She was a television producer, earned $900 a week, and had a closetful of designer labels like Gucci and Louis Vuitton. But she also had a $20,221.40 credit card bill and an empty bank account. Karyn decided that it was time for a change. She built a website and simply asked people to help her out by sending her a buck or two.

On the site, Karyn honestly explained her situation. Gucci shoes and all. "If 20,000 people gave me just $1, I'd be home free, and I'm sure there are 20,000 people out there who can afford to give me $1." Amazingly, it worked. Her website was visited by more than 4 million people. Although most donors just gave a few dollars, one generous donor sent $1,000. She was on TV and in newspapers and magazines. She was offered a book deal and a movie contract. And of course, she was able to pay off her credit card debt.

She also sold her designer clothes on eBay. In her closet, where the Gucci purses once sat, Karyn keeps all the letters that people have sent her.

She's received teddy bears, subscriptions to Vogue, Dunkin' Donuts coupons, backpacks, jewelry, cat food, and candles.

It's hard to understand why so many people helped a total stranger pay off her huge credit card bill. Why did they do it? Karyn explains, "I was just honest about what happened. I didn't make up some sob story about saving the world." Her donors think it's funny and original, she argues, and view it less as a charity than as an entertainment site. Imitators have sprung up all over the Internet, some with outrageously selfish requests like a BMW or a house. Actually, Karyn was not the first person to put up a website asking strangers for money. The practice has a name: "cyber-begging." Most sites receive little traffic and even less cash. Karyn also had thousands of enemies and critics. People sent her hate mail and scolded her on websites. Karyn says she never let this anger bother her. "They are probably jealous they didn't think of it," she explains.

Source: "Brother, can you spare a dime for my Gucci bills?" by Janale Brown, Salon.com

B Read the article again and answer the questions. Then compare your answers with a partner.

- Why was Karyn in financial trouble?
- What was her main solution to her problem? What else did she do?
- Why did so many people respond positively to her website?

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

- Do you think Karyn was unethical, or was she simply clever?
- What would you have done if you were Karyn?

FRIENDS AND FAMILY

LESSON A ► What kind of person are you?

1 STARTING POINT

Personality survey

A Do you agree with these statements? Complete the survey.

Personality Survey		Definitely agree	Somewhat agree	Definitely disagree
1.	I'm not afraid of giving speeches in front of the class.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.	I enjoy going to parties where I don't know everyone.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.	I avoid expressing my feelings and ideas in public.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.	I insist on making my own decisions.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.	I don't mind giving up my time to help other people.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.	I never worry about getting places on time.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.	I always feel like going dancing!	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.	I can't stand being in a messy, disorganized room.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
9.	I prefer telling people how I feel, even if it's embarrassing.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

B Pair work Compare your responses to the survey. Find two ways you and your partner are different.

"I'm not afraid of giving speeches in front of the class. How about you?"

"Oh, I'm definitely afraid of doing that!"

2 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

How would you describe yourself?

A Which statement from the survey best matches these personality traits? Write the correct number. Then compare answers with a partner.

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| 2 a. friendly and outgoing | ___ d. kind and generous | ___ g. wild and crazy |
| ___ b. strong and independent | ___ e. honest and sincere | ___ h. calm and cool |
| ___ c. laid-back and relaxed | ___ f. shy and reserved | ___ i. neat and tidy |

B Pair work Choose another partner. Find two traits you have in common. Find one way that you're different.

"So, how would you describe yourself?"

"Well, I'd say I'm pretty laid-back and relaxed."

"Me, too. I never worry about getting places on time."

"I don't either. I like taking it easy and..."

Useful expressions

Same traits

So am I. (I am, too.)
I'm the same way.
So do I. (I do, too.)
Neither do I. (I don't either.)

Different traits

I'm not like that.
I'd say I'm more...
Really? I don't.
That's not true for me.

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 130

Verbs followed by gerunds

Use the gerund form after these verbs.

I enjoy going to parties where I don't know everyone.

I avoid expressing my feelings and ideas in public.

I don't mind giving up my time to help other people.

Use the gerund or infinitive form after these verbs.

I can't stand being / to be in a messy room.

I love taking / to take my friends to cool new clubs.

I hate getting up / to get up for early morning classes.

Use the gerund form after these expressions containing prepositions.

I insist on making my own decisions.

I always feel like going dancing!

I'm into going out to new foreign restaurants.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 106

A Look at the Starting Point on page 2 again. Can you find other expressions that are followed by gerunds? Which of them can also be followed by infinitives?

B Pair work How do you feel about these things? Discuss your answers using verbs or expressions followed by gerunds and infinitives.

1. tell people that I'm angry with them
2. help with chores around the house
3. listen to people's personal problems
4. eat a full meal late at night
5. start conversations with people I don't know
6. go to places where I have to use English

"I usually avoid telling people that I'm angry with them. I guess I'm just afraid of making them angry at me."

4 SPEAKING

Personal profiles

A Look at the information about these people. Which person is most similar to you? Why?

Meet Your Neighbors

Emily	Carlos	Linda	Chris
Job	college student	artist	lawyer
Personality	friendly and outgoing	wild and crazy	shy and reserved
Lifestyle	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> loves playing sports into traveling 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> loves to dance can't stand going home early 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> into watching old movies enjoys cooking meals for friends loves to tell jokes

B Class activity Write a similar profile for yourself. Don't write your name. Your teacher will take your profile and give you the profile of another student. Ask questions around the class to find the other student.

5 LISTENING

Changes

- A Listen to Marcos and Heather talk about how they have changed over the last five years. How did they change? Complete the chart with the expressions from the box.

kind and generous friendly and outgoing shy and reserved wild and crazy used to be ...	has become ...

 Marcos
 Heather

- B Listen again. Choose the person you think would be more likely to do each of these things this weekend.

	Marcos	Heather
1. stay out late at a big party	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. stay at home and watch TV	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. help someone with a personal problem	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. invite a friend to a funny movie	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

6 DISCUSSION

How have you changed?

- A How have you changed over the last five years? What do you want to change now? Complete the chart.

	How I've changed	How I'd like to change
Habits
Personality
Likes and dislikes

- B Pair work Compare your charts. Ask follow-up questions.

"I used to watch a lot of TV, but now I don't."

"Really? What made you change?"

"Well, I was afraid of getting out of shape. So I ..."

Useful expressions

Describing how you've changed

I used to ..., but now I ...

I think I've become more ...

Describing how you'd like to change

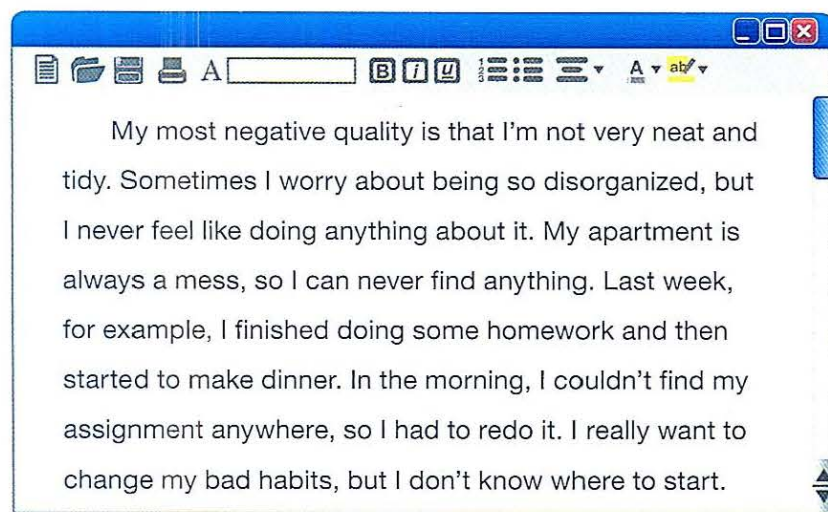

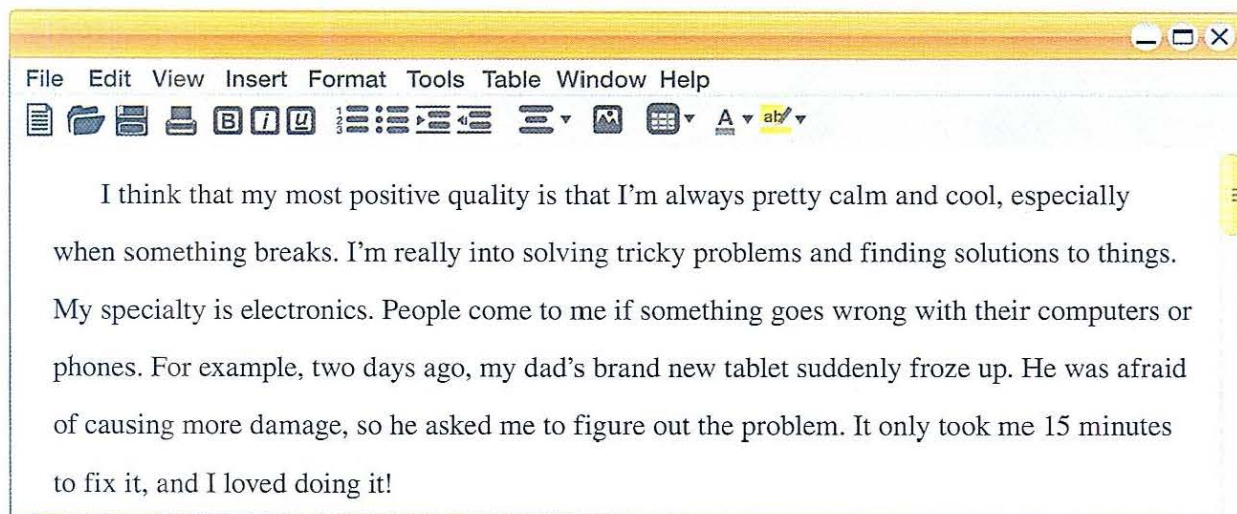

I'd like to be more ...

I'm interested in ...

Topic sentences

The main idea is usually found in the first sentence of the paragraph. This sentence is called the topic sentence.

- A Read these paragraphs about people's best and worst qualities. Underline the topic sentence in each paragraph.

- B Think about your own personal qualities. Make a list. Then decide which quality is the most positive and which is the most negative. Circle each one.
- C Write a paragraph about either your most positive or your most negative quality. Make sure your paragraph has only one main idea.
- D Pair work Exchange paragraphs with a partner. Then answer the questions.
1. What is your partner's topic sentence? Underline it.
 2. What examples does your partner give to support the topic sentence?
 3. What do you find most interesting about your partner's paragraph?

LESSON B ► Every family is different.

STARTING POINT

Different types of families

A Look at the families in the pictures. What's different about each type of family?

What's Your Family Like?

The Watsons, Sydney

"My wife and I both work now, and the extra money is great. The only trouble with being a two-income family is we don't spend as much time together."

The Wangs, Vancouver

"We're an extended family now that Grandma has moved in. The big advantage of having her at home is that she can babysit more often."

The Patels, London

"We're a typical nuclear family – it's just my sister, my parents, and me. The only bad thing about living in our house is there's only one bathroom!"

B Pair work What are some more advantages and disadvantages of each type of family in part A? Compare ideas.

"In a nuclear family, you might not see your grandparents every day. That's a disadvantage."

LISTENING & SPEAKING

How are their families different?

A Listen to Paul and Andrea talk about their families. What kind of family did each person grow up in? How have their families changed?

B Listen again. Match the people on the left with the phrases on the right.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. Andrea b | a. has two daughters. |
| 2. Andrea's husband ____ | b. doesn't know her in-laws very well. |
| 3. Andrea's sister-in-law ____ | c. has three brothers. |
| 4. Paul's sister ____ | d. is looking forward to seeing the family. |
| 5. Paul ____ | e. will be cooking for 12 people. |
| 6. Paul's mother ____ | f. is a law student. |

C Pair work Is your family similar to Paul's or Andrea's? How is it similar? How is it different?

3 GRAMMAR

Noun clauses after be

A noun clause is a part of a sentence with a subject and a predicate that functions as a noun. That is optional in noun clauses after be. Also notice the prepositions followed by gerunds in the first part of the sentences.

The only trouble with being a two-income family is (that) we don't spend as much time together.
The big advantage of having Grandma at home is (that) she can babysit more often.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 107

A Look at the Starting Point on page 6 again. Can you find the noun clause in the last paragraph? Which preposition is used in the first part of the sentence?

B Combine the sentences. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. I'm the youngest in the family. The nice thing is I get a lot of attention.
The nice thing about being the youngest in the family is that I get a lot of attention.
2. I have a younger sister. The trouble is she always wants to borrow my clothes.
3. I'm away at college. The bad part is that I miss my family.
4. I work at night. The worst thing is I can't have dinner with my family.
5. I'm the oldest in the family. One bad thing is that I always have to babysit.

C Complete the sentences with your own ideas.
Then compare answers with a partner.

1. An advantage of being a twin is . . . that you always have someone to hang out with.
2. A problem with being an only child is . . .
3. One benefit of being the oldest is . . .
4. A big disadvantage of having an older sibling is . . .
5. The best thing about having a big family is . . .

4 DISCUSSION

Family matters

A Choose at least three questions you'd like to talk about with your group.

- ☐ What's the best thing about spending time with your family? What's the worst thing?
- ☐ What's one advantage of having a close family?
- ☐ What are some rules that people have to follow in your family?
- ☐ What's a benefit of having strict parents?
- ☐ Are you most likely to confide in a parent, a sibling, or a friend?
- ☐ Do you believe mothers and fathers should do the same chores?
- ☐ What are the advantages and disadvantages of having a two-income family?

B Group work Discuss the questions you chose in part A. Ask follow-up questions and make sure everyone in your group participates.

VOCABULARY

Compound family terms

A Match the family members on the left with the definitions on the right.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1. Your great-aunt is ____ | a. your father's or mother's grandmother. |
| 2. Your granddaughter is ____ | b. your mother's or father's aunt. |
| 3. Your sister-in-law is ____ | c. your son's or daughter's daughter. |
| 4. Your great-grandmother is ____ | d. your wife's or husband's sister, or your brother's wife. |

B Pair work Which of the family members in the box can be combined with a prefix or suffix in the chart? Complete the chart with a partner. What does each term mean?

aunt	daughter	mother	niece	son
brother	father	nephew	sister	uncle

great-	grand-	great-grand-	-in-law
aunt	daughter	mother

"Your great-nephew is your brother's or sister's grandson."

LISTENING

Family reunion

A Listen to Victor tell a friend about his family reunion. What were they celebrating at the reunion?

B Listen again. In addition to Victor, who else was at the reunion? Select the people mentioned.

- | | | |
|--|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. his grandfather | <input type="checkbox"/> 4. his sister-in-law | <input type="checkbox"/> 7. his mother-in-law |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. his uncle's cousin | <input type="checkbox"/> 5. his niece | <input type="checkbox"/> 8. his cousin |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. his brother | <input type="checkbox"/> 6. his son | <input type="checkbox"/> 9. friends of the family |

A Group work Do you tend to rely more on friends or family for help and advice? Why? Discuss with your group.

From Circle of Friends to Modern Tribe

Who celebrates birthdays and holidays with you? Who do you call when a crisis hits or when good luck strikes? If your answer is "my friends," you may have a "tribe."

When Ethan Watters took stock of his life a few years ago, the San Francisco writer realized that he was more dependent on friends than family, who lived hundreds of miles away.

"My friends were the centerpiece of my social life," he says. "They had taken on all the responsibilities that family members typically tackle – connecting me to the city, being a matchmaker, and helping me find jobs and places to live."

This circle of friends had become a tribe, which started when a group of artists, writers, and photographers began meeting for dinner every Tuesday night. Before long, they had begun functioning as a family of choice.

Watters grew to believe that non-family members forming close-knit social networks was a growing trend in the United States, and he wrote a book about it called Urban Tribes: Are Friends the New Family?

Modern tribes like Watters's often grow out of a shared interest or experience, but not every group of friends becomes a tribe.

The shift from "circle of friends" to tribe happens when members begin to treat each other like family – offering support without expectation of repayment; sheltering each other from gossip, stress, and attack; and looking out for everyone's overall well-being in life, work, and relationships.

Modern tribes often have a regular meeting place, annual parties, and group trips. Shared rites and rituals create a tribal story. "The members of the group may change," Watters says, "but the story of that group has central elements that remain. It gives the group a history."

Every tribe usually has an individual or core group that tends to its growth and survival. These tribal leaders are the ones who get everyone together on a regular basis and make the phone calls that get members excited about upcoming events.

Like families, tribes have a way of shaping their members: Individuals feel more confident, secure, loved, and stable. Even if your own family is close-knit, you may benefit from cultivating a family-like circle of friends. "The love and support we get from one," Watters says, "does not take away from the love and support we get from another."

Source: "My Tribe," by Erin Peterson, Experience Life

B Read the article and answer the questions. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. In what ways does Watters's circle of friends function as a family?
2. According to the article, what are some differences between a tribe and a family?
3. How does a group of friends become a tribe?

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. What are some advantages and disadvantages of relying on friends for family-like support?
2. Do you consider yourself a member of a modern tribe? Why or why not?

MISTAKES AND MYSTERIES

LESSON A ▶ Life lessons

STARTING POINT

Learning the hard way

A Read about these people's problems. What mistake did each person make?

What Did I Get Myself Into?

Three mistakes that led to big messes

I was supposed to be studying for a math test this weekend, but my friends made me go to the beach with them instead. I mean, I didn't have to go with them, but I did. Now the test is in two hours, and I'm totally unprepared. I should have stayed home and studied!

— Alicia, Tepic, Mexico

In high school, I had to wear a uniform, so I didn't have a lot of fashionable clothes. When I started college, I thought I needed to have more, so I wasted a lot of money on trendy outfits. But I really shouldn't have done it. Now I'm broke!

— Kenichi, Osaka, Japan

We weren't supposed to cook in our dorm rooms, but I had a microwave anyway. The cafeteria was right next door, so I really didn't need to have it. Anyway, I got caught making popcorn last week, and the school took the microwave away.

— Melanie, Toronto, Canada

B Pair work What should each person do differently in the future? Compare ideas.

"I don't think Alicia should listen to her friends in the future."

"Yeah, I agree. She shouldn't let them influence her like that."

LISTENING

I'll never do that again!

A Listen to Frank talk about a bad decision he made. What was his decision? Why was it a bad one?

B Listen again. Are these statements true or false? Choose the correct answer.

	True	False
1. Frank and his neighbor were good friends.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Frank knew he was allergic to cats.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Frank marked his calendar to remember to feed the cat.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Frank forgot what time his train was going to leave.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Frank remembered to feed the cat on Saturday.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

3 GRAMMAR

Past modals and phrasal modals of obligation

Should have, was supposed to, had to, and needed to all describe obligations in the past, although they have slightly different uses.

I should have stayed home and studied! (It was a good idea, but I didn't do it.)

I was supposed to be studying this weekend. (It was expected, but I didn't do it.)

I had to wear a uniform. (We were forced to do this.)

I didn't have to go with my friends, but I did. (There was no obligation.)

I thought I needed to have more clothes. (I thought this was necessary.)

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 108

A Look at the Starting Point on page 10 again. Can you find other examples of past modals and phrasal modals of obligation? What does each one mean?

B Choose the answer that is true for each sentence. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. I shouldn't have invited them.

☐ a. I didn't invite them.

☐ b. I invited them.

3. We didn't have to study for the test.

☐ a. We forgot to study.

☐ b. We were prepared for the test.

2. That was a secret! You weren't supposed to tell anyone!

☐ a. You didn't tell anyone.

☐ b. You told someone.

4. I know Jane didn't like my cooking, but she didn't need to be so rude about it.

☐ a. Jane was rude to me.

☐ b. Jane wasn't rude to me.

C Complete the sentences with information about yourself. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. After I started high school, I had to . . .

study a lot harder.

2. I made someone angry once because I wasn't supposed to . . .

3. I wasted a lot of money once because I thought I needed to . . .

4. When I had the opportunity, I should have . . .

4 DISCUSSION

Past experiences

A Look at the survey and choose the items that are true for you.

Have you ever . . .

☐ enjoyed doing something you weren't supposed to do?

☐ not done something you should have done?

☐ done something foolish that you didn't need to do?

☐ had to follow a rule you didn't like?

☐ had to enforce a rule you didn't like?

B Pair work Discuss your answers. Ask follow-up questions.

"Have you ever enjoyed doing something you weren't supposed to do?"

"Sure. At my old job, I wasn't supposed to take a long lunch, but I took long lunches at the park, anyway. How about you?"

5 VOCABULARY

Recognizing problems

A These verbs are often used to talk about problems. Use the verbs to replace the boldfaced words and phrases in the sentences.

aggravate

avoid cause

deal with identify ignore

run into

a problem

1. My friend never does anything about his problems.
My friend always ignores his problems.
2. Maria can look at a broken bicycle and find the problem right away.
3. My sister is never afraid to try to take care of a difficult problem.
4. Dan always makes his problems worse.
5. Ruby always follows the recipe closely to prevent problems when she cooks.
6. Michael always unexpectedly encounters problems when he tries to fix things.
7. Carla is great at completely fixing any kind of problem at work.
8. Al is the kind of student who always makes problems for teachers.

B Pair work Tell your partner about people you know who are similar to the people in the sentences in part A.

"My cousin always ignores her problems. Her car is always making strange noises, but she never does anything about it."

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 131

6 LISTENING

Dealing with problems

A Listen to Ray (R), Felipe (F), and Jennifer (J) talk about a problem that they each had. What did each person finally do about the problem? Write the correct letter.

___ ignored it ___ dealt with it ___ aggravated it

B Listen again. Briefly describe each person's problem.

Ray: _____

Felipe: _____

Jennifer: _____

Brainstorming

Brainstorming means making a list of ideas about a topic. Then you can use this list to come up with a topic sentence and ideas to support it.

- A Group work Brainstorm as many ideas as you can to add to the dos and don'ts for living on a budget.

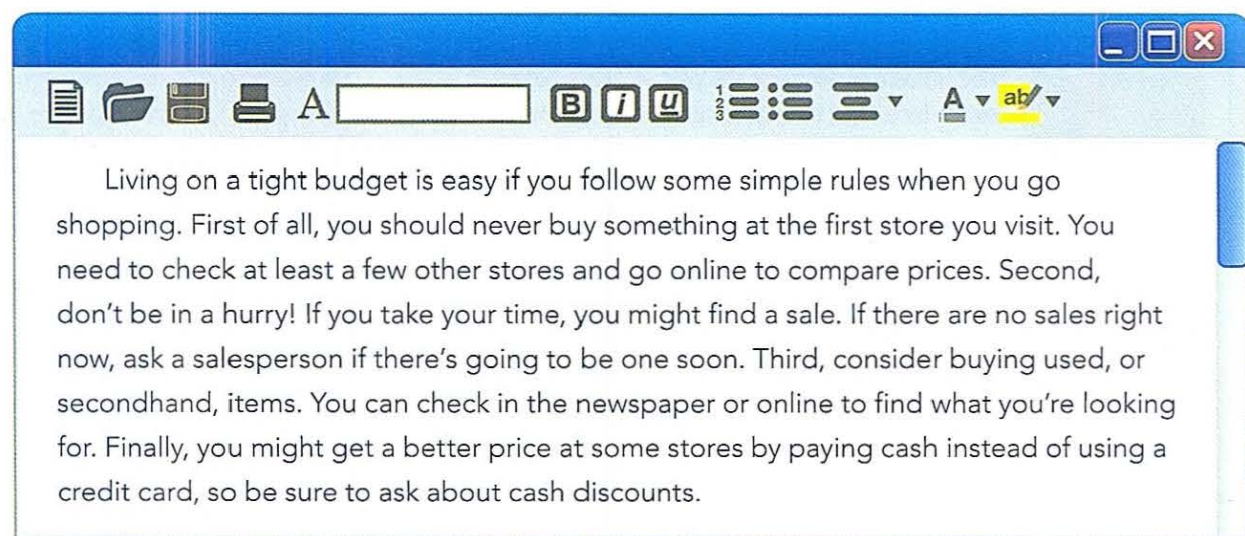

Do	Don't
• compare prices	• buy the first thing you see
• look for sales	• buy brand names
• check ads for used items	• use credit cards

- B Group work Brainstorm dos and don'ts for one of these topics. Write your ideas.

- getting over a bad cold
- staying safe in a big city
- preparing for entrance exams

- C Read this paragraph about living on a tight budget. Then write a topic sentence and a similar paragraph about your topic using your ideas.

Living on a tight budget is easy if you follow some simple rules when you go shopping. First of all, you should never buy something at the first store you visit. You need to check at least a few other stores and go online to compare prices. Second, don't be in a hurry! If you take your time, you might find a sale. If there are no sales right now, ask a salesperson if there's going to be one soon. Third, consider buying used, or secondhand, items. You can check in the newspaper or online to find what you're looking for. Finally, you might get a better price at some stores by paying cash instead of using a credit card, so be sure to ask about cash discounts.

- D Pair work Exchange brainstorming lists and paragraphs with a partner. Then answer the questions.

1. How many brainstorming ideas did your partner use? Do you think he or she chose the best ones?
2. Do you have any questions about your partner's paragraph? Is there anything you disagree with?
3. Can you think of a good title for your partner's paragraph? Explain your choice.

LESSON B ► I can't explain it!

1 STARTING POINT

A mysterious artist

A Read the article and the comments on the right. Whose comments do you agree with?

The Mystery of BANKSY

Banksy is a British graffiti artist who has become famous around the world for two things: his controversial work and the mystery surrounding him. Usually working in disguise or at night, Banksy has managed to keep his identity secret and both his fans and detractors alert. Any clues to his identity always make the news.

In 2010, Time magazine featured Banksy as one of the 100 most influential people of the year. Readers hoping to finally see his face must have been pretty disappointed when they saw the picture of Banksy – with a paper bag over his head.

In 2011, when a movie by Banksy was nominated for an Oscar, his graffiti appeared on buildings and signs around Los Angeles. (People thought he could have been trying to get publicity for the movie.) At that time, a passerby photographed a man busy taking photos of the graffiti. It may have been Banksy documenting his own work, but nobody is sure.

In 2013, a website claimed Banksy had been arrested and his identity finally revealed. However, the claims were later discovered to be false. It's not clear who was behind the hoax, but one thing was certain: Banksy's secret was still safe.

Reader Comments

CafeLife: People should stop trying to find out who Banksy is. It's a waste of time.

Hye Jung: The magazine readers shouldn't have expected Banksy to reveal his identity just because of an article.

Paul2001: I'm certain Banksy must have wanted to win that Oscar. But would he have shown his face at the award ceremony?

ArtFan: Banksy does return to photograph his art, so it might have been him taking the pictures. He should be more careful.

Zorro565: Banksy shouldn't have painted on other people's property. That's illegal.

WebWatcher: That website hoax might have been planned by Banksy himself. What a joke.

More >>

B Pair work Compare your reactions to the article.

"The people who worked on his movie might know who Banksy is."

"Well, maybe, but I'm sure his family must know he is the mysterious artist."

2 GRAMMAR

Modals with multiple uses

To express degrees of certainty, use must (not), can't, could (not), might (not), or may (not).

I'm certain Banksy must have wanted to win that Oscar.

People thought he could have been trying to get publicity for the movie.

That website hoax might have been planned by Banksy himself.

To express obligation, advice, or opinions, use should (not). Do not use must (not) have for obligations, advice, or opinions about the past.

Banksy shouldn't have painted on other people's property. (obligation)

He should be more careful. (advice)

The magazine readers shouldn't have expected Banksy to reveal his identity just because of an article. (opinion)

Also notice how these modals are used in the passive and continuous.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 109

A Look at the Starting Point on page 14 again. What does each modal express? Which one is used in the passive?

B Use modals to write reactions to these situations. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. You and your friend planned to meet, but your friend never arrived.
He might have been busy at work, but he should have called to tell me.
2. You loaned your classmate a lot of money last week, but she still hasn't repaid you.
3. You feel sick after a big fish dinner.
4. You receive flowers from a secret admirer.
5. You haven't received any phone calls or text messages in a week.
6. Your boss promised to promote you, but it still hasn't happened.

3 DISCUSSION

What's the explanation?

A Read these headlines about strange events. How would you explain them?

MYSTERY SOUND IRRITATES VILLAGE

Each night from midnight to 4 A.M., a mysterious humming sound keeps the 300 residents of Woodland, England, awake. There are no factories or large roads nearby, and so far nobody can explain the sound.

Colored Honey Puzzles Farmers

In a French region famous for its honey, bees have been producing it in shades of blue and green. Farmers say the honey is unsellable, and they are investigating the cause.

River Runs Red

Shocked residents watched in disbelief last week as the river running through their city turned a deep red color. Some people rushed to save a bottle of the colored water while they had the chance.

Useful expressions

Disagreeing

I don't know.
I'm not so sure.
Well, maybe, but . . .
I know what you mean, but . . .

B Group work Discuss your explanations. Do you agree?

"Airplanes flying overhead could have caused the noise in that village."

"I'm not so sure. I think someone may have been making the sound on purpose as a prank."

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

Verbs of belief

A Put these verbs of belief in the correct columns. Discuss your answers with a partner.

assume	be positive	bet	figure	have a hunch	suppose be certain	be sure	doubt	guess	know for a fact	suspect

Certain	Not certain
	assume

B Group work Use the verbs of belief to discuss these questions.

- Why do giraffes have long necks?
- Why do some buildings not have a thirteenth floor?
- Is there life on other planets?
- Why doesn't a haircut hurt?
- Why do some people fall in love at first sight?
- What color is an insect's blood?

"Why do giraffes have long necks?"

"I'm not sure, but I assume they have long necks to eat the leaves at the tops of trees."

"Yeah, I bet that's the reason why."

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 131

5 LISTENING & SPEAKING

Solving mysteries

A Listen to Sheila and Adam discussing some myths and mysteries researched by the TV show Solving Mysteries. Choose the ones discovered to be true.

- ☐ 1. Using a cell phone can cause a fire at a gas station.
- ☐ 2. Talking to plants for a short time will help them grow better.
- ☐ 3. A person can break a glass using just his or her voice.
- ☐ 4. Yawning is contagious.

B Listen again. What ideas did Sheila and Adam originally have? Answer the questions.

- How did Sheila think that cell phones could cause fires?

- Why did Adam doubt that talking to plants could help them grow?

- Why did Sheila have trouble believing voices could break a glass?

- Why didn't Adam believe that yawning could be contagious?

C Group work Brainstorm other mysteries you might like to have Solving Mysteries investigate for you. Can anyone in the group explain the mysteries?

Do I know you?

Amnesia

Spoils Newlyweds' Bliss

مرجع زبان ایرانیان

What if the person you married forgot who you were? For one Texas couple, marriage became a blind date when the groom came down with amnesia days after their wedding.

Amy and Sean McNulty's wedding day started well, but ended with a shock. One of Sean's good friends was in a serious car accident after the wedding and ended up in a coma. Nevertheless, Amy and Sean decided to make their honeymoon trip according to plans.

At the airport, Sean realized he'd left his wallet in their car. He said to Amy, "I'll be right back." But he didn't return.

Amy contacted the police, who found Sean wandering near a motel three days later. He was confused and covered in bug bites. He had no idea who he was or who Amy was. Sean could not remember any personal details from his life, not even his mother.

Amy was now married to a man who viewed her as a stranger.

"I wondered, you know, is he going to remember me? How is our relationship going to, you know, form?" said Amy.

This was a big change after a six-year courtship and plenty of shared memories.

When Sean got out of the hospital, Amy had to give him a tour of their home. Although he had a room devoted to music, he couldn't even remember what it meant to hear music.

Psychiatrist Dr. Daniel Brown says Sean's amnesia might have been caused by a series of stressful moments, like his friend's car accident. According to Dr. Brown, Sean's brain didn't connect with his identity anymore. "He doesn't know who Sean McNulty is and has no personal memories or autobiographical memories to account for who he might be."

Dr. Brown explained that amnesia was like forgetting the name of a file you stored on your computer. "You know it's there but you can't find it," said Brown. "His memory is like that. He still has the file."

Fortunately, better times soon arrived. The day before their first anniversary, Sean's memories flooded back in an instant. He soon remembered everything, including their wedding. "I remember shoving cake in her face," said Sean. "It was great."

Sean views the experience as a chance to confirm he picked the right bride. "I got to see how much she loves me," said Sean. "We have a much stronger and closer bond from the experience. I couldn't have found a better woman to spend my life with."

EXPLORING NEW CITIES

LESSON A ► Popular destinations

1 STARTING POINT

Cities of the world

A Read about these cities. Which city would you most like to visit?

BARCELONA

Barcelona is famous for museums, nightlife, and seafood – and for the architect Antoni Gaudí, who designed several of the city's most distinctive buildings. Most restaurants here stay open until midnight, when many locals are still enjoying dinner.

BEIJING

Beijing has many popular tourist attractions, which include the Summer Palace and the Forbidden City. Tourists who come here for the first time are amazed by the crowds, the busy streets, and the constantly changing skyline.

SEOUL

Seoul is well known for its spicy food and its shopping areas, where you can find everything from antique pottery to custom-made clothing. The Myeong-dong area has dozens of shops that sell the latest fashions.

SYDNEY

The place where most tourists go first in Sydney is the famous Opera House, but this Australian city also has great restaurants and museums. The spring and fall are the seasons when most people come to visit.

B Pair work Tell your partner about a city you know.

"I know Vancouver. It's got the ocean on one side and mountains on the other. It's really beautiful, but it's expensive . . ."

2 LISTENING

Where in the world . . . ?

A Listen to Diana and Matt talk about two cities. Who is talking about Athens and who is talking about Seoul?

B Listen again. Who mentions these topics, Diana (D) or Matt (M)? Write the correct letter.

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------|-----------------------|
| ___ 1. founded 3,000 years ago | ___ 4. a river | ___ 7. traffic |
| ___ 2. delicious spicy food | ___ 5. a subway system | ___ 8. street vendors |
| ___ 3. beautiful beaches | ___ 6. monuments | ___ 9. nightlife |

3 GRAMMAR

Defining and non-defining relative clauses

A defining relative clause defines or gives essential information about a noun.

The Myeong-dong area has dozens of shops that sell the latest fashions.

The spring and fall are the seasons when most people come to visit.

A non-defining relative clause gives optional information about a noun and cannot begin with the pronoun that. Notice the use of commas.

Most restaurants here stay open until midnight, when many locals are still enjoying dinner.

Beijing has many popular tourist attractions, which include the Summer Palace and the Forbidden City.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 110

A Look at the Starting Point on page 18 again. Can you find more relative clauses?

B Underline the relative clauses in the sentences and add commas where necessary. Write D for a defining and ND for a non-defining relative clause.

- ND* 1. Bangkok, which is the capital of Thailand, has many excellent restaurants and markets.
- ___ 2. Over one million people come to Pamplona in July when the festival of San Fermín takes place in this Spanish city.
- ___ 3. Aden is an ancient port city that is located in southern Yemen.
- ___ 4. Bogotá which is situated on a high plateau in central Colombia has frequently changing weather.
- ___ 5. Montreal is a sophisticated city where some of the best cuisine in Canada is found.
- ___ 6. São Paulo which is the biggest city in Brazil is one of the world's most populated cities.

C Join the sentences using non-defining relative clauses. Then compare answers.

- Gaudí designed Barcelona's Park Güell. You can see fabulous sculptures there.
- Seoul's name comes from the ancient word seorabeol. Seorabeol means "capital."
- The center of Beijing is Tiananmen Square. It is the world's largest public square.
- A great time to visit Seoul is in the fall. This is when Koreans celebrate the Chuseok festival.
- Fast-food restaurants are already fairly common in China. They are increasing in number each year.
- Australia's first European settlers came to Sydney in the late 1700s. They were originally from Great Britain.

4 SPEAKING

A great place to visit

A Which of the cities on page 18 would you like to visit? Write three sentences explaining your reasons. Use relative clauses where appropriate.

Barcelona is a city that I'd like to visit because . . .

B Pair work Tell your partner which city you'd like to visit and why.

5 VOCABULARY

What makes a city?

- A Are these features of cities more important to tourists or to residents?
Put the words in the correct columns. Add ideas of your own.

climate	crime rate	green spaces	job market	neighborhoods	shopping
cost of living	cuisine	hotels	landmarks	nightlife	transportation system
Important to tourists		Important to residents		Important to both

- B Pair work Use the features from part A to talk about your city. Give examples and add extra information.

"Salvador is famous all over Brazil for its cuisine. Acarajé is one of the most popular foods, and it's really delicious. It's a deep-fried cake that's made from mashed beans."

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 132

6 LISTENING

What's the city like?

- A Listen to Carlos and Vicki talk about San Francisco. Who seems to like the city better?

- B Listen again. Choose the city features that Carlos and Vicki mention.

- ☐ 1. climate ☐ 3. shopping ☐ 5. hotels ☐ 7. landmarks ☐ 9. cuisine
☐ 2. architecture ☐ 4. customs ☐ 6. job market ☐ 8. nightlife

7 DISCUSSION

Perfect places

- A Answer the questions with your own ideas.

What is...

- a good city for budget travelers? _____
- a good city for a honeymoon? _____
- a place that would make a great family vacation spot? _____
- a city where you'd like to live for a few years? _____
- a good city to go to school in? _____
- a place that you would never want to visit? _____

- B Pair work Discuss your answers.

"I think New York is a good place for budget travelers."

"I'm not sure I agree. New York is incredibly expensive."

"That's true, but there are lots of cheap fast-food restaurants..."

Useful expressions

Agreeing with an opinion

I think you're right.
 I'm with you.
 That's true.
 I think so, too.

Disagreeing with an opinion

I'm not sure I agree.
 Maybe, but don't you think...?
 Really?
 I know what you mean, but...

- C Group work Join another pair and try to agree on one answer for each question.

Organizing ideas with a mind map

Making a mind map is a good way of organizing your brainstorming ideas. Mind maps help you map out the supporting details about your topic.

- A Look at the phrases in the box about Cuzco, Peru. Choose the main idea and write it in the center of the mind map. Then write the supporting details around it.

a mix of history and culture beautiful architecture great shopping nice hotels

something for everyone wonderful restaurants

- B Read the paragraph about Cuzco. Underline the ideas from the mind map in the paragraph.

Cuzco has something for everyone. It's one of the oldest cities in the Americas, and it was once the capital of the Inca empire. Today, Cuzco is Peru's tourist capital because of its unique mix of history and culture. People who are interested in architecture will love the nearby Inca ruins of Machu Picchu and the palace of Inca Roca. Cuzco has many places to stay, which range from first-class hotels to cozy inns. There are also many cafés and restaurants where you can eat delicious local dishes or international cuisine. Also, Cuzco has great markets where you can shop for local arts and crafts. When you visit Cuzco, you should try to experience all it has to offer.

- C Choose a place you know and make your own mind map. Be sure the main idea is general and the map contains several supporting ideas.

- D Write a paragraph based on the ideas in your mind map.

- E Pair work Exchange paragraphs with a partner. Then answer the questions.

1. Are there enough supporting details? Are there any details you'd like your partner to add?
2. Does the content of the paragraph reflect the ideas in the mind map?
3. Would you like to visit the place your partner wrote about? Why or why not?

LESSON B ► My kind of town

STARTING POINT
City search

A Complete the descriptions with the sentences below. Then compare answers.

This exciting large city with bustling streets is a great place to live. Most evenings you can choose from a movie, a concert, or even a museum. (1) ____ There are lots of jobs here, and the average salary is about $4,000 per month. (2) ____ Our efficient new subway system can get you anywhere you want to go. (3) ____

This is a picturesque little resort town with year-round outdoor activities. There's something to do in all four seasons. But there's not much action here at night. (4) ____ There are many quaint little stores and boutiques in this beautiful town. (5) ____ Apartments are affordable, too. You can get a great place for about $1,000 a month, and average monthly salaries are about $2,500. (6) ____

- However, housing costs are high. A nice apartment is about $2,500 per month.
- So, even though our streets are safe, the evenings can be dull.
- But be careful – in spite of all the late-night activity, the crime rate is high.
- On the other hand, it can sometimes be difficult to find a job.
- Although it's fast, clean, and cheap, it's pretty crowded during rush hour. Nevertheless, it's becoming one of the most popular ways for people to get to work.
- Despite the attractive location, the prices of houses are surprisingly reasonable.

B Pair work Which place do you think has more to offer – the city or the town?

VOCABULARY
Compound terms for towns

A These compound terms describe different types of towns. How would you define each one?

border town	college town	mountain town	resort town	suburban town
coastal town	industrial town	port town	rural town	tourist town

A border town is near a border with another state or country.

B Pair work Which of the terms best describes your hometown? Which best describes the town where you'd like to live someday? Compare ideas.

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 132

3 GRAMMAR

Order of modifiers

When two or more modifiers occur in a sentence, they usually follow this order.

	Quality	Size	Age	Type	Noun	Descriptive phrase
this	exciting	large			city	with bustling streets
a	picturesque	little		resort	town	with year-round outdoor activities
a	run-down		old	port	town	that has seen better days

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 111

A Look at the Starting Point on page 22 again. Can you find more sentences that have two or more modifiers?

B Write descriptions of places you know. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. a nearby city or town that you frequently visit

Middleton is a typical suburban town with a good shopping mall.

2. a place you'd like to visit one day
3. a place tourists to your country want to see
4. a place you enjoy visiting, but wouldn't want to live in

4 GRAMMAR

Connecting contrasting ideas

You can use these words and phrases to connect contrasting ideas.

despite although however on the other hand in spite of even though nevertheless

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 111

A Look at the Starting Point on page 22 again. What words and phrases connect the contrasting ideas?

B Choose the words that are true for you. Then complete the sentences.

1. Although I would / wouldn't like to live in this town forever, . . .
Although I would like to live in this town forever, I'll have to move if rents go up.
2. There are not many / a lot of things I like about this town. However, . . .
3. Even though finding an apartment is easy / difficult in this town, . . .
4. Despite the high cost of living in this city, there are a number of / no . . .
5. The spring / summer / fall / winter here is very nice. On the other hand, . . .
6. Most places in this town close early / late. In spite of that, . . .
7. The areas around this town are mainly rural / suburban / urban. Nevertheless, . . .

C Pair work Discuss your answers. Ask and answer follow-up questions.

"Although I'd like to live in this town forever, I'll have to move if rents go up."

"Really? Where would you move?"

"I'm not sure. I hope someplace cheaper, but still near here."

5 LISTENING

Life in Sydney

A Listen to Maria and Ian talk about life in Sydney. Who seems to enjoy living there more?

B Listen again. Which person has these opinions? Choose Maria, Ian, or both.

	Maria	Ian	Both
1. It's easy to get around Sydney.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. The beaches are great.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. The rents are expensive.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. It's a fun place to live.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. The restaurants are all expensive.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Life is better in a smaller town.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

6 DISCUSSION

Quality of life

A Rate these quality-of-life issues as very important (2), important (1), or not important (0). Can you add one more to the list?

Quality of Life

_____ affordable housing	_____ exciting nightlife	_____ pleasant weather
_____ a variety of restaurants	_____ first-class health care	_____ varied retail shops _____ beautiful parks	_____ historic neighborhoods	_____ wireless hot spots _____ convenient public transportation	_____ low crime rates	_____

B Pair work Which three issues are the most important to you personally when considering where to live? Explain why.

"I guess affordable housing and exciting nightlife are the most important to me. I'd love to find a place I could afford that was near someplace fun."

"I know what you mean. But for me, I guess low crime rates are probably the most important. I want to live somewhere where I feel safe. I don't mind if it's a little boring."

C Class activity Share your answers with your classmates. Which issues were mentioned most often?

Melbourne versus Sydney

A Pair work What do you know about the Australian cities of Melbourne and Sydney? Tell your partner. Then read the article.

RIVALS with a lot IN COMMON

What's the truth behind the rivalry between Melbourne and Sydney?

According to Melbournians, they live in a paradise where ideas are discussed, the arts are celebrated, and life is beautiful. Sydneysiders claim to live in the same kind of place – only better. Nobody can agree on how the rivalry between Sydney and Melbourne started, but it's been going on for as long as anyone can remember.

If you believe the stereotypes that fuel this rivalry, Melbourne is just a quaint coastal city with nothing to do unless you're into indie music festivals and a slow-paced lifestyle, while Sydney is an expensive, unfriendly place with a focus on business and no place to park. If you believe what Melbournians and Sydneysiders say, the cities don't have much in common except that they're both Australian cities whose residents love where they live.

In reality, Sydney is a warm, beautiful city with lots of green, cross-harbor ferries, and world-class beaches, while Melbourne's right-in-the-city beaches are near colorful neighborhoods where there are plenty of things to do for entertainment.

Both Melbourne and Sydney have fabulous restaurants featuring cuisine from just about anywhere in the world, and both offer nightlife possibilities with something for everyone. In addition, both cities feature a year-round schedule of art and music festivals, as well as other cultural events catering to every taste. And their excellent public transportation systems help you get around easily.

It's true that Melbourne tends to have less rain than Sydney and that Sydney's average temperatures are higher, but it's wonderfully pleasant in either place. And while the cost-of-living is a little lower in Melbourne and salaries are higher in Sydney, prices in both really are quite comparable.

So, what's the rivalry all about? It probably comes down to civic pride. Residents of both of these world-class cities are rightly proud of where they live, and though there are differences, the differences are not really all that extreme. If you're not convinced, visit both and see for yourself.

Melbourne

Sydney

B Read the article again. Are these statements true (T), false (F), or is the information not given (NG) in the article? Write the correct letters.

- ___ 1. The rivalry between Sydney and Melbourne is a recent development.
- ___ 2. Life in Sydney, like in Melbourne, can also be slow.
- ___ 3. It's hard to get anywhere in Melbourne or Sydney without a car.
- ___ 4. It costs slightly less to live in Melbourne than it does in Sydney.

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. Why do you think people in Melbourne and Sydney tend to focus on the differences between the two cities rather than on the similarities?
2. Are there any cities in your country that have a rivalry? How are the cities similar and different? Is the rivalry based on stereotypes or on facts?

COMMUNICATION REVIEW

UNITS 1-3

SELF-ASSESSMENT

How well can you do these things? Choose the best answer.

I can ...	Very well	OK	A little
▶ Express personal likes and dislikes and give relevant explanations (Ex. 1)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
▶ Make and evaluate recommendations to improve a city in a problem-solving discussion (Ex. 2)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Now do the corresponding exercises. Was your assessment correct?

DISCUSSION

Likes and dislikes

A Look at these items. Can you think of a personal example for each one?

1. something you're into / not into doing by yourself
2. the kind of music you feel like listening to when you're in a bad mood
3. something you like doing when you're stressed out
4. a household chore you don't mind / can't stand doing
5. something you avoid doing, if possible

B Pair work Discuss your answers with a partner.

"I'm really into going to art galleries by myself. That way I can spend as much time as I want."

"Oh, I'm just the opposite. I don't really like going to galleries alone. It's nice to share the experience with someone."

A What are three places in your city that people would enjoy visiting? Make a list.

B Group work Tell your group facts about your city and its "must-see" places. Explain why they are worth seeing.

"Guadalajara, which is the second largest city in Mexico, has a lot of great markets. The Libertad Market is fantastic. It's a market every tourist should see because . . ."

4 EARLY BIRDS AND NIGHT OWLS

LESSON A ► It's about time!

1 STARTING POINT

What's your best time of day?

A Read these statements. How would you define the boldfaced words?

Teresa, South Africa

As soon as I get up in the morning, I race off to the gym. After I finish my workout, I head to the office. I always get there before any of my colleagues arrive. I suppose I'm a morning person.

Caio, Brazil

Ever since I was a kid, I've had trouble getting up early, so I guess I'm a late riser. Until I've had my coffee, I'm such a grouch. I'm not very approachable right after I wake up!

Mieko, Japan

I'm a power napper. While I take my lunch break at work, I often sneak a five-minute nap at my desk. After I have a little sleep, I feel great the rest of the day.

Richard, U.S.

I don't get much done until it gets to be late afternoon. Then I usually get a spurt of energy. I can concentrate best after everyone else has gone to bed. I'd say I'm a real night owl.

B Group work Which of the people in part A are you most similar to? Why?

2 DISCUSSION

The time is right.

A Pair work Read this information. Do you agree with the advice given? Why or why not?

When the Mind and Body Are at Their Best

Get on social networking sites between 8:00 and 9:00 A.M., when people tend to post more positive messages.

Whenever you need to study for a test, do it in the late morning, when most adults perform their best.

Whenever you have to work with numbers, plan to do it around noon, when thinking power is at its peak.

Energy levels drop between 1:00 and 4:00 P.M., and sleepiness is at its peak around 2:00 P.M. This is a good time for a short nap.

Exercise between 4:00 and 7:00 P.M., when physical strength is at its greatest and risk of injury is at its lowest.

People can be most creative when they are less focused. Therefore, morning people are most creative in the evening, and night owls are most creative in the morning.

B Pair work Do you prefer to do these things in the morning, the afternoon, the evening, or at night? Why? Compare answers.

1. exercise
2. listen to music
3. study
4. speak English

GRAMMAR

Reduced time clauses

Notice how these clauses show time relationships. If the subject is the same in both clauses of the sentence, time clauses with (right) before, (right) after, and while can be reduced.

After I finish / After finishing my workout, I head to the office.

While I take / While taking my lunch break at work, I often sneak a five-minute nap.

I'm not very approachable right after I wake up / right after waking up!

However, other time clauses cannot usually be reduced.

Ever since I was a kid, I've had trouble getting up early.

As soon as I get up in the morning, I race off to the gym.

Until I've had my coffee, I'm such a grouch.

Whenever you have to work with numbers, plan to do it around noon.

I've been a night person from the moment I started college.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 112

A Look at the Starting Point on page 28 again. Can you find more time clauses? Which one can be reduced?

B Pair work Complete the sentences with information about yourself. Then discuss your answers with a partner.

1. While working on a really difficult task, . . .
2. I don't feel awake in the morning until . . .
3. Whenever I have trouble sleeping, . . .
4. I can never concentrate after . . .
5. From the moment I wake up in the morning, . . .
6. As soon as I start to feel sleepy in the evening, . . .
7. Ever since I was young, . . .

"While working on a really difficult task, I have to stretch every 30 minutes."

A Look at the problems below. Have you ever had problems like these? What other problems do people have with sleep and energy levels?

CALLER 1

I've been working day and night on an important project. It's going well, but I'm feeling so worn out. I'm worried about my health.

CALLER 2

I get so nervous before I have to give a presentation that I can't sleep the night before, and then I'm not at my best.

CALLER 3

I always put off studying until the night before a test. I stay up all night studying, but after that, I still don't do very well.

CALLER 4

Whenever my friends call or text me late at night, we chat for hours and hours. The next day, I can't keep my eyes open!

B Pair work Imagine you have one of the problems in part A. Take turns asking for and giving advice.

"I have a real problem. I've been working a lot on this project, and I'm so worn out. I'm worried about my health."

"So, how late do you usually work during the week?"

"I usually stay until 9:00 P.M. or so."

"Have you ever thought of telling someone that you need a little help?"

Useful expressions

Giving advice

Have you ever thought of (going) ... ?

You might want to ...

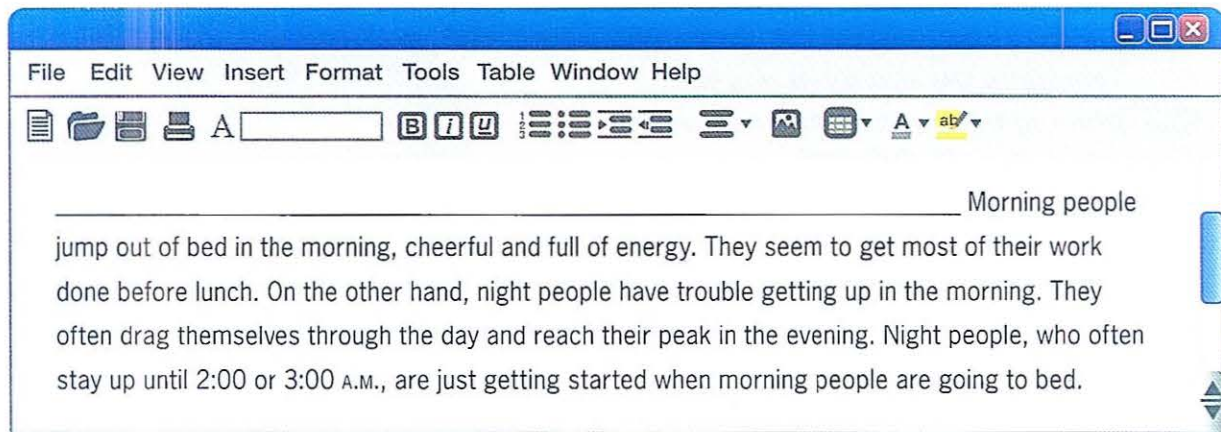

It might not be a bad idea to ...

The way I see it, you ought to ...

Effective topic sentences

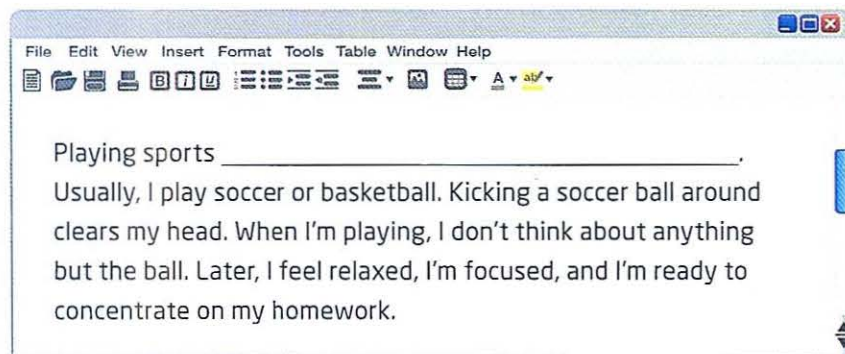

Effective topic sentences are neither too general nor too specific. A topic sentence is supported by the other sentences in the paragraph.

A Read the paragraph. Then choose the best topic sentence from the list.

- Early morning is a bad time of day for most people.
- Morning people and night people live very different lives.
- Working at night is hard for morning people.
- Night people get enough sleep even though they go to bed late.

B Read the paragraph and complete the topic sentence. Then compare answers with a partner.

C Choose one of these topics or your own idea. Then write a paragraph with a topic sentence.

- the best way to stay healthy
- an effective study plan
- earning extra money

D Pair work Take turns reading your paragraphs out loud, but don't read the topic sentence. Can you guess what your partner's topic sentence is?

LESSON B ► Tossing and turning

1 STARTING POINT

A good night's sleep

A Read the statements about sleep habits. Choose the statements that are true for you.

- ☐ I sometimes lie awake at night, even if I'm really tired.
- ☐ I'm lucky I can get by on six hours of sleep, considering that most people need eight.
- ☐ I'm a light sleeper, so any little noise wakes me up unless I'm really tired.
- ☐ I can manage on five hours of sleep, as long as I take a nap during the day.
- ☐ Unless I get a good night's sleep, I can easily fall asleep at school, at work, or even on the bus.
- ☐ I always set two alarm clocks just in case one of them doesn't go off.
- ☐ I only wake up early if I have somewhere to be in the morning.
- ☐ I never have any trouble sleeping.
- ☐ I'm exhausted every morning, even if I slept great all night.

B Pair work Compare your answers. Which statements are true for you?

"I definitely lie awake at night, even if I'm really tired. I can't help it. I replay everything that happened during the day."

"You're not the only one. I do the same thing, especially when I'm feeling stressed."

2 VOCABULARY

Expressions related to sleep

A Put these expressions about sleep in the correct columns. Then compare answers.

be fast asleep	be wide awake	feel drowsy	nod off	take a power nap
be sound asleep	drift off	have a sleepless night	sleep like a log	toss and turn

Having trouble sleeping	Falling asleep	Sleeping a short time	Sleeping deeply
			be fast asleep

B Pair work Use the expressions in part A to discuss your sleep habits and suggestions about sleeping better.

"Do you ever take a power nap during the day?"

"Not really. Whenever I try to take a nap, I end up sleeping until the next morning. But let me ask you something. What do you do when you feel drowsy after lunch?"

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 133

3 GRAMMAR

Clauses stating reasons and conditions

Even if introduces a condition that does not influence the main clause.

I sometimes lie awake at night, even if I'm really tired.

Considering that introduces causes and reasons that explain the main clause.

I'm lucky I can get by on six hours of sleep, considering that most people need eight.

As long as introduces a condition on which the main clause depends.

I can manage on five hours of sleep, as long as I take a nap during the day.

Unless introduces something that must happen in order to avoid a consequence.

Unless I get a good night's sleep, I can easily fall asleep at school, at work, or even on the bus.

(Just) in case introduces an undesirable circumstance that needs to be taken into account.

I always set two alarm clocks (just) in case one of them doesn't go off.

Only if or only . . . if introduces a condition that must be met for the main clause to be true.

I only wake up early if I have somewhere to be in the morning.

I wake up early only if I have somewhere to be in the morning.

6 READING

To sleep or not to sleep?

A Group work How many hours do you think people should sleep? Why? Discuss with your group. Then read the article.

In the days before electricity, people didn't worry much about sleep. They usually went to bed a couple of hours after sunset and woke at sunrise. Even if they stayed up, there wasn't much to do in those days after the sun went down. But then came the electric lightbulb. And now we have the Internet, smartphones, stores that are open 24/7, and longer hours at work. How much can we sleep? How much should we sleep?

Like it or not, many of us are sleeping less on average. In 1910, most Americans slept nine hours a night. That dropped to seven hours by 2001. In 2009, a study by the National Sleep Foundation found that the average American got only 6.7 hours of sleep. The news is even worse for people who work the night shift. They sleep an average of just five hours.

Are we sleeping enough? Not if you believe in the old formula of eight hours of rest, eight hours of work, and eight hours of play. On the other hand, Neil Stanley, a British scientist who studies sleep, believes people's sleep needs vary. Some people need as many as 11 hours, but others need as few as three. How much do you really need? "To find out," he says, "simply sleep until you wake naturally, without the aid of an alarm clock. Feel rested? That's your sleep need."

Meanwhile, other scientists and pharmaceutical researchers are searching for new ways to keep us awake longer and prevent us from nodding off. A group of scientists is studying a gene found in some fruit flies that lets them get by on one-third the usual amount of sleep. Other researchers are developing chemicals that are more powerful than caffeine, the chemical found in coffee and tea. One experimental drug, CX717, kept laboratory monkeys working happily and accurately for 36 hours. Future breakthroughs may allow people to stay wide awake for several days straight.

The implications of this research are huge. On the one hand, this could lead to a world where we work longer and longer hours with less and less sleep. On the other hand, if we needed less sleep, we would have more free time for travel, sports, personal goals, and family.

To sleep or not to sleep – that may soon be the question.

B Read the article again. Then answer the questions.

1. What scientific research is mentioned in the article? What surprised you the most? What surprised you the least?
2. How much sleep does Neil Stanley think a person needs? Why?
3. What effects did the experimental drug mentioned in the article have on laboratory animals?

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. Do you think you get enough sleep? What things keep you from getting more?
2. What do you think would happen if scientists found ways to let people stay awake longer? Would people be happier? Explain your answers.

COMMUNICATION

LESSON A ► Making conversation

1 STARTING POINT

Types of people you might meet

A Read about six different types of people you sometimes meet on social occasions. Match the descriptions with the pictures.

1 It's a good idea to try out different topics to get a conversation going, and the conversation starter does just that. ☐

2 Talking about your accomplishments too much is often considered rude, but that doesn't stop the braggart. ☐

3 Saying nice things about others is customary for the complimenter. ☐

4 It's rude to ignore your conversation partner, but the wandering mind does it anyway. ☐

5 Talking about topics that interest you is fun. Unfortunately, the bore is interesting to no one else. ☐

6 It's usually considered impolite to interrupt people, but the interrupter is always jumping into the conversation out of turn. ☐

B Pair work Do you know any people like the six types above? What is it like to have a conversation with them?

"My best friend is kind of an interrupter. She's really nice, but I guess she just gets excited about the conversation and wants to jump in. It can be very annoying."

2 GRAMMAR

Infinitive and gerund phrases

It + be + adjective/noun + infinitive phrase is often used to comment on behavior.

These sentences can also be restated with gerund phrases.

It's rude to ignore your conversation partner.

Ignoring your conversation partner is rude.

It's a good idea to try out different topics.

Trying out different topics is a good idea.

The word considered may also follow be in this kind of sentence.

It's considered impolite to interrupt people.

Interrupting people is considered impolite.

These sentences can also include the phrase for + person/pronoun.

It's customary for the complimenter to say nice things about others.

Saying nice things about others is customary for the complimenter.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 114

A Look at the Starting Point on page 36 again. Can you find more sentences that begin with gerunds? Try to change them into sentences beginning with it's.

B Rewrite the sentences using infinitive or gerund phrases. Then compare answers with a partner.

- It's inappropriate to talk about politics at work or school.
Talking about politics at work or school is inappropriate.
- Using certain gestures is impolite in some foreign countries.
- Asking someone's age is often considered rude.
- It's not unusual in the U.S. to address a professor by his or her first name.
- Hugging friends when you greet them is customary in many cultures.
- Asking strangers if they're married is inappropriate in some countries.

3 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

What's appropriate?

A Are these words and phrases positive (+), negative (-), or neutral (~)?

Write the correct symbol next to each word.

- | | | | |
|---------------------|----------------------|------------------|-----------------|
| ___ 1. a compliment | ___ 4. bad form | ___ 7. offensive | ___ 10. strange |
| ___ 2. an insult | ___ 5. inappropriate | ___ 8. polite | ___ 11. typical |
| ___ 3. appropriate | ___ 6. normal | ___ 9. rude | ___ 12. unusual |

B Group work How do you feel about these things? Discuss these situations using the words and phrases in part A.

- You kiss people on the cheek when you meet them.
- You and your classmates interrupt the teacher.
- You stand very close to people when you talk to them.
- You and your parents talk honestly and openly.
- Your best friend calls you after 11:00 P.M.
- You start a conversation with a stranger on a bus or subway.

"It's unusual for me to kiss people I meet on the cheek."

- B Listen again. What closing phrase is used to end each conversation?

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

Organizing ideas with an outline

Making an outline is a good way to organize your ideas before you write. An outline is usually written in reduced sentences or in notes and provides a general plan to follow when you write.

- A Read the paragraph about a cultural rule in Japan. Then complete the outline below with information from the paragraph. What additional information is included in the paragraph but not in the outline?

Speaking on a cell phone in some public places in Japan is considered impolite. When receiving or making a cell phone call, most Japanese step away from the people around them. If that's impossible, it's customary to speak softly and use your hand to cover your mouth. Announcements on Japanese trains constantly remind passengers to switch their phones to silent mode. This is because people dislike being bothered by noise. Not everyone follows the rules, but most people do. The other day, people were glaring at me for taking a call in a café, and one person even scolded me. I was pretty shocked, but then I thought about it. Listening to others talking on the phone is irritating. There is a good reason why Japanese people use polite behavior when speaking on cell phones.

A. Topic sentence

Speaking on a cell phone in some public places in Japan is impolite.

B. Supporting sentences

- Recommended behavior:
_____ or speak softly and cover mouth
- General example:
Train announcements remind passengers – put phone on silent
- Personal example:
People glaring for taking a call in _____

C. Concluding sentence

There is a good reason why Japanese people _____.

- B Pair work Write an outline about a cultural rule from your country. Then exchange outlines and answer the questions.
1. Is the outline in a logical order?
 2. Does the outline provide enough information? Is there anything else you would include?
- C Pair work Use your outline to write a paragraph about the cultural rule. Then exchange paragraphs and answer the questions.
1. Does the paragraph follow the outline?
 2. Is the cultural rule clear? What suggestions do you have to make it clearer?

LESSON B ► It's personal.

STARTING POINT
Eavesdroppers

A Read each person's statement. What do you think they should do about each situation?

I Wish I Hadn't Heard That!

Luis, 23, Mexico City

“On the bus to work, I heard my boss's voice behind me. I think he was talking to the office manager on his cell phone. He was telling her that it would be a bad day at work. He explained that they were going to lay off my entire department!”

Rebecca, 25, Vancouver

“I overheard my roommate and her friend gossiping about me when I got home. I asked them what they were saying, but they claimed they hadn't been talking about me. I knew that wasn't true. It really hurt my feelings.”

Pam, 18, Portland

“Last week, I overheard my little brother on his cell phone. He was warning his friend not to say anything. So of course I listened. He said he was getting a terrible grade in math this year! And he said it was a big secret, too. In fact, my parents still don't know the truth.”

B Group work Have you ever heard someone talking about you? What did you do?

DISCUSSION
Who can you confide in?

A Read the information in the chart. Would you rank each person in the same way?

Who do you tell first?

We asked a group of young adults to rate each person in the chart according to when they would tell that person different types of personal news (1 = tell first, 4 = tell last). This is what they said.

Who would you tell ...	Family member	Spouse	Close friend	Colleague good news?	2	1	3	4
bad/tragic news?	1	2	3	4
gossip?	4	3	2	1
personal information?	3	2	1	4

CELL PHONE PERSONALITY TYPES

In her travels, "Telephone Doctor" Nancy Friedman has noticed a variety of "cell phone personalities." Which of these types have you seen around?

1. The Shouter

Talking three times louder than necessary is characteristic of this offensive cell phone user. He seems to think everyone has a hearing impairment. Doesn't he know the phone already amplifies his voice?

This pompous fellow makes all his business calls in public places while standing in the middle of a crowded room. He conducts big business deals right there in front of us, but we're not impressed.

3.

This exasperating person makes trivial phone calls, one after another, after another. On airplanes, you'll overhear her saying ridiculous things like, "Hi, we haven't left yet," or "Hi, we just landed. OK, see you in a minute."

4.

Making and taking calls anytime, anywhere is the trademark of this infuriating person. She'll chat in restaurants, at movie theaters, and even at funerals. When her cell phone rings, she looks at you and says insincerely, "Oh, sorry about that."

5.

Drive or use the phone – don't do both at the same time. This can be dangerous. It's really scary to see a delivery truck in the rearview mirror with a distracted driver on a phone behind the wheel.

6.

These are the people who haven't bothered to personalize their ring tone. One phone rings and 10 people check to see if it's theirs. Hang on, I think that's my phone!

SURFING DOG
Upstages Rivals

1 ☐ The police have been called to a surfing contest in Brazil because a dog has been stealing all the attention. The dog became the main attraction at Praia da Tiririca in Bahia during the Surf World Championship. The dog and his owner surfed together on the same surfboard between the competitions. Police said, "They've called us to remove the pair because they've been getting more attention than the actual contest." The dog's owner said, "I've always surfed with my dog. He's always loved it. Sometimes I think he's a better surfer than I am!"

2 ☐ Maggie, a California sea lion at the Pittsburgh Zoo, has been amazing visitors by painting for her supper. She has created dozens of paintings. Her trainer said, "I started teaching her to paint last year, and she caught on quickly." Maggie spent three months learning to hold the paintbrush in her mouth and to touch it to the canvas. Adding the paint was the next step. Maggie earned a fish for every successful brushstroke. The trainer has saved all the paintings. She'll probably sell them to raise money to help animals.

A shopper in Michigan saved time and money after her husband helped her unlock her car from 10 miles away. After a day at the mall, the woman went out to her car, but couldn't find her keys. When she saw them still in the ignition, she called home and said, "I've locked my keys in the car. I've never done that before. I don't know what to do." Following her husband's instructions, she held her cell phone about a foot from the car door, while her husband held the spare car remote near his phone and pressed the unlock button. The door unlocked. She said, "I've totally stopped worrying about my keys now."

B Pair work One of the news stories isn't true. Which one do you think it is?
(For the answer, see page 142.)

*"I think story number one has got to be false. I just don't believe that a dog could surf.
Story number two is also pretty amazing, but I have a feeling it's true."*

2 GRAMMAR

Present perfect vs. simple past

Use the present perfect to report a recent event without giving a specific time reference.

I've locked my keys in the car.

Use the simple past to report an event with a specific time reference.

After a day at the mall, the woman went out to her car.

I started teaching her to paint last year.

A group of thieves (1) has stolen (steal) the Dragon's Eye ruby from the Grand Gallery. Last night at about 1:00 A.M., the alarm (2) _____ (go off). Police (3) _____ (rush) to the building immediately, but they (4) _____ (be) too late. Right after learning of the robbery, the mayor

(5) _____ (set up) a telephone hotline for information about the theft. Three people (6) _____ (call) so far, but the police are still looking for further information. They believe it is probable that the thieves (7) _____ (leave) the city. The curator of the Grand Gallery (8) _____ (offer) a $50,000 reward for information leading to the capture of the thieves.

3 GRAMMAR

Present perfect vs. present perfect continuous

Use the present perfect continuous to describe temporary situations and actions that are not yet completed. The present perfect describes permanent situations and recently completed actions.

A dog has been stealing all the attention. (temporary situation)

I've always surfed with my dog. (permanent situation)

Maggie has been amazing visitors by painting for her supper. (not yet completed action)

I've locked my keys in the car. (recently completed action)

Personal anecdotes

A Pair work Look at the titles of the anecdotes. What do you think each one is about? Read the anecdotes to check your answers.

IT HAPPENED TO ME!

(or my friend . . . or a friend of a friend . . .)

Babysitter's Blues

I'll never forget the time last winter when I was babysitting these two kids for the first time. It was about 7:30 at night. Their mom had asked me to make them a pizza for dinner. It had been in the oven for about 15 minutes when suddenly I heard a noise outside, and the dog started barking. As soon as I opened the door and stepped outside, the kids slammed and locked it behind me. It was winter, and I stood outside freezing while they rolled around on the floor laughing hysterically. Meanwhile, the kitchen started getting smoky, and the smoke detector started buzzing. They didn't know what to do, so they let me back in. The pizza was burnt to a crisp. I didn't say anything. But, as we sat around the kitchen table having a bowl of cold cereal instead of their favorite, pizza, I could tell they regretted what they'd done. Anyway, to make a long story short, I babysit them all the time now, and guess what. I haven't had any problems since that first night.

– Amy Fernandez, Boston

A Bad Holiday

Have I learned any lessons the hard way? I sure have! What happened was I wanted a Monday off from work. Tuesday was a national holiday, and I thought a four-day weekend would be just perfect. I asked my boss, and he said no. At that company, all employees got their birthday off, so I asked if we could pretend that the Monday was my birthday. He said no. I woke up on the Monday morning feeling a little defiant, so I called in sick. I told them I got a terrible sunburn on the weekend. Later on, I realized that I had no color at all because I hadn't been out in the sun. So my friends and I went to the beach and stayed there all day. When I woke up the next morning,

I had the worst sunburn of my life. I even had to go to the hospital! In the end, I learned a valuable lesson – I can't get away with anything!

– Rita Wagner, San Diego

B Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. Why do you think Amy hasn't had any more problems?
2. What would you have done if you were Rita?
3. Which anecdote did you find more amusing? Why?

Organize Me XPS is one of the best tools I have used for managing my busy schedule – and I have used many over the years. With this app, I'm able to organize all of my tasks and appointments in one place with just a couple of simple steps. Furthermore, a simple set-up is all it takes to share my plans with others. Having the ability to share my lists and calendars with colleagues and friends like this is extremely useful.

The only drawback some people might find is that it does not have all of the features offered by some of the more expensive productivity apps; nevertheless, it does exactly what I need it to do. In fact, the app's simplicity is its best feature. I just love the simple interface.

Although the developers promise that free updates offering new features will be released soon, if you ask me, the low cost makes it a really good value as is.

If you're someone who writes notes on little pieces of paper and then loses them, get this app. It will really boost your productivity. I use it every day – for school, work, and everything else.

B Use one of these topics or your own idea to write a product or service review.

- technology you purchased
- a game or app you tried
- a restaurant you ate at
- a service you used (dry cleaner, hair salon, mechanic)

C Group work Take turns reading your reviews. Then answer the questions.

1. Whose review is the most interesting and informative? Why?
2. What additional information would you want to know as a consumer?
3. Which reviews would convince you to buy the product or use the service?
Which ones would lead you to make a different choice?

LESSON B ► Information overload

1 STARTING POINT Future shock

A Read these comments about technology. Do you agree or disagree?

WHAT'S Your TAKE ON TECHNOLOGY?

Joo-chan, Seoul:

"Apps are cool, aren't they? I download lots of them to my smartphone. Wouldn't it be great if phones came loaded with even more apps?"

Ana, São Paulo:

"Isn't it weird how some people use mobile devices constantly? They don't notice anything around them. It's actually dangerous, don't you think?"

Sarah, Los Angeles:

"Don't you think there are too many websites full of misinformation? Shouldn't the government fine sites that contain false information?"

Yang Ming, Taipei:

"Doesn't it seem like kids spend too much time playing violent video games? It makes kids more aggressive, doesn't it?"

B Pair work Compare your answers with a partner. Do you think the government should regulate any of these things?

2 VOCABULARY Forms of communication

A Where do you find these forms of communication? Put them in the correct columns. Then add another expression to each category.

banner ads	bumper stickers	crawls	infomercials	spam	text messages
billboards	bus wraps	fliers	pop-up ads	telemarketing	voice mail

On television	On the Internet	On the phone	On streets or highways

B Pair work Which of the above are the most useful ways of communicating information? The least useful? Do you find any of them annoying?

"Those crawls at the bottom of TV screens aren't useful. It's impossible to read them and pay attention to a show at the same time. Don't you think they're annoying?"

3 GRAMMAR

Negative and tag questions for giving opinions

Use negative questions or tag questions to offer an opinion and invite someone to react.

Isn't it weird how some people use mobile devices constantly?

Doesn't it seem like kids spend too much time playing violent video games?

Wouldn't it be great if phones came loaded with even more apps?

Shouldn't the government fine sites that contain false information?

Apps are cool, aren't they?

It makes kids more aggressive, doesn't it?

Use the phrase don't you think to form negative or tag questions for opinions.

Don't you think there are too many websites full of misinformation?

It's actually dangerous, don't you think?

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 119

A Look at the Starting Point on page 58 again. Find the tag questions used by Joo-chan and Yang Ming. Why do they have different endings?

B Pair work Turn the statements into negative or tag questions. Then ask and answer the questions. Discuss your answers.

1. It's annoying how often telemarketers call.
2. They should get rid of those banner ads on the Internet.
3. It would be great if there were fewer billboards.
4. It seems like a lot of people are texting while driving.
5. It's sad when people are tricked into losing money by spam messages.
6. There are too many channels on TV these days.

4 DISCUSSION

It's kind of strange, isn't it?

A Pair work Do you agree or disagree with these opinions? Why?

Millions of people are addicted to online games these days. It's kind of sad, isn't it?

Wouldn't it be great if the Internet were turned off one day a week to give people a chance to rest?

Don't you find it annoying that social networking sites sell your personal information to marketers?

Don't you think a lot of people are being confused by misinformation on the Internet?

Aren't kids today being exposed to too much information on television and on the Internet?

B Group work What other problems are caused by modern information technology? Agree on the three most pressing problems and tell the class.

"Don't you think kids today spend too much time online? Won't their grades and social development suffer because of it?"

"You might be right. But their parents should set limits for them, shouldn't they?"

A Pair work Imagine that a stranger asked you for money to help pay off a frivolous debt. Would you help? Tell your partner. Then read the article.

Can you spare a dime for my Gucci bills?

There was a time when Karyn Bosnak couldn't pay a $59.00 bill at the grocery store. She was officially broke. She didn't have enough money to get on the subway, but she looked rich. She was a television producer, earned $900 a week, and had a closetful of designer labels like Gucci and Louis Vuitton. But she also had a $20,221.40 credit card bill and an empty bank account. Karyn decided that it was time for a change. She built a website and simply asked people to help her out by sending her a buck or two.

On the site, Karyn honestly explained her situation, Gucci shoes and all. "If 20,000 people gave me just $1, I'd be home free, and I'm sure there are 20,000 people out there who can afford to give me $1." Amazingly, it worked. Her website was visited by more than a million people. Although most donors just gave a few dollars, one generous donor sent $1,000. She was on TV and in newspapers and magazines. She was offered a book deal and a movie contract. And of course, she was able to pay off her credit card debt.

She also sold her designer clothes on eBay. In her closet, where the Gucci purses once sat, Karyn keeps all the letters that people have sent her.

She's received teddy bears, subscriptions to Vogue, Dunkin' Donuts coupons, backpacks, jewelry, cat food, and candles.

It's hard to understand why so many people helped a total stranger pay off her huge credit card bill. Why did they do it? Karyn explains, "I was just honest about what happened; I didn't make up some sob story about saving the world." Her donors think it's funny and original, she argues, and view it less as a charity than as an entertainment site.

Imitators have sprung up all over the Internet, some with outrageously selfish requests like a BMW or a house. Actually, Karyn was not the first person to put up a website asking strangers for money. The practice has a name: "cyber-begging." Most sites receive little traffic and even less cash.

Karyn also had thousands of enemies and critics. People sent her hate mail and scolded her on websites. Karyn says she never let this anger bother her. "They are probably jealous they didn't think of it," she explains.

B Read the article again and answer the questions. Then compare your answers with a partner.

1. Why was Karyn in financial trouble?
2. What was her main solution to her problem? What else did she do?
3. Why did so many people respond positively to her website?

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. Do you think Karyn was unethical, or was she simply clever?
2. What would you have done if you were Karyn?

PUTTING THE MIND TO WORK

LESSON A ► Exploring creativity

STARTING POINT

Creative professions

A Pair work How much creativity do you think these jobs require? Number them from 1 (most creative) to 4 (least creative). Explain your choices.

___ chef

___ surgeon

___ photographer

___ jazz musician

"I think a chef has to be the most creative. Inventing new dishes requires a lot of creativity."

B Group work Which jobs might be right for these kinds of people? Discuss your answers.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. someone able to think quickly | 4. someone needing job security |
| 2. a person looking for adventure | 5. a person trained in music |
| 3. people good with their hands | 6. a person with a good voice |

"Someone able to think quickly might be a good surgeon. You never know what might go wrong once the operation starts."

VOCABULARY

Creative qualities

A What qualities do creative people usually have? Complete the chart with the correct nouns or adjectives.

Noun	Adjective	Noun	Adjective	Noun	Adjective
curiosity	curious	innovation			passionate decisiveness		knowledge		patience determined		motivated		perceptive
	disciplined		original		resourceful

B Pair work Which of the qualities in the chart are most important to your job or studies? Discuss with a partner.

"Well, I'm studying engineering, and we get a lot of assignments, so I have to be very disciplined. It's a very competitive field."

GRAMMAR

Reduced relative clauses

You can shorten a relative clause by dropping the relative pronoun and the verb be.

Someone (who / that is) able to think quickly might be a good surgeon.

A person (who / that is) looking for adventure could be a private detective.

A person (who / that is) trained in music might be a good DJ.

You can also drop who / that and change the verb to the gerund.

Someone who / that needs job security might not want to be a jazz musician.

Someone needing job security might not want to be a jazz musician.

In many relative clauses, who / that + the verb have can be replaced by with.

A person who / that has a good voice could be a good TV journalist.

A person with a good voice could be a good TV journalist.

www.irLanguage.com

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 120

A Look at the Starting Point on page 62 again. Can you make the reduced relative clauses in part B into full clauses? What verb forms do the full clauses use?

B Rewrite these sentences with reduced relative clauses. Then compare with a partner.

- Someone who hopes to be a chef should get the proper training.
Someone hoping to be a chef should get the proper training.
- Anyone who wants to be an actor needs both talent and luck.
- A person who works as a comedian is always looking for new ways to make people laugh.
- People who are clever enough to get inside the mind of a criminal would make good detectives.
- Anyone who dreams of becoming a champion athlete has to be prepared to do a lot of hard work.
- Someone who is interested in the latest music trends might be a good DJ.
- A person who is responsible for a large staff has to be able to be creative with scheduling.

C Complete these sentences using reduced relative clauses and your own ideas.

- ... needs to take voice lessons.
Someone dreaming of becoming a professional singer needs to take voice lessons.
- ... should speak English as much as possible.
- ... should keep up with current events.
- ... doesn't need to have a good speaking voice.
- ... should follow the latest trends in clothing.
- ... has to study the behavior of animals.
- ... usually have a great love of food and eating.
- ... will find the job market extremely competitive.

4 DISCUSSION

Creativity quiz

A How creative are you? Complete the quiz.

How Creative Are You?
	Always	Sometimes	Rarely	Never
1. Are you a risk taker?	3	2	1	0
2. Are you naturally curious?	3	2	1	0
3. Do you look for opportunities to improve things?	3	2	1	0
4. Are you sensitive to beauty?	3	2	1	0
5. Do you challenge accepted ideas?	3	2	1	0
6. Do you keep an eye out for new fashions and products?	3	2	1	0
7. Do you adapt easily to new situations?	3	2	1	0
8. Do you trust your guesses, intuitions, and insights?	3	2	1	0
9. Are you more interested in the future than in the past?	3	2	1	0
10. Do you have a creative sense of humor?	3	2	1	0

B Pair work Add up your score. Then check what your score means below. Do you agree? Why or why not? Tell your partner.

	21-30	11-20	0-10
About You	Because you're open-minded, you like to keep up with the latest trends and innovations. Accepting the status quo bores you. You see mistakes as learning experiences.	You often have good ideas, but you prefer to feel them out with friends before taking action. You're up-to-date with new fashions and products, but unlikely to be the first in your group to try them.	You prefer to stick with the tried-and-true, which helps you feel safe, but you may get left behind in later years. You're content with who you are and what you know.

5 LISTENING

Creativity at work

A Listen to Samira, Alex, and Naomi talking about their occupations. What does each person do?

B Listen again. What do Samira (S), Alex (A), and Naomi (N) say they focus on in their work? Write the correct letter.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| ___ 1. helping indecisive clients | ___ 4. solving a wide variety of problems |
| ___ 2. efficiency | ___ 5. new ideas to replace rejected ones |
| ___ 3. beating the competition | ___ 6. using old concepts in new ways |

Beginning new paragraphs

Begin a new paragraph each time you change the focus of your ideas.

- A Read this composition. The writer changes focus twice. Indicate with a P where the two new paragraphs should begin. Then compare answers with a partner.

Lucy Gomez is the most creative person I know. She started piano lessons when she was only four years old. At school, she was always creating interesting projects in her art class. When she was only 12 years old, she won a citywide poetry contest. Her parents were very proud of her. Lucy works as a sitcom writer for a popular TV show now. She works with a group of writers, and together they have to think of original ideas for stories. They also have to come up with funny dialogue for the actors on their show, because the actors have to play believable characters that will make the audience laugh. It is not an easy job, but Lucy does it well. She starts work late in the morning and often works until 7:00 or 8:00 at night. Lucy is very curious. She likes to travel and meet new people who have opinions that are different from hers. And she's always noting ideas, drawing quick sketches, and taking photos. She tells me that doing these things helps her turn new experiences into a source of ideas for her work. I always enjoy talking to her and am happy to know someone as knowledgeable and creative as Lucy.

- B Brainstorm ideas for a composition about someone who is very creative or who is unique or different in an interesting way. Answer these questions to help you.

1. In what ways is this person special or different?
2. How does this affect his or her life?
3. Would you like to be like this person? Why or why not?

- C Write a three-paragraph composition based on your ideas.

- D Pair work Read your partner's composition and answer these questions.

1. Do the paragraphs start and end where they should?
2. Is the focus of each paragraph clear?
3. Is there any additional information you would like to know that was not included?

LESSON B ► Ideas that work

1 STARTING POINT Everyday objects

A Read about these unusual uses of everyday objects. Have you ever used them in these ways?

Three Clever Ideas

1 "I have three cats, which means there's usually a lot of cat fur on my clothes. To get rid of the fur, I wrap my hand in tape, sticky side out. Then I rub the tape over my clothes, and it picks up the fur!"

2 "The zipper was stuck on my favorite jacket. Luckily, my roommate works in fashion, which is great because she knew how to fix it. She just rubbed a drop of olive oil on the zipper."

3 "Tacos can be messy to eat, which is why I wrap them in paper coffee filters. I serve them that way at parties and backyard barbecues. It works great for other messy sandwiches, too!"

B Group work Use your imagination to suggest new uses for these everyday items. Decide on the best use for each and share it with the class.

- old newspapers
- aluminum foil
- dental floss
- empty jars or cans
- a shower curtain
- empty shoe boxes
- a hair dryer
- rubber bands

"You can wrap green tomatoes in newspaper to make them ripen more quickly."

2 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING Exploring possibilities

A Combine the verbs with the nouns to make common expressions.

Verbs			Nouns
analyze	find	organize	a decision	a problem	a solution	possibilities
explore	make	solve	a mistake	a situation	alternatives	information analyze a situation, solve a problem, . . .

B Pair work Discuss the questions. Then ask your partner more questions using the new vocabulary.

- When do you make decisions quickly? When do you explore the possibilities first?
- Who do you talk to when you need to find a solution to a big problem? Why?
- When was the last time you analyzed a mistake you made? What did you learn from it?

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 137

3 GRAMMAR

Non-defining relative clauses as sentence modifiers

You can use non-defining relative clauses with which to make a comment about an entire sentence.

I have three cats, which means there's usually a lot of cat fur on my clothes.

My roommate is a slob, which is why I want to get my own apartment.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 121

A Look at the Starting Point on page 66 again. Can you find more examples of these grammar patterns? How are the commas used?

B Match these statements with the appropriate non-defining clauses. Then compare with a partner and write two similar statements of your own.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. I want to give away all my old books, h | a. which is why you saw me opening it with a coat hanger. |
| 2. I had locked my keys in my car, ____ | b. which is great since he uses them to store nails and things in his workshop. |
| 3. I've been exploring possibilities for natural cleaners, ____ | c. which is great because I think it's solved my problem of forgetting where I store files. |
| 4. My son made a robot costume for himself, ____ | d. which is why I was wiping lemon juice and salt on those copper pots. |
| 5. Our neighbor saves her empty jars for my dad, ____ | e. which is one reason why GPS systems were developed for cars. |
| 6. I downloaded a great new app that helps me organize information, ____ | f. which is why he was covered in aluminum foil yesterday. |
| 7. It's easy to get lost when driving in a new city, ____ | g. which is strange since there are plenty of free programs that do that well. |
| 8. Adam has bought some expensive software to edit videos, ____ | h. which means I have to get boxes for them. |

4 SPEAKING

Key inventions

A What inventions or discoveries do you think have had the greatest impact on modern life? Make a list.

the cell phone

the television

the airplane

B Group work Compare lists with your group.

"I think the cell phone has really affected people's lives. People can talk wherever they are, which means they can always be in touch and save time."

5 LISTENING

Great ideas

A Look at the pictures. What do you know about these products or services?
How do you think they were developed?

B Listen to these stories about the invention and development of the products in the photos. Complete the chart.

	Bill Bowerman	Fred Smith
How he got the idea
The initial reaction to the idea
What the inventor did in response

6 DISCUSSION

Making life better

A Pair work Why do people create or invent new products? Read this list of reasons and add two more of your own.

- to help protect people's health
- to make business more efficient
- to make daily life easier
- to make life more enjoyable
- to protect the environment
- to save lives
- _____
- _____

B Group work Join another pair. Why do you think these things were created or invented? Use the reasons in part A or others of your own.

- air conditioners
- artificial sweeteners
- digital cameras
- electric knives
- hybrid cars
- karaoke machines
- laptops
- lie detectors
- scanners

"I think air conditioners were invented to protect people's health. The summer heat can be deadly for infants and the elderly."

7 READING

A unique inventor and his invention

A Read the title of the article. What do you think Daisuke Inoue invented? Then read the article and check your answer.

The Man Who Taught the World to Sing

مرجع زبان ایرانیان

www.irLanguage.com

Daisuke Inoue was a drummer in a band near Osaka, Japan, that played versions of famous pop songs. People loved to sing along as the band played, but most of them couldn't carry a tune. Inoue's band had spent years learning how to make the untalented customer sound in tune by adjusting the music to match the customer's voice. The singers, mainly Japanese businessmen out for a night on the town, loved Inoue's unique follow-along style.

In 1971, a loyal client asked Inoue to escort him on a company trip, but Inoue could not attend. He found a solution: he recorded his band's back-up tracks, and then hooked up a car stereo and an amplifier. With this device, Inoue gave birth to the karaoke machine. By the 1980s, karaoke, which means "empty orchestra," was a Japanese word that required no translation across the globe.

Unfortunately, Inoue never bothered to patent the world's first karaoke machine, so he lost his chance to become one of Japan's richest men. When asked if he regretted not patenting his invention, 65-year-old Daisuke Inoue confessed, "I'm not an inventor. I am just resourceful. I simply put things that already exist together. Who would consider patenting something like that?"

www.irLanguage.com

Inoue's friend Robert Scott Field says, "Some people say he lost 150 million dollars. If it were me, I'd be crying in the corner, but he's a happy guy. I think he's amazed to find that he's touched so many lives." Inoue believes the little box he put together has had a huge social impact, especially in Japan. At weddings and company get-togethers, the karaoke comes out and people relax. It breaks the ice.

Although Inoue spent years in obscurity, in 1999, Time magazine called him one of the twentieth century's most influential people, saying he had "helped to liberate the once unvoiced."

Inoue is always getting asked silly questions, but he takes them in stride. "Women approach me all the time and ask if I can help their husbands sing better. I always say that if her husband were any good at singing, he would be making a living at it. He's bad, which means he's just like the rest of us."

Inoue didn't use a modern karaoke machine until he was 59 years old, but his favorite English songs are "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing" and Ray Charles' "I Can't Stop Loving You." "They're easy, which is good because I'm a terrible singer," said Daisuke Inoue, the man who taught the world to sing.

B Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. What led Daisuke Inoue to create his invention? Do you agree he was only being resourceful, or was he actually an inventor? Explain.
2. Would you have the same attitude as Inoue if you invented something popular and received no compensation? Why or why not?
3. How do you think Inoue "helped to liberate the once unvoiced" both as a drummer in his band and as the inventor of karaoke? Do you think this is a good thing? Explain.

GENERALLY SPEAKING

LESSON A ► How typical are you?

STARTING POINT

What's typical?

A Read about the "typical" person in Italy and Japan. What information surprised you? Why?

The typical ITALIAN person ...	<< >>	The typical JAPANESE person ...
drinks 155 liters of bottled water per year.		drinks 10 liters of bottled water per year.
consumes 3.2 kilograms of coffee per year.		consumes 1.4 kilograms of coffee per year.
consumes 0.1 kilograms of tea per year.		consumes 0.9 kilograms of tea per year.
visits the doctor 6 times per year.		visits the doctor 14 times per year.
watches 27 hours of TV per week.		watches 21 hours of TV per week.
gets married at 30 years old (for men) or 27 years old (for women).		gets married at 30 years old (for men) or 27 years old (for women).
studies for 7.2 years after the age of 15.		studies for 9.5 years after the age of 15.
travels 710 kilometers by rail per year.		travels 1,900 kilometers by rail per year.

Source: www.nationmaster.com

B Complete these statements. Use information from the chart.

- Unlike the Japanese, Italians seem to drink a lot of bottled water.
- While the typical _____ person studies until the age of 22, the typical _____ person studies until the age of 24.
- Both like TV, except that the typical _____ person watches more.
- In contrast to Italians, the Japanese travel a lot more _____.
- Both groups are fairly different, except for the age _____.

SPEAKING

That's just so typical!

A Pair work What are typical examples of these things in your hometown?

- a store
- a home
- a job
- a car
- a snack food
- a weekend activity

B Group work Join another pair and compare your answers.

"What's a typical store in your hometown?"

"We have something called 'dollar stores.' They have household goods, clothes, toys, and lots of other stuff. And everything's really inexpensive."

3 GRAMMAR

Clauses and phrases showing contrast and exception

Use while, unlike, and in contrast to in order to present contrasting information, especially in writing.

While the typical Italian person studies until the age of 22, the typical Japanese person studies until the age of 24.

Unlike the Japanese, Italians seem to drink a lot of bottled water.

In contrast to Italians, the Japanese travel a lot more by rail.

Use except (that), except (for), and except for the fact (that) to show an exception.

Both like TV, except (that) the typical Italian person watches more.

Italian and Japanese people are fairly different, except for the age they get married.

Japanese people typically consume less, except for the fact that they drink more tea.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 122

A Look at the Starting Point on page 70 again. Notice the sentences in part B that use phrases with except. Which phrase is followed by a clause?

B Here's some information about customs. How are they different in other places? Write sentences showing contrasts and indicating exceptions.

1. When people in the U.S. go to a party, they usually arrive a few minutes late.
Unlike people in the U.S., most people where I live arrive on time for parties.
2. Most people in Canada have cereal and milk for breakfast some days of the week.
3. Most people in the U.S. who study a foreign language in college choose Spanish.
4. In the U.K., it's common for friends to split the bill at a restaurant.
5. For people in Italy, lunch is the main meal of the day.
6. Women in Spain usually kiss people on both cheeks when they meet.

C Are you typical? Complete these sentences and compare with a partner.

1. Unlike most people where I live, I don't own a car.
2. In contrast to most of my friends, . . .
3. While a lot of the people where I live . . .
4. I'm similar to many of my friends, except that . . .

4 DISCUSSION

Are you typical?

Group work Choose the answer that makes each sentence true for you. Then compare answers with your group. Are you typical in your group?

- 1 I need six or less / seven / eight or more hours of sleep.
- 2 For commuting, I rely mainly on buses / subways / trains / taxis / a car.
- 3 I tend to eat healthy / unhealthy snacks between meals.
- 4 I spend the most time with my friends in person / on the phone / online.
- 5 I button my clothes from the top down / bottom up.
- 6 A great night out should include a movie / play / concert / sporting event.

"Unlike most of the people in my group, I need eight or more hours of sleep or I don't feel rested. Most people in my group need only six hours or less."

5 VOCABULARY

Should I just go with the flow?

A Are these adjectives, verbs, and phrases related to accepting things as they are or to making changes? Put them in the correct columns.

Adjectives	Verbs	Phrases
amenable	accept	be your own person conservative	conform (to)	fit in rebellious	confront	follow the crowd
(un)conventional	stand up (to/for)	make waves

Accepting things as they are	Making changes

B Group work Use the expressions in the chart in part A to describe what you think these people might be like. Give examples to explain your ideas.

1. Ed, a guy who gets along with everyone
2. Clarissa, an actor desperate for attention
3. Rob, an assistant at a law firm hoping for a promotion
4. Diana, a leader who wants to change the world

"Ed is probably amenable and does what other people want. I imagine he only confronts people if he really has to and generally follows the crowd."

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 138

6 LISTENING & SPEAKING

How are they different?

A Listen to Yoshiko, Diego, and Suzanne talking about their school experiences. Answer the questions.

1. What examples does Yoshiko give for how she is typical? In what way is she different?
2. What are three ways that Diego's life is typical? In what way doesn't he follow the crowd?
3. Does Suzanne give an example of how her life is unconventional? If so, what is it?

B Listen again. Do Yoshiko, Diego, and Suzanne believe they are typical or different from most people their age?

C Pair work Do you tend to go with the flow or be your own person? Discuss these questions.

1. Are your interests similar to those of your friends and family or different? Explain.
2. In what ways do the clothes you wear make you stand out or fit in?
3. How does your taste in music compare to that of other people your age?

Yoshiko in Mexico

Supporting statements

Supporting statements develop the topic sentence by providing key facts, reasons, or examples.

- A Read the paragraph. What's the topic sentence? Underline three supporting statements that develop the main idea in the topic sentence. Then compare your answers with a partner.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying 'http://www.cup.org/myblog/'. The page title is 'Unconventionally Cool: Trendspotter Josie Buchier'. The date is 'June 13'. The main text of the blog post reads: 'My friend Josie Buchier doesn't like to follow the crowd. While most of us are trying our best to fit in with everyone else, Josie likes to be her own person. For instance, she has her own unique sense of fashion, so she likes to buy all her clothes, except for her shoes, in used clothing shops. Her taste in music is also pretty unconventional. Unlike most of my friends, she can't stand pop music. She prefers to listen to Philippine and Andean folk music. She also has a very interesting job. Unlike her old nine-to-five job in a conservative department store, she now works as a trendspotter for an advertising company. This means that she spends her time looking at the latest fashion and entertainment trends among young people. Then she writes reports for her company about what's in style. This makes my unconventional friend a trendsetter that others follow, and that's pretty cool.' To the right of the text is a photograph of a young woman with short, dark, spiky hair, wearing a blue denim jacket over a green shirt and a blue scarf. She is smiling and has her hand near her head. At the bottom right of the text area, it says '[4 comments]'.

- B Finish these statements with information of your own to make topic sentences. Compare with a partner.

1. Generally speaking, most people where I live don't . . .
2. One of my best friends is . . .
3. In general, my friends tend to be . . .

- C Choose one of the topic sentences and brainstorm supporting ideas. Then choose at least four supporting statements and write a paragraph.

Generally speaking, most people where I live don't mind making waves. It's their way of . . .

- D Pair work Exchange paragraphs and answer these questions.

1. Do all the supporting statements relate to the topic sentence?
2. Do they develop and explain the topic sentence?
3. Do the supporting details fit together in a logical order?
4. What other facts, reasons, or examples could be added?

1 STARTING POINT

I never used to feel stressed.

A Read Annie's email to her friend. What problems does she have?

To: Adriana Costa
From: Annie Wilson
Subject: Missing you!

Hi Adriana,

How are things back in Cartagena? Are you glad to be home again? Sorry I haven't written lately. I have a lot of new responsibilities at work now, so I've been really stressed. My job didn't use to be so demanding!

I have to say, I miss you. You used to be such a good influence on me! These days, I oversleep. I'm even late for work sometimes! That never used to happen because I knew I had to meet you at the café in the morning. I remember how you would complain about the coffee they served. You used to call it "brown water"!

I'm spending too much money, too. Every time I go to the mall, I see something I want to buy. That's another reason I miss you! I would see some great jacket, but you wouldn't let me buy it. You would always tell me I didn't need it and drag me away!

Also, I have a noisy new roommate, Cindy. All she ever does is gab on her cell! Remember the way we would sit around talking? You always used to make me laugh. I bet that's a big reason I never used to feel stressed like I do now!

Anyway, the weekend will be here soon, so I'm sure I'll feel better then.

Write soon!

Annie

B Pair work What do you think Annie should do about her problems?

"Annie should find another friend to meet at the café in the morning."

3 GRAMMAR

Past habitual with used to and would

Used to and would can both be used to describe past habitual actions or situations which are no longer true. However, would cannot be used with stative verbs such as live, be, have, or like.

You always used to make me laugh.

My job didn't use to be so demanding!

Remember the way we would sit around talking?

I would see some great jacket, but you wouldn't let me buy it.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 123

A Look at the Starting Point on page 74 again. Make a list of the things that have changed for Annie since Adriana went back to Colombia.

B Complete these sentences with used to or would. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

The first year of high school, I wasn't a very good student. I (1) used to think school was boring. I remember my classmates (2) _____ go to the library and work on projects or study, but I (3) _____ like to play video games at a friend's house instead. We (4) _____ go right after class, and we (5) _____ spend three or four hours doing that. My parents both (6) _____ have jobs with long hours, so they never knew what time I (7) _____ get home. I thought I was smart, and that I didn't need to study to keep my grades up. But one day, I was asked to go to the principal's office. He said, "You (8) _____ be a great student. Now your grades are terrible. Explain!" That was a real wake-up call. After that, I became serious about school, and I (9) _____ study and finish my homework before playing video games. Now that my kids are in high school, I tell them about all the silly things I (10) _____ do when I was their age.

4 DISCUSSION

Personal concerns

A Pair work These people have had a change in their lives. What positive or negative impacts have these changes had?

Lucas Santos, 25, Curitiba

"Before my wife and I had our first baby, we would go out whenever we wanted. We can't do that now. I didn't use to be a worrier, but I am now."

Britney Majors, 32, Toronto

"Before my promotion, I would eat lunch in the cafeteria because that was all I could afford. Now I have money to go to nice cafés, but I just don't have the time. So, I usually eat at my desk."

Wen Ho Chen, 67, Taipei

"We used to plan on moving in with our son when we retired. But we've changed our minds. We just sold our house, and we're going to travel the world."

B Group work Think about a big change in your life. Talk about the positive and negative impacts it had.

"Last year, I was transferred to another department in my company. My new responsibilities are a lot more interesting, but I didn't use to have to work this much."

5 LISTENING & SPEAKING

Different approaches to problem solving

A Pair work Read about these three approaches to problem solving. What method do you use? Give examples to support your answer.

What kind of problem solver are you?

Different people solve their problems in different ways. The three main approaches are assertive, meditative, and cooperative. Find out which one best describes you.

- ▶ Assertive people prefer action to talk. When they're faced with a problem, they immediately try to work out a solution.
- ▶ When meditative people have a problem, they sit and think about it, and might even do research. Sometimes, the answer comes to them if they don't act on something right away.
- ▶ Cooperative people think the easiest way to solve a problem is to ask for help. Another person's perspective can help cooperative people come up with solutions.

"I'd say I'm a meditative person. Before I bought my first car, I spent hours doing research on it by myself. It took me forever to decide!"

B Listen to Dominique, Carla, and Wayne talking about their personal concerns. What kind of problem solver is each person?

C Listen again. What are two things each person did to solve their problem?

6 ROLE PLAY

Here's an idea . . .

A Read about these people's problems. What advice would you give each person?

My boss is so demanding. She gives me more work than I can handle.

I can't save money because I always spend it on little things I want but don't really need.

My last job interview went very badly. I always get tongue-tied in front of authority figures.

I'm not enjoying things like I used to. I'm not sure why. Maybe I'm too stressed.

B Role-play each situation. Take turns giving and receiving advice.

"My boss is so demanding. She gives me more work than I can handle."

"Here's an idea. See if your co-workers feel the same way. Maybe you all can talk to the boss about it."

"I guess I could try that."

Receiving advice

I guess I could try that.
I just might try that.

Creative problem solving

A Pair work Look at these paintings of the same landscape. How are they different? What effect does this have on what you notice first? Discuss. Then read the article.

Painting and Problem Solving: FOUR LESSONS

Earlier this month I escaped the office for a weeklong painting retreat in the woods of Door County, Wisconsin. While working amidst the awe-inspiring fall colors, it occurred to me that the dynamics of painting and problem solving have a lot in common. I returned home not only with newly polished painting skills but also a fresh perspective on managing problems. I learned four lessons while painting:

- 1 How you see things depends on your line of sight. When painting a landscape, countless choices are yours. For starters, you can choose where to place the horizon and what you eliminate from the actual setting. If the existing landscape is cluttered, for instance, you can exclude elements that detract from your focal point. Likewise, in problem solving, getting caught up in the clutter diminishes your ability to reach your desired result. Choose instead to focus on the bigger picture.
- 2 People can see the same landscape and represent it in totally different ways. One day I sat with two other painters in a microclimate with magnificent sugar maples. Much to my surprise, our final paintings were totally different. A similar phenomenon occurs in problem solving: Any number of people can arrive at the same situation with different ideas, skills, or resources. They can also have different designs on the end result. In this way, respecting where others are coming from is critical to problem solving.

- 3 When light is shined on a subject, you can explore what lies in the shadows. It can be harder to paint landscapes on cloudy days. The various forms and contrasts are less clear, and it's difficult to explore what lies in the shadows. When the sun is shining, however, the distinctions between objects are clearly visible and what lies in the shadows is revealed. The same goes for problem solving: When you shine a light on an issue, you see everything more clearly, including what opportunities or threats exist in the shadows.

- 4 Collaborating with people at different levels can foster appreciation for diverse ideas and perspectives. At the retreat, there were painters at every level, from first-timers to fine artists. I learned something from each one, particularly when our group came in from the woods and worked together in the studio. I opened myself up to others' unique observations and feedback, and ultimately felt more energized and creative. Additionally, I was struck by our instructor's capacity to calibrate her critiques to our individual skill levels. Similarly, in problem solving, it's important to meet others where they are, not where you might want them to be.

Odds are there is a problem on your desk today. How might even one of these four lessons help you brush up your problem-solving skills?

Source: "4 Ways to Brush Up Your Problem-Solving Skills," by Barbara T. Armstrong

B Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. In what way is it helpful to avoid paying attention to details when solving a problem?
2. How are the second and fourth lessons in the article similar?
3. What do you think the author means by "shine a light on an issue"? How is this helpful?
4. How can the lessons from the article help you solve one of your own problems?

UNITS 7-9

SELF-ASSESSMENT

How well can you do these things? Choose the best answer.

I can ...	Very well	OK	A little
▶ Describe how information technology has changed people's lives (Ex. 1)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
▶ Describe how new technologies will change people's lives (Ex. 2)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

▶ Describe my personality type (Ex. 3)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
▶ Describe and compare typical behavior of parents and teenagers (Ex. 4)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Now do the corresponding exercises. Was your assessment correct?

DISCUSSION

How things have changed!

A Think about how information technology has changed in the past few years. How have people's shopping habits, hobbies, and social lives been affected?

B Pair work Compare your answers with a partner.

"Video games used to be low-tech and expensive. Some games used to be available on the Internet, but few people would play them. Now, a lot of people play video games online. I think they've been greatly improved, and many are fairly cheap."

"Yeah, I think so, too. But too much time is spent playing them. My whole family is addicted – even my grandmother plays! She used to think video games were a waste of time when I played them as a kid."

DISCUSSION

What next?

A Pair work What do you think will happen in the next 10 years as a result of new technologies in these areas?

- | | |
|------------------|-------------|
| 1. communication | 4. finance |
| 2. education | 5. medicine |
| 3. entertainment | 6. sports |

B Group work Compare your predictions in groups.

"Ten years from now, I think cell phones will be used by everyone. They'll even be used at work instead of office phones. What do you think?"

3 LISTENING & SPEAKING

Team roles: The perfect "STEAM" team

- A Listen to the phone conversation between Tony and Annie. What is Tony's agency doing? Choose the correct answer.
- ☐ a. They're exploring the possibilities of using cell phones in advertising.
 - ☐ b. They're analyzing the effectiveness of their advertisements.
 - ☐ c. They're working to improve a company's image.

- B Listen again. Match the roles on the left with the personality types on the right.

Role	Personality type
1. Solver d	a. disciplined
2. Team manager ____	b. patient
3. Explorer ____	c. passionate
4. Analyst ____	d. creative
5. Motivator ____	e. resourceful

- C Pair work Look at the roles again. Which role do you think you would be best at or would enjoy most? Why? Compare your ideas with a partner.

"I think I'd probably be best in an Explorer role. I'm pretty resourceful. What about you?"

"I'm a person with a lot of patience, but I'm not that creative. I'm more of a Team manager type."

4 SPEAKING

That's so typical!

- A Complete this chart with your opinions about typical parents and teenagers.

	The typical parent	The typical teenager
What are some of their concerns?
What is their most valued possession?
How much time do they spend with friends?
What do they use the Internet for?
What do they like to do on vacation?

- B Write at least four sentences contrasting the typical parent with the typical teenager. Then compare with a partner.

"Generally, the typical teenager is concerned about friends, while the typical parent is concerned about his or her children."

THE ART OF COMPLAINING

LESSON A ► That really bugs me!

STARTING POINT

Everyday annoyances

A Have you ever had problems similar to these? Do you agree or disagree with these comments? Why?

"The thing that I hate is when kids ride their scooters on the sidewalk."

"One thing that bothers me is when my friends don't show up on time for things."

"Something that bugs me is people who take up two seats on a crowded bus."

"The thing I can't stand is co-workers who leave their cell phones ringing on their desks."

B Group work Look at the situations in part A. Would you complain, or would you be quietly annoyed? Why?

LISTENING & SPEAKING

It really irks me!

A Listen to Jane and Kyle talking about irritating situations. What bothered each person?

B Listen again. Discuss the questions.

1. Whose situation do you think was more annoying, Jane's or Kyle's?
2. Who do you think handled the situation better, Jane or Kyle?
3. How would you have reacted in each situation?

3 GRAMMAR

Relative clauses and noun clauses

A relative clause can occur in the subject or the object of a sentence.

Something that bugs me is people who take up two seats on a crowded bus.

The thing (that) I can't stand is co-workers who / that leave their cell phones ringing on their desks.

Some sentences use a relative clause and a noun clause beginning with a question word such as when.

The thing (that) I hate is when kids ride their scooters on the sidewalk.

One thing that bothers me is when my friends don't show up on time for things.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 124

A Look at the Starting Point on page 80 again. Which clauses are relative clauses? Which are noun clauses?

B Pair work Complete the sentences with your own opinions. Then discuss them with a partner.

- One thing that irks me about my neighbors is . . .
when they park too close to my car.
- Something that bothers me about my friends is . . .
- If I'm riding in a car, something that irritates me is . . .
- The thing that aggravates me most is a friend . . .
- The thing that annoys me about people talking on cell phones is . . .
- . . . is one thing that bothers me at home.

4 VOCABULARY

That drives me up the wall!

A Combine the verbs with the phrases. How many combinations can you make? How are their meanings different?

Verbs	Phrases
drive	on someone's nerves	someone mad	someone upset
get	someone crazy	someone sick	someone's blood boil
make	someone down	someone up the wall	under someone's skin

B Group work How do these things make you feel? Discuss these situations using the expressions in part A.

- people laughing at their own jokes
- vending machines that "steal" your money
- finding empty ice cube trays in the freezer
- people eating on public transportation
- airlines not serving food on long flights

"The thing that drives me crazy is when people laugh at their own jokes, and they're not funny!"

DISCUSSION

Polite complaints

A Which of these descriptions fits you best? Give examples to support your answer.

"I guess I'm a silent sufferer. For example, I never complain in a restaurant, even if the food is awful."

"You don't? Bad food in a restaurant really annoys me. I always complain! I mean, why should I pay for terrible food? I guess I must be an activist."

B Pair work What would you do or say in these situations? Compare your answers.

1. A taxi driver is playing the radio loudly while you are trying to make a phone call.
2. Your neighbor's young son tore up all the flowers in your garden.
3. You see someone littering in a public park.

"If the taxi driver were playing the radio very loudly, I think I'd just speak louder. I probably wouldn't say anything to the driver. But I wouldn't give him a very good tip either."

ROLE PLAY

I hate to mention this, . . .

A Pair work Use the language in the box to create polite complaints for each situation. Then take turns acting out your complaints for the class.

1. You've been waiting in line for a long time, and someone suddenly cuts in front of you.
2. You've had a party, and one friend is still at your home long after everyone else has left. It's driving you up the wall because it's really late, and you need to get up early.
3. After you've been waiting patiently for your food for an hour, the waiter brings you the wrong order.
4. Every time you go out with your friend, she asks you to hold her belongings because she doesn't carry a bag. It's really beginning to get on your nerves.

Useful expressions

Complaining to strangers

Excuse me, but . . .

I'm sorry, but . . .

Complaining to friends/neighbors

I hate to mention this, but . . .

I'm sorry to bring this up, but . . .

B Group work Which complaints were the most effective? Which were the most polite?

Messages of complaint

Writing an effective message of complaint is a powerful way to solve an ongoing problem with a product or service.

A Match the information to the points in the email.

Writing an effective message of complaint

An effective message of complaint about a purchase ...

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. contains a clear subject line. | 4. mentions a receipt or other evidence. |
| 2. describes the product or service clearly. | 5. explains exactly what you want. |
| 3. explains the problem in detail. | 6. provides contact information. |

To: customerservice@phonegrp.cup.org
From: JM1990@cup.org
Subject: Damaged product 1

Dear Sir or Madam:

Last month, I ordered a smartphone, model number VG25S, from your website. When it arrived, I discovered that it was broken. The case was damaged, and the display screen was cracked. 2

At my own expense, I returned the phone to your service department over a month ago. I still have not received a replacement, nor has a customer service representative contacted me. 3

I have my credit card bill to prove I paid for this purchase, a one-year warranty, and a receipt from the post office. Therefore, I would like to receive a new phone as soon as possible. 4

Please call or email me about this matter. I look forward to your reply and hope you will handle this matter promptly.

Sincerely,

John Montgomery

B Write an email complaining about one of these situations or one of your own.

- Your tablet came with the wrong battery charger, but you didn't notice until you brought it home. You called the store, and they refused to replace it.
- You bought airplane tickets in advance, but the airline had overbooked the flight, and you couldn't get on the plane.

C Pair work Take turns reading your emails. Did your partner follow all the steps for writing an effective message of complaint?

LESSON B ▶ Let's do something about it!

1 STARTING POINT

Why don't they do something about it?

A How many of these problems have you experienced? Compare with a partner.

"Overcrowded buses really make me mad. I wonder why they don't have more buses at rush hour."

"Umbrellas are so poorly made these days. I don't know why they always break in the wind."

"My cell phone never works around here. I can't understand why the reception is so bad."

"Automated phone menus drive me crazy. What I don't get is why companies don't have people answer their phones."

"The clothes in those shops are unbelievably expensive. How anyone can afford them is beyond me."

"The college course I want is really popular. My big concern is whether I'll be able to get into the class."

B Pair work Which of the problems in part A bother you the most? Explain.

"Broken umbrellas definitely bother me the most. That happened to me just the other day."

"You can say that again. I just hate it when that happens."

Useful expressions

Agreeing and showing sympathy

I know (exactly) what you mean.

Yeah, I hate that too.

You can say that again.

2 LISTENING

If this is correct, say, "Yes."

A Have you ever had problems with automated phone menus? What happened?

B Listen to Gabriel using an automated phone menu. Is he successful? Choose the best summary.

- ☐ a. He completed his business successfully and will pick up his prescription this evening.
- ☐ b. He can't fill his prescription because the machine didn't recognize what he said.
- ☐ c. His pronunciation is so poor that the system didn't understand anything he said.

C Listen again. Answer the questions.

1. What's the name of the store?
2. What is his prescription number?
3. What is his phone number?
4. What time does he want to pick up his prescription?

3 GRAMMAR

Simple and complex indirect questions

Simple indirect questions use statement word order and begin with expressions such as I wonder, I'd like to know, or I can't understand.

Why don't they have more buses at rush hour? I wonder why they don't have more buses at rush hour.

Complex indirect questions also use statement word order. In addition, they begin or end with clauses or phrases with be.

Will I be able to get into the class?

My big concern is whether I'll be able to get into the class.

How can anyone afford them?

How anyone can afford them is beyond me.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 125

A Look at the Starting Point on page 84 again. Can you find more indirect questions? Which ones are simple indirect questions? Which are complex?

B Rewrite these questions using the words in parentheses. Then compare answers with a partner.

- Will airlines ever stop losing passengers' luggage? (I wonder . . .)
I wonder if airlines will ever stop losing passengers' luggage.
- How do I correct a mistake on my phone bill? (I'd like to know . . .)
- Why can't I use my cell phone in an elevator? (The thing I don't get is . . .)
- How can I get tickets to sold-out concerts? (I want to find out . . .)
- When will the government deal with global warming? (I'd like to know . . .)
- Why do people complain so much? (. . . is something I can't understand.)

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

5 DISCUSSION

A word to the wise

- A Pair work Read the advice about how to avoid consumer problems. Can you add any more ideas to the list?

Buyer Beware!

SMART ADVICE FOR SMART SHOPPERS

- Buy from a reputable company.
- Make sure there's a guarantee.
- Examine your purchases before you buy.
- Do some comparison shopping.
- Find out about the return policy.
- Find out how the item should be cared for.

- B Group work Discuss a time when you had a problem with something you bought. Would the advice in part A have helped you?

"I bought some really expensive luggage last month, and I was enraged when, after just a week, one of the wheels came off."

"Oh, you're kidding. Did you take it back to the store?"

"Yes, but they told me I couldn't return it because I'd bought it on sale. I should have asked about their return policy . . ."

Useful expressions

Sympathizing

Oh, you're kidding.
That's ridiculous.
What a pain.

6 ROLE PLAY

I'd like to return this.

- A Read the store returns policy in part B. Is there a similar policy at the stores where you shop?
- B Pair work Take turns role-playing a customer and a clerk at a returns counter. Use the returns policy and the situations below.

STORE RETURNS POLICY: All items must be in good condition and accompanied by a receipt. No cash refunds; store credit only. No items returned after two weeks unless under warranty. No return of items purchased on sale or with coupons.

Situation 1

- T-shirt
- have receipt
- shrank after washing
- now too small

Situation 2

- laptop
- receipt at home
- defective
- still under warranty

- camera
- lost receipt
- not very user-friendly
- want to exchange

"I'd like to return this T-shirt, please. I can't understand why it shrank after I washed it."

"I wonder whether you followed the washing instructions properly."

"I certainly did!"

"That's fine, then. May I see your receipt, please?"

The power of one voice

A Pair work What steps would you take if someone damaged one of your valuable possessions? Discuss with a partner. Then read the article and find out what Dave Carroll did. Did he take any of the steps you discussed?

www.irLanguage.com

Dave Carroll was ready to quit his 20-year career as an independent musician. Then, an airline broke his guitar and changed his life.

The airline wouldn't budge on Dave's request for $1,200 in flight vouchers to cover repairs to his $3,500 Taylor guitar. When he got "The Final No!" email after nine months of negotiations, he wrote back to say he wasn't without options.

Dave said that if he were a lawyer, he might have sued the airline, but as a songwriter, he had other tools at his disposal. He vowed to write two or three songs, make a music video for each one, and post them on YouTube.

"After months of feeling frustrated and angry about the ordeal, for the first time I felt empowered, as though a weight had been lifted from me. I changed gears from someone who wanted something to someone who was going to do something."

His goal was to reach one million views in the next year. Four days after he posted the first video, he hit a million views. The airline called him a day after the video was released to offer the same $1,200 in flight vouchers he'd asked for previously, plus an extra $1,200 in cash. Carroll refused the offer. His goal had moved beyond compensation to sharing his story and improving conditions for all travelers.

His newfound fame has revived his music career. His trilogy of songs about his experience has had approximately 15 million YouTube views. He's done media interviews and given speeches around the world. Ironically, the airline now uses his videos to train staff and pays him a license fee to do so, at his request.

He's also helped launch a website, Gripevine.com, for people to air problems and get them fixed. Companies now know that a disgruntled customer's view can go viral in a heartbeat and reach an immense audience. As Dave tells businesses, it's vital for companies to listen and learn.

B Pair work Number the events in the correct order. Write X for the two events that are not part of Dave's story. Then take turns telling the story in your own words.

- ___ a. Dave decided to use his songwriting skills to address his problem in a creative way.
- ___ b. Dave rejected the airline's offer even though they'd doubled his original request.
- ___ c. Dave sued the airline for the amount of money it would cost to repair his guitar.
- ___ d. Dave's guitar was damaged by an airline, and they refused to compensate him.
- ___ e. The airline offered Dave what he wanted after he posted his song on YouTube.
- ___ f. Dave gave up on his dreams of becoming a musician after 20 years in the business.
- ___ g. Dave helped start an online consumer group and relaunched his career.

C Group work Discuss these questions. Then share your answers with the class.

1. What made Dave finally feel empowered during his struggle with the airline?
2. In what ways has social media given ordinary people more power? Give examples.

STARTING POINT

What would you do?

A Look at the situations and people's responses. What would you do?

If you accidentally damaged a parked car in a parking lot . . .

"If the owner weren't around, I'd leave a note with my phone number."

"I wouldn't leave a note if the owner weren't around."

If you found out your co-worker got the job using false credentials . . .

"I would keep it a secret only if I liked my co-worker."

"I would keep it a secret unless my boss asked me directly about it."

If you found some money on the street . . .

"I wouldn't try to return it unless it were a large amount."

"Even if I were really broke, I'd give the money to the police."

B Pair work Now read these statistics. Do you find them surprising? Why or why not?

Of the people surveyed . . .

62% would never fail to report damaging a parked car even if nobody were present.

48% think it is unacceptable to use false credentials on a job application.

18% wouldn't keep money they found on the street.

58% would never illegally avoid paying the fare on public transportation.

25% think it's never OK to exceed the speed limit while driving.

LISTENING

Finders keepers

Listen to Aaron and Leanne talking about finding something. Are these statements true or false, or does the person not say? Choose the correct answer.

	True	False	Doesn't say
1. Aaron's son wanted to keep the wallet and spend the money.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Aaron's son received a thank-you card as a reward.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. The owner of the book probably didn't care much about it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Leanne will probably return the book.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

3 GRAMMAR

Present unreal conditional with unless, only if, and even if

Unless clauses include exceptions that would change the speaker's decision.

I wouldn't try to return it unless it were a large amount.

I would keep it a secret unless my boss asked me directly about it.

Only if clauses stress the condition for the result.

I would keep it a secret only if I liked my co-worker.

Even if clauses are followed by unexpected results.

Even if I were really broke, I'd give the money to the police.

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 126

A Look at the Starting Point on page 88 again. Look at the responses to the first situation. Are they different in meaning? If so, how?

B Choose the words that are true for you. Then complete the sentences.

1. If a cashier undercharged me, I (would) / wouldn't tell him if / (even if) . . .
If a cashier undercharged me, I would tell him even if it were a small difference.
2. I would / wouldn't borrow a lot of money from a friend only if / unless . . .
3. I would / wouldn't return a gift I'd received to the store if / unless . . .
4. I would / wouldn't "temporarily borrow" an unlocked bicycle on the street only if / even if . . .
5. I would / wouldn't report my friend for skipping work only if / unless . . .

4 VOCABULARY & SPEAKING

It's a little unethical.

A These words describe people's ethics and attitudes. Which prefixes give them the opposite meaning? Put the words in the correct columns.

acceptable	approving	fair	legal	rational	scrupulous agreeable	ethical	honest	logical	responsible	trustworthy

dis-		il-		ir-		un-
------	--	-----	--	-----	--	-----	--

unacceptable

B Pair work Use the vocabulary words in part A to discuss these questions.

1. Would you ever make an international call from work to save money?
2. Would you ever play a practical joke on your friends?
3. Would you ever tell a friend with a terrible new haircut that you think it's fantastic?

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 140

5 DISCUSSION

Ethical dilemmas

A Read these situations. What would you do?

1 You've had plans for several weeks to visit your aunt. The day before, your friend invites you to a really great party the same night.

- Would you cancel your original plans?
- If so, would you tell the truth or "a white lie" about why you were canceling?
- Would you cancel your plans even if you knew your aunt were looking forward to seeing you?

2 You're at a convenience store, and you see someone shoplifting a can of soup.

- Would you tell the clerk?
- What if the shoplifter were a woman with a small child?
- Would it make a difference if the shoplifter looked dangerous?

3 You work full-time during the day. You're also a part-time student in an evening course, so you have a student ID card. Businesses all over town give discounts to students.

- Would you use your student ID to get the cheaper prices?
- What if you earned a high salary at your job?
- Would it make a difference if you were buying from a major chain store or from a small mom-and-pop business?

B Group work Share your answers and give reasons for each. Then agree on the best course of action for each situation.

"Unless it were a special occasion for my aunt, I might leave a little early so I could get to the party before it ended."

6 DISCUSSION

Too good to be true

A Which of these situations seem reliable? Choose those that seem legitimate.

- ☐ 1. A website offers free international phone service.
- ☐ 2. A company sends you an email asking you to confirm your credit card details online.
- ☐ 3. Someone on the street asks you to sign a petition that requires your address and phone number.
- ☐ 4. A television ad offers a set of knives worth $300 for just $75.

B Pair work Discuss these or similar situations. Share your own experiences or those of people you know.

"I once bought a kitchen appliance that I saw advertised on TV. The price was really good, and it worked well at first, but after a few weeks, it broke."

Thesis statements

A topic sentence states the main idea of a single paragraph. A thesis statement introduces the topic of a composition. It is often located at the beginning or end of the first paragraph.

- A Read the composition and choose the best thesis statement from the choices below. Then, write a T where you think the thesis statement should appear.

1. I've made some bad decisions.
2. We learn a lot from the decisions we make.
3. I have good and bad memories of old friendships.

When I'm faced with a decision that puts my ethics on the line, I think about what similar situations in the past have taught me. In my life, I've made both good and bad choices.

One of my good decisions resulted in a casual friend becoming a very close friend. A college classmate gave me a lottery ticket for my birthday. As she gave it to me, she joked that if I won, I should split the prize with her. I ended up winning $500. At the time, I was saving for a new tablet, and with the $500, I had enough money. I considered not telling my friend that I'd won. But I felt dishonest and disloyal, and I gave her half. I'll always be glad I did, and I wouldn't do it any differently today, even if I really needed all the money. Today, she is still one of my best friends.

One of my bad decisions ruined a friendship. A former classmate wanted a job with my company and asked me to recommend her. I knew she didn't have very good work habits. I told her I would do it only if she promised to work hard. She was hired, but three months later, she was fired because my boss thought she was irresponsible and her work was unacceptable. I was fairly new at the company myself, and my company is still a little unsure about trusting my judgment now. I don't have much to do with her these days.

I believe that good and bad decisions are a part of everyone's personal development. Is it possible to learn from those experiences? I think it is because even the bad ones help to prepare you for the future.

- B Write a four-paragraph composition about a happy memory or a regret. Follow these guidelines.

1st paragraph: Introduce your topic in the paragraph. Begin or end the paragraph with your thesis statement.

2nd paragraph: Write about a decision you would make again.

3rd paragraph: Write about a decision you would make differently.

4th paragraph: End with a strong conclusion.

- C Group work Take turns reading your compositions. Is the thesis statement too general? Does it need to be improved?

Your thesis statement . . .

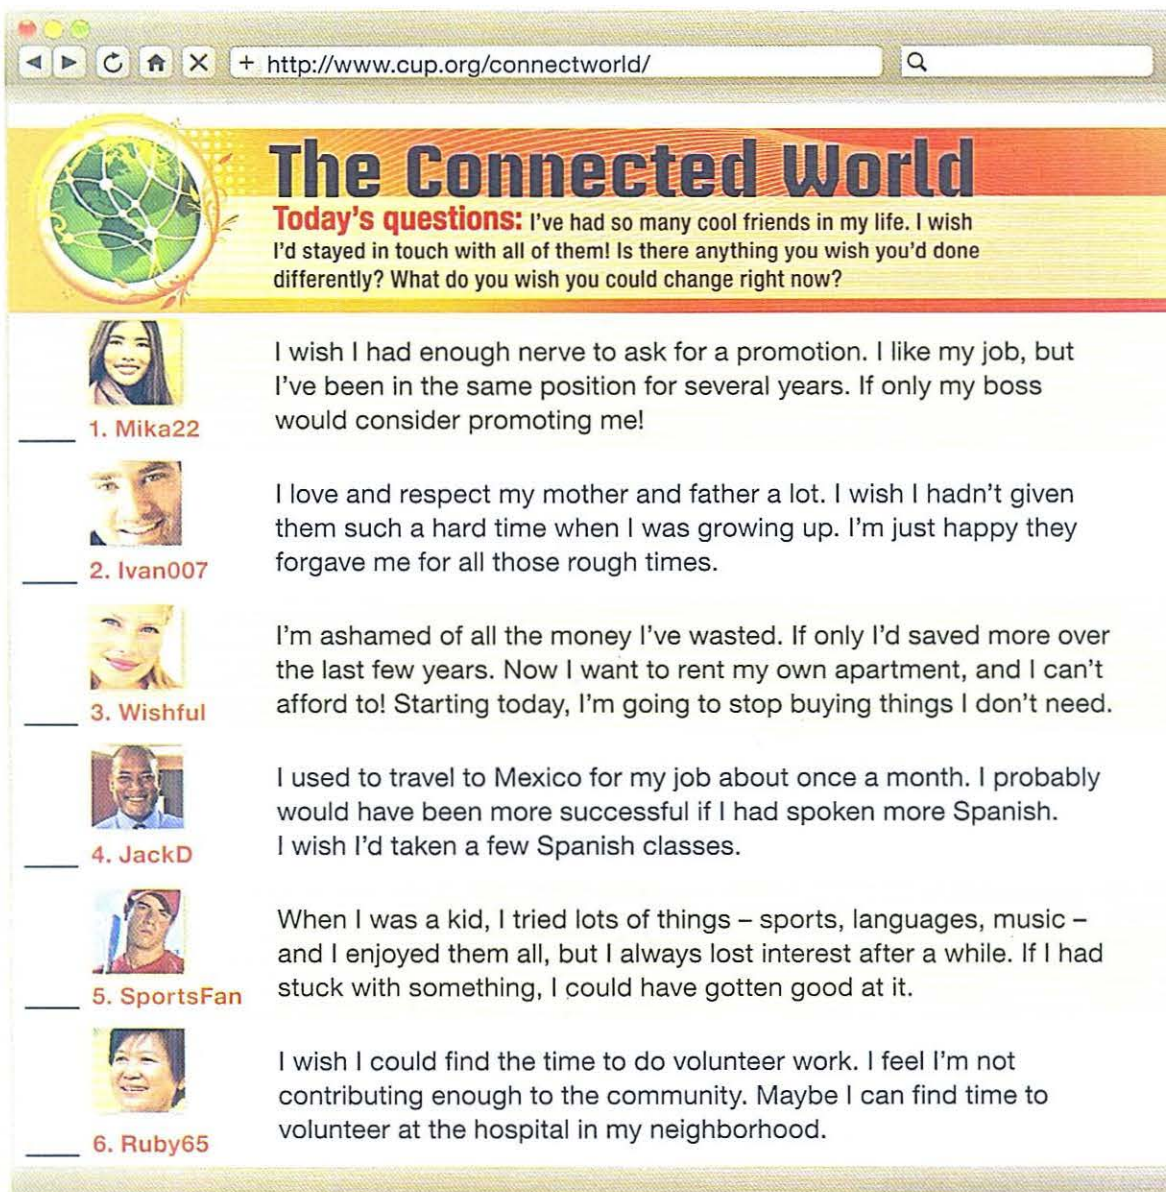

- should contain a single idea.
- should be neither too general nor too specific.
- should unify all the paragraphs.
- can be improved as you write.

LESSON B ► Taking stock

1 STARTING POINT I wish . . .

A Read these messages. Match each message with one of the values below.

|-----------------------|--------------------------|----------------------------------|
| a. careful spending | c. perseverance | e. career advancement |
| b. concern for others | d. good family relations | f. good cross-cultural relations |

The Connected World
Today's questions: I've had so many cool friends in my life. I wish I'd stayed in touch with all of them! Is there anything you wish you'd done differently? What do you wish you could change right now?

1. Mika22
I wish I had enough nerve to ask for a promotion. I like my job, but I've been in the same position for several years. If only my boss would consider promoting me!
2. Ivan007
I love and respect my mother and father a lot. I wish I hadn't given them such a hard time when I was growing up. I'm just happy they forgave me for all those rough times.
3. Wishful
I'm ashamed of all the money I've wasted. If only I'd saved more over the last few years. Now I want to rent my own apartment, and I can't afford to! Starting today, I'm going to stop buying things I don't need.
4. JackD
I used to travel to Mexico for my job about once a month. I probably would have been more successful if I had spoken more Spanish. I wish I'd taken a few Spanish classes.
5. SportsFan
When I was a kid, I tried lots of things – sports, languages, music – and I enjoyed them all, but I always lost interest after a while. If I had stuck with something, I could have gotten good at it.
6. Ruby65
I wish I could find the time to do volunteer work. I feel I'm not contributing enough to the community. Maybe I can find time to volunteer at the hospital in my neighborhood.

B Pair work Which person in part A are you most like? Which of the values are the most important? What are some of the values you learned when you were growing up?

"I'm similar to Ruby65. I really think it's important to show concern for other people. As I was growing up, my parents also taught me the importance of . . ."

2 GRAMMAR

Wishes and regrets

For wishes about the present and future, use wish + simple past, past continuous, or could / would + verb.

I wish I had enough nerve to ask for a promotion.

I wish I could find the time to do volunteer work.

For regrets about the past, use wish + past perfect.

I wish I'd taken a few Spanish classes.

I wish I hadn't given my parents such a hard time when I was growing up.

For regrets about the past, use if + past perfect and could / would have + past participle.

If I had stuck with something, I could have gotten good at it.

For strong wishes about the present or future, or for strong regrets about the past, use if only.

If only clauses are often used without a main clause.

If only my boss would consider promoting me!

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 127

A Look at the Starting Point on page 92 again. Which sentences express regrets about the past? Which ones describe wishes for the present or future?

4 LISTENING & SPEAKING

Three important values

A Listen to these on-the-street interviews. What values do these people think are important? Number the values in the order you hear them.

___ honesty ___ privacy ___ respect

B Listen again. Whose answer did you agree with the most? Why do you think so?

"I'd say I agreed with the first woman the most. If you're not honest, you'll only get yourself into trouble. Plus, telling the truth is the right thing to do."

5 SPEAKING

Grant me a wish.

A If you could have three wishes, what would they be? Make a list.

B Pair work Compare your wishes with a partner. Then share your answers with the class.

"My first wish would be for my family to stay healthy and happy. Second, I would wish for more peace in the world. For my last wish, ..."

Subway Superman

A Pair work Read the title and the first paragraph of the news article. What would you have done if you were Wesley Autrey? Discuss, and then read the article.

NEW YORK HONORS A HERO

It started as a typical day for Wesley Autrey, a 50-year-old construction worker in New York City. It was about 12:45 P.M., and he was waiting on a subway platform to take his daughters home before he went to work. He suddenly noticed a man nearby have convulsions and collapse. Mr. Autrey and two women went to help the stranger. The man, Cameron Hollopeter, managed to get to his feet, but then stumbled at the edge of the platform and fell onto the subway tracks. Mr. Autrey looked up and saw the lights of the subway train approaching through the tunnel.

What would you do? Stand horrified and watch helplessly? Most people would jump in to help, but only if there were no train in sight. Mr. Autrey acted quickly. He leapt down onto the track. He realized that he didn't have time to get Mr. Hollopeter and himself back up on the platform before the train arrived, so he lay on top of the man and pressed down as hard as he could. Although the driver tried to stop the train before it reached them, he couldn't. Five cars passed over them before the train finally stopped. The cars had passed only inches from his head. His first words were to ask the onlookers to tell his daughters he was OK.

New York loves a hero. And there was no question that Mr. Autrey's actions had been just that – heroic. He became an overnight sensation. People couldn't get enough of the story. The media named him the "Subway Superman." New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg gave him the Bronze Medallion, the city's highest honor. (In the past, this honor has gone to such people as General Douglas MacArthur, Martin Luther King Jr., and Muhammad Ali.) Mr. Autrey was also asked to appear on several high-profile television talk shows.

His selfless bravery was also rewarded with money and gifts. Among other things, Mr. Autrey received: $10,000 from Donald Trump, a $5,000 gift card from the Gap clothing store, a new Jeep, tickets and backstage passes to a Beyoncé concert, and a free one-year public transit pass. A "Disney ambassador" thanked him with a one-week all-expenses-paid trip to Disney World and tickets to see The Lion King on Broadway.

How did Autrey, a Navy veteran, react to all this? Honorably. He said, "I don't feel like I did anything spectacular; I just saw someone who needed help. I did what I felt was right."

B Read the article again. Are these statements true or false? Choose the correct answer. Correct the false statements.

	True	False
1. Autrey hadn't noticed Hollopeter before he fell onto the tracks.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. There was very little space between Autrey and the bottom of the train.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Autrey jumped onto the tracks because he wanted to be a hero.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

C Group work Discuss these questions.

1. Have you ever had the opportunity to help someone in trouble or in danger?
2. Why do you think so many businesses wanted to reward Mr. Autrey?

STARTING POINT

The benefits of studying abroad

A Read this website. Choose three benefits of studying a language abroad that you feel are the most important.

LTI
LANGUAGE TRAVELERS INSTITUTE

OPENING DOORS TO THE WORLD
Study Abroad with Language Travelers Institute!

Consider enrolling in one of LTI's affordable programs of language study abroad. Then imagine yourself by the end of next year:

- You will have been studying your chosen language for 12 months.
- You will have been interacting with people from other cultures, which will have changed the way you view the world.
- You will have been living in a fascinating foreign land.

And, if you're like over 90% of LTI's former students, by this time next year:

- Your self-confidence will have increased.
- Your commitment to language study will have gotten stronger.
- You will have made many fascinating new friends!

Study abroad with Language Travelers Institute and the world will become your oyster.

B Pair work Discuss your choices. What are some other benefits of studying or living abroad?

"I think interacting with people from other cultures is the most important benefit."

|---------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. adjust to | 4. be familiar _____ | 7. look forward _____ |
| 2. be excited _____ | 5. become aware _____ | 8. participate _____ |
| 3. be scared _____ | 6. get accustomed _____ | 9. take advantage _____ |

B Pair work What challenges do people face when they live or study abroad? Discuss with a partner using the verbs and phrases in part A.

"Sometimes people are scared of starting a new job abroad because they aren't familiar with the routines."

VOCABULARY PLUS see page 141

Future perfect and future perfect continuous

Use the future perfect to emphasize that something will be completed or achieved by a particular point in the future.

By this time next year, your self-confidence will have increased.

Use the future perfect continuous to emphasize the duration of an activity in progress at a particular point in the future.

By the end of next year, you will have been studying your chosen language for 12 months.

www.irLanguage.com

A Look at the Starting Point on page 96 again. Can you find more examples of the future perfect and the future perfect continuous?

B These sentences about Joon's year abroad all have mistakes. Correct the mistakes using the future with will, the future perfect, or the future perfect continuous. Then compare answers with a partner.

1. By this time tomorrow, Joon will have been traveling ~~will travel~~ for 24 hours.

2. By the end of next week, he will have been receiving his student ID card and registered for classes.

3. He'll be going out more after a few weeks because he will have been more familiar with the city.

4. After studying English for a few months, he will have felt more confident about speaking to people.

5. By this time next year, his younger sister will have been visiting him once or twice. When she's older, she probably will have wanted to study abroad, too.

6. I'm sure he will change a lot by the time he comes back to Korea.

7. His family will have been surprised when he gets back because he will have been changing so much.

8. And just think – the next time we see him, Joon will turn 22 already, and he will be away for a year!

C Use these time expressions to write sentences using the future perfect or future perfect continuous. Then share them with a partner.

6 WRITING

Conclusions

The conclusion can close your composition by restating the main idea, summarizing the main points, looking to the future, making recommendations, or a combination of these methods.

- A Read these two concluding paragraphs. Which methods do the writers use? Underline the parts of the conclusions that helped you decide.

- B Find these linking words or phrases in the conclusions. How are they used? Do you know any others that have similar meanings?

additionally generally however in brief overall

- C Write a composition about living or traveling abroad. Choose one of these topics or one of your own. Your conclusion should use at least one of the methods described and some linking words or phrases.

• culture shock • group travel • independent travel • studying abroad

- D Pair work Exchange papers with a partner and answer these questions.

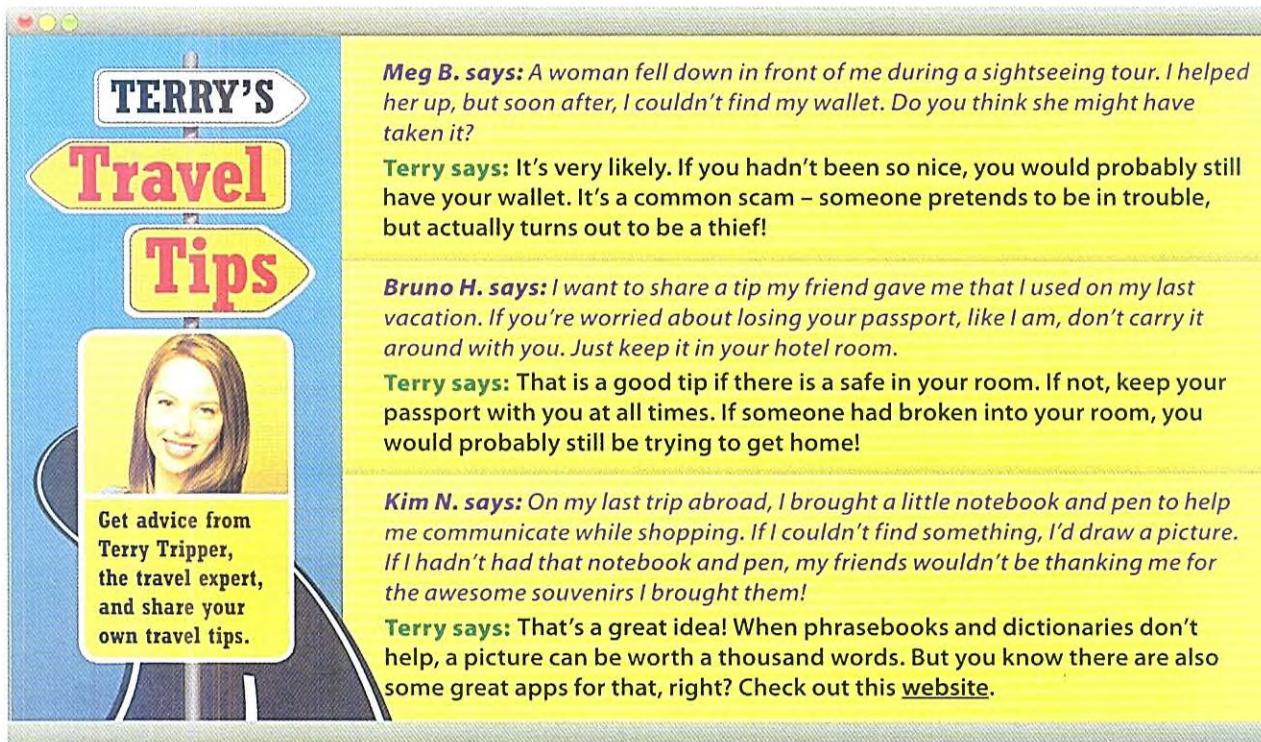

1. What methods did your partner use in his or her conclusion?
2. Are the linking words used effectively? Why or why not?
3. Can you offer any suggestions to improve your partner's conclusion?

LESSON B ▶ Traveler or tourist?

1 STARTING POINT

Travel tips

A Read these people's experiences and the expert's advice. Can you think of any other advice?

TERRY'S Travel Tips

Get advice from Terry Tripper, the travel expert, and share your own travel tips.

Meg B. says: A woman fell down in front of me during a sightseeing tour. I helped her up, but soon after, I couldn't find my wallet. Do you think she might have taken it?

Terry says: It's very likely. If you hadn't been so nice, you would probably still have your wallet. It's a common scam – someone pretends to be in trouble, but actually turns out to be a thief!

Bruno H. says: I want to share a tip my friend gave me that I used on my last vacation. If you're worried about losing your passport, like I am, don't carry it around with you. Just keep it in your hotel room.

Terry says: That is a good tip if there is a safe in your room. If not, keep your passport with you at all times. If someone had broken into your room, you would probably still be trying to get home!

Kim N. says: On my last trip abroad, I brought a little notebook and pen to help me communicate while shopping. If I couldn't find something, I'd draw a picture. If I hadn't had that notebook and pen, my friends wouldn't be thanking me for the awesome souvenirs I brought them!

Terry says: That's a great idea! When phrasebooks and dictionaries don't help, a picture can be worth a thousand words. But you know there are also some great apps for that, right? Check out this website.

B Pair work What travel questions would you ask Terry? Tell your partner. Then try to offer advice to each other.

"I want to buy souvenirs from the places I'm going to visit, but I also like to travel light. Should I store them at the airport or somewhere else?"

"The best thing would be to mail them home. If you don't mind waiting, use surface mail instead of airmail. It's cheaper."

2 LISTENING

Things went wrong.

A Listen to Cindy and Scott talking about their travel problems. What happened to each person?

B Listen again. Choose the statements you think are probably true. Compare your answers with a partner. Give reasons.

- ☐ 1. Cindy has a unique, easy-to-see name tag on her luggage.
- ☐ 2. Cindy travels frequently.
- ☐ 3. Scott likes peace and quiet when he travels.
- ☐ 4. Scott slept soundly all the way to Panama City.

3 GRAMMAR

Mixed conditionals

Use had / hadn't + past participle and would / wouldn't to talk about hypothetical events in the past that have effects on the present.

If you hadn't been so nice, you would probably still have your wallet!

If someone had broken into your room, you would probably still be trying to get home!

GRAMMAR PLUS see page 129

A Look at the Starting Point on page 100 again. Find another mixed conditional sentence. Does this sentence describe actual or hypothetical events?

B Complete these sentences with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

- If I had been (be) more adventurous when I was younger, I wouldn't have (not have) any regrets about the things I missed.
- The airline lost my luggage. If I _____ (bring) a change of clothes in my carry-on bag, I _____ (not shop) for new clothes now.
- This flight is so long! If I _____ (not buy) an economy ticket, I _____ (be) more comfortable now.
- If you _____ (learn) to speak some Mandarin before moving to Taipei, you _____ (be able to) ask someone for directions now.
- If Martha _____ (not become) a flight attendant, she probably _____ (not travel) as much as she does.

4 DISCUSSION

Your own trip

A Pair work Have you ever had problems on vacation? Tell your partner. Use the topics below or your own ideas.

- health
- accommodations
- food
- safety
- language
- getting around
- costs
- weather

"I went to the beach last week, but the weather was awful."

"Why? Was it rainy?"

"No, it was too sunny. If it hadn't been so sunny, I wouldn't have this terrible sunburn now."

B Group work Share your bad travel experiences. Get advice about what you could have done differently.

VOCABULARY

One word or two?

A Combine the items from the boxes to make compound adjectives.

culturally	assured	hearted	motivated
non	aware	judgmental	reliant
open	conforming	minded	sensitive self culturally aware, nonjudgmental, open-minded, . . .

B Pair work Are the characteristics in part A important when you travel? Give an example for each one.

"If you're culturally aware, you'll find it easier to accept cultural differences."

ROLE PLAY

Planning a trip

A Group work Imagine you are planning a vacation. Discuss these questions. Write notes about what your group decides for each question.

1. Where would you like to go?
2. How long would you like your stay to last?
3. Would you like to go with a tour group or on your own?
4. What type of accommodations do you prefer?
5. What kinds of activities would you like to do during the day?
6. What sorts of evening activities would you prefer?
7. What would each person's budget be?
8. What types of transportation would you plan on using?

B Class activity Choose someone in your group to act as a travel agent and present your vacation to the class. The class votes on the best itinerary.

"We have planned a truly exotic vacation for you in the remote Galápagos Islands! You'll stay for seven unforgettable days in a five-star resort . . ."

- A What are the best ways to experience a new place when you travel?
Make a list. Then read the article to compare your list with the author's.

Get Yourself LOST

Travelers to a new city are often encouraged to take a bus tour. The thinking is that they can later return to the places that captivated them, but that's nonsense! What you see from the inside of a fast-moving bus is sanitized and unreal, utterly removed from the authentic sights, sounds, and smells outside. The best way to experience any destination is by foot, without an itinerary, wandering where your spirit leads you. Even in the largest cities, the savvy traveler plunges into the very center of town and walks down the nearest street, experiencing the actual life of the people while looking into the grocery stores and courtyards. You eventually get to many of the same sites that are on the bus route – the museums, the monuments, the city hall – but you will have witnessed so much more because you will have felt the contemporary life of the city you're visiting.

"But what if I get lost?" people ask. No one ever gets permanently lost in a major city. Eventually, a trolley or bus passes with the words "Central Station" on its front and you can easily return to the center of town. Besides, the most wonderful things can happen if you do get lost, such as stopping at a sidewalk café to sit and relax and then asking directions from the locals at the next table. Hopefully, your trip may be enhanced by this encounter. Here are a few ways to make the most of your travels:

- KNOW BEFORE YOU GO. Before you depart, spend time learning about the history and culture of your destination so you will better understand the place you're visiting.

- MOVE AROUND LIKE A LOCAL. Use the local subways, trams, and buses. You'll not only save money, you'll learn how people live there, and you'll gain a realistic perspective of the city.
- CHECK THE BULLETIN BOARDS. Bulletin boards list free lectures, concerts, workshops, and social gatherings, giving you a chance to join or meet the area's most dynamic residents.
- TAKE A WALKING TOUR. If you must book a guided tour, select the nonstandard, inexpensive kinds conducted on foot.

So, the next time you feel lured by a sightseeing bus tour, save your money and instead, wander around on your own. I promise you a time you'll remember fondly.

Source: "Get Yourself Lost," by Arthur Frommer

- B Find the boldfaced words in the article. Then choose the correct words to complete the sentences.
1. If something captivates you, you're upset / captured / delighted by it.
 2. A savvy traveler is refined / experienced / adventurous.
 3. When you plunge into an activity, you probably walk away from it / throw yourself into it / stumble into it.
 4. If you enhance your reading skills, you upgrade / restore / prolong them.
 5. Dynamic people are more cautious / unstable / interesting than others.
- C Pair work How do your travel habits compare with those in the article?
Which ideas do you think you'll try the next time you visit a new city? Why?

4. A: The teacher recommends using a pencil on tests so you can erase wrong answers.
B: Yes, and I _____ (follow) his advice. I made a real mess with my pen.

2B Modals with multiple uses

Degrees of certainty range from very certain to uncertain.

Very certain: To show that you think something was probable in the past, use must have, must not have, can't have, or couldn't have.

Jake had a stomachache last night after dinner. He must have eaten too much.

Sofia was at a movie with me last night. You couldn't have seen her at the mall!

Uncertain: To show that you think something was possible in the past, use could have, may have, might have, may not have, or might not have.

Jun Ho is usually here by now. He could / may / might have missed the bus this morning.

Tanya was supposed to meet me before school. She may / might not have gotten the message.

To give opinions or advice, there are a greater number of modals available for talking about the present or future than there are for the past.

Present or future: Use must (not), have to, have got to, had better (not), or should (not).

Parents have got to monitor the shows their children watch.

The kids had better not spend so much time indoors playing computer games.

Past: Use should (not) have.

I should have listened to the advice my parents gave me about having a healthy lifestyle.

 B: Well, you couldn't have / shouldn't have been using it without my permission.
- A: Sorry I'm late. We were playing baseball, and I didn't notice the time.
 B: You may not have / couldn't have been doing that. It's been dark for an hour!

3A Defining and non-defining relative clauses

That can be used for people or things in defining relative clauses. However, it cannot be used as a replacement for where or when with the meaning "in which," "at which," or "during which."

Many of the people that live in Paris leave the city in August to vacation in other places.

A statue of ducks that can be found in Boston is a popular tourist attraction for children.

Pamplona is that city in Spain where the bulls run through the streets during a summer festival.

Summer is the season when New York is crowded with tourists from all over the world.

That cannot be used in non-defining relative clauses. Who, which, or where are used instead.

Cairo, which has fascinated Europeans for ages, draws countless tourists each year.

Our tour guide, who knew a great deal about souvenirs in Otavalo, helped us buy some beautiful presents for our friends.

- 1 Complete the defining relative clauses with that, who, when, or where.
Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

1. People who / that live in cities have more stress than people _____ live in small towns.
2. Amy likes to stay in hotels _____ there are lots of theaters and restaurants nearby.
3. Some city people have cottages by lakes _____ they can swim and relax during the summer season.
4. My family and I always visit Brazil in the month _____ the Carnaval festival begins.
5. Many office workers like to have lunch in a park _____ they can sit in the sun and enjoy the nature _____ is all around them.
6. The city is better for students _____ want to work in the summer because it's the place _____ the job market offers the most opportunities.
7. People _____ live in towns _____ there is no public transportation system often own cars.
8. If you're going to Asia in April, Tokyo is a city _____ I recommend visiting because spring is the season _____ the cherry trees are in bloom.

- 2 Match the information about these cities. Then make sentences with non-defining relative clauses.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. New Yorkers / huge baseball fans c | a. was also the location of the first games. |
| 2. Saint Petersburg / the Hermitage is located _____ | b. is a popular winter destination. |
| 3. Athens / 2004 Summer Olympics were held _____ | c. have two pro teams in their city. |
| 4. Sydney / famous for its Opera House _____ | d. is crossed by many canals. |
| 5. Venice / built on 118 small islands _____ | e. was Russia's capital for many years. |
| 6. Hawaii / has warm weather all year _____ | f. also has a well-known bridge. |

New Yorkers, who are huge baseball fans, have two pro teams in their city.

3B Order of modifiers

Shape (round, thin), color (red, blue), and material (silk, plastic) are also used to describe nouns. They appear in the following order:

Quality	Size	Shape	Age	Color	Type	Material	Noun
quaint	little	winding					streets
picturesque			old	brightly colored	resort		hotels
	small				Thai	wooden	fishing boats

1 Put the words in the correct order.

- He bought a red / house / brick / little in the center of town.
He bought a little red brick house in the center of town.
- They're renting a cottage / pink / traditional / square beside the river.
- He hated living in a border / town / remote / little with its wooden / houses / run-down.
- The town had many old / buildings / cement with steel / dirty / black / roofs.

3B Connecting contrasting ideas

There are three ways to connect contrasting ideas.

To begin an adverb clause, use although or even though.

I'd like to live in a small town someday even though I love all the opportunities in big cities.

Although I love all the opportunities in big cities, I'd like to live in a small town someday.

To begin an independent clause, use the transition words however, nevertheless, or on the other hand. Note the punctuation with transition words.

I love big cities. However / On the other hand, I'd like to live in a small town someday.

I love big cities; nevertheless / however, I'd like to live in a small town someday.

To begin a noun phrase, use the prepositions despite or in spite of.

Despite all the opportunities in big cities, I'd like to live in a small town someday.

I'd like to live in a small town someday in spite of all the opportunities in big cities.

2 Complete each sentence with a word or phrase from the box. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

although however in spite of on the other hand nevertheless

- This is a great city; nevertheless / however, it's too crowded.
- _____ living downtown is expensive, there's a lot to do.
- The summer is beautiful here. _____, it's terrible in the winter.
- _____ the high crime rate, I'm not afraid to walk home alone after dark.

4A Reduced time clauses

In a reduced time clause, the subject of the clause is omitted and the verb is changed to an -ing form. A time clause with before, after, or while can be reduced only if the subject in the sentence's other clause is the same.

Before I go to sleep, I like to read.

Before going to sleep, I like to read.

I like to read before going to sleep.

Before the baby goes to sleep, his mother reads to him.

Once, every time, till, as, the first / next / last time, and many other time expressions can be used in time clauses. Time clauses beginning with these expressions cannot be reduced.

As soon as / Once I drink that first cup of coffee, I'm ready for the day.

Whenever / Every time I stay out late, I have trouble getting up the next morning.

I always stay at the office until / till I've finished all my work.

I like to watch TV as I'm eating dinner.

The last time I drank too much coffee, I was jittery all day.

- 1 Which of these time clauses can be reduced (R)? Which ones cannot be reduced (N)? Write the correct letter.

- N 1. Ever since I can remember, I've been a night owl.
___ 2. Once I fall asleep, I almost never wake up until morning.
___ 3. My mother races off to work right after I leave for school.
___ 4. Every time Jerry comes to visit, he keeps me up past my bedtime.
___ 5. As soon as I get up in the morning, I drink a large glass of water.
___ 6. I always listen to music while I run.
___ 7. I often doze off as I'm watching TV at night.
___ 8. Whenever I drink coffee after 3:00, I have trouble falling asleep.
___ 9. I always have breakfast at a local café before I start classes for the day.
___ 10. The last time I stayed at a hotel, the bed was really uncomfortable.

- 2 Rewrite the sentences using reduced time clauses.

- I usually watch the news while I have breakfast.
I usually watch the news while having breakfast.
- My sister won't drink orange juice after she brushes her teeth.
- She does a lot of housework before she leaves for work in the morning.
- Power nappers work better after they sleep for a short time during the day.
- You probably shouldn't eat anything heavy before you exercise.
- If I listen to soft music while I study, I can concentrate better.
- After I'm in an argument, I need to be by myself for an hour or two.
- Before I chill out at night, I make sure everything is ready for the morning.

4B Clauses stating reasons and conditions

مرجع زبان ایرانیان

The following are all additional commonly used clauses that state reasons and conditions.

Now that introduces a change in general circumstances that explains the main clause. Now that means "because now."

Now that I have a job that starts early, I have to leave the house by 6:30.

Whether or not introduces a condition that might or might not occur and which will not influence the main clause. Note its two possible positions.

She goes jogging every morning whether or not it's bad weather.

She goes jogging every morning whether it's bad weather or not.

Provided / Providing (that) introduces a condition that must be met for the main clause to be true.

Provided that I get all my schoolwork done, my weekend will be free.

Providing that I get a promotion, I'll stay with my company a few more years.

1 Match each sentence on the left with the best meaning on the right.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. She always has breakfast whether she's in a hurry or not. c | a. She has plenty of time to eat something in the morning. |
| 2. Now that she works the afternoon shift, she always has time for breakfast. ____ | b. She skips her morning meal when she doesn't feel like eating anything. |

- I'm afraid to nap at lunch even if / just in case I start snoring at my desk.
- Even if / Provided that I'm totally exhausted, I can't sleep on airplanes.

In a sentence with It's + adjective + infinitive, it is possible to follow the adjective with for and an object. The object can be a pronoun or a noun.

It's difficult for her to talk about her feelings openly.

It's customary for North Americans to make frequent eye contact.

For sentences in the negative, use not + infinitive or not + gerund.

It's considered rude not to thank people who give you gifts.

Not thanking people who give you gifts is considered rude.

Adjectives of feeling (glad, happy, pleased) cannot be used with the It's + adjective + infinitive structure. Instead, the sentence needs to say who has (or doesn't have) these feelings.

Most parents are happy to see their children go to college.

People are always delighted to get compliments.

1 Rewrite the sentences using infinitive or gerund phrases.

1. It's important to make a good first impression.
Making a good first impression is important.
2. Arriving late for an appointment is inappropriate in most countries.
3. It's fairly typical for college students to get to a party late.
4. It's considered rude not to be punctual for a dinner party.

8. dinner guests / customary / thank their hosts
9. businesspeople / important / be punctual for appointments

5B Reported speech

The modals can, may, must, have to, and don't have to change in reported speech. Might and should do not change. Also notice how the pronouns change in reported speech.

Statements

"You can go to the party with me."
 "I may go to a movie tonight."
 "We must tell him the truth."
 "He has to go to the bank."
 "You don't have to pay me back."
 "We might get married."
 "I should replace my old laptop."

Reported statements

She said I could go to the party with her.
 He said he might go to a movie tonight.
 They said they had to tell him the truth.
 He said he had to go to the bank.
 She said I didn't have to pay her back.
 She said they might get married.
 He said he should replace his old laptop."

Say and tell are used differently in reported speech. Tell must be followed by a noun or object pronoun. Say is not followed by a noun/pronoun object.

Statements

"Don't park the car there."

Reported statements

She told me not to park the car there.
 She said not to park the car there.

When a very recent statement is being reported, no tense change is necessary.

A: I didn't hear that. What did she say?

B: She said she wants to go out for dinner.

Review the rules for reported speech on page 41. Change these conversations to reported speech.

- Ryan: I'm thinking of applying for a promotion at work.
 Emma: What kind of promotion is it?
 Ryan: Our department needs a new manager.
 Emma: You should definitely apply!
 Ryan: I'm a little nervous because there's a big interview.
 Emma: You just have to practice. I can help you.
Ryan told Emma he was thinking of applying for a promotion at work.
- Karl: Do we have to sign up for our after-school club?
 Tanya: You can sign up until noon.
 Ava: Don't wait too long. The good clubs are filling up fast.
 Karl: I'll do it after I eat my lunch.
- Larry: I'm going to the Galápagos Islands in April.
 Jason: That's wonderful! You must send me some photos.
 Larry: I'll send you some. I promise! But why don't you go with me?
 Jason: I can't go. I may be starting a new job in April.

6A Present perfect vs. simple past

Use the present perfect to report a repeated past event that could continue into the present.

Thieves have robbed three banks this year.

The seal has painted four pictures so far.

Use the present perfect to report an event that has an effect on the present, or is still relevant.

She's been more careful since she lost her car keys.

The store has had a security camera for a month now.

- 1 Complete these sentences with the simple past or the present perfect form of the verbs in parentheses.

1. The police caught (catch) the robber when he _____ (sell) the stolen art.
2. Unbelievably, the same woman _____ (win) the lottery twice since May.
3. So far, the children _____ (raise) more than $500 for charity.
4. Since the city _____ (pass) its new laws last year, crime _____ (fall).
5. The kidnappers _____ (not call) and _____ (not demand) any ransom yet.
6. No storms _____ (strike) since the summer _____ (begin).

6A Present perfect vs. present perfect continuous

Some verbs, such as live, work, study, give/take (lessons), and teach, express the idea of an ongoing action. They can usually be used in either the present perfect or the present perfect continuous.

He has lived in London for eight years.

He has been living in London for eight years.

I have taken violin lessons since I was three.

I have been taking violin lessons since I was three.

- 2 Review the rules for the present perfect and the present perfect continuous on page 45. Then choose the correct form of the verb to complete the article. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

It's a sad day for many who (1) have lived / have been living in this town since they were children. The town council (2) has decided / has been deciding to take down the old fishing pier.

Fisherman Bob Kates said, "I (3) have worked / have been working here since I was young. Generations of kids (4) have taken / have been taking swimming lessons here. I myself (5) have jumped / have been jumping off this pier many times, especially on hot summer days. However, today the temperature (6) has reached / has been reaching 36 degrees Celsius, but nobody can jump off the pier as the town (7) has already put up / has already been putting up barriers. It's true that the pier (8) has been / has been being in pretty bad condition for a while now, so I guess it's a safety issue."

It's not all bad news for Mr. Kates. The town (9) has studied / has been studying proposals for replacing the pier for a year now, and in fact, planning for a new and improved pier (10) has already begun / has already been beginning.

6B Adverbs with the simple past and past perfect

When and the simple past and past perfect can be used to express different time relationships.

When I arrived in Bangkok, my connecting flight had already departed.

When I arrived in Bangkok, my friend met me at the airport.

When before makes the sequence of events clear, the simple past or past perfect can be used.

It began to rain before she boarded the plane.

It had begun to rain before she boarded the plane.

Yet and already are used with both the present perfect and past perfect to show that an event took place earlier.

It had already started raining when I arrived in Bangkok.

It hadn't started raining yet when I arrived in Bangkok.

Choose the correct form of the verb to complete the story.

The taxi arrived to take Erica to the airport for her flight to London. Until that day she (1) was never / (had never been) on an international flight. The travel agent (2) told / had told her to get to the airport early, so she (3) arrived / had arrived four hours before her flight was due to leave. When she (4) got / had gotten there, she (5) realized / had realized she had plenty of time to spare, so she (6) decided / had decided to have some coffee and a snack and look at the newspaper before she (7) checked in / had checked in. She (8) already bought / had already bought some chocolate bars to eat on the plane, so she decided to have one of those. She sat at the counter and ordered a coffee.

When her coffee (9) came / had come, she pulled her favorite section out of the newspaper, carefully refolded it, and put it on the counter beside her. When she (10) reached / had reached for her chocolate bar, she saw that someone (11) already took / had already taken it out of the package and (12) broke / had broken it into eight tidy squares. She looked beside her and saw a distinguished-looking businessman. Before that, she (13) didn't really notice / hadn't really noticed him. She watched as he picked up a piece of the chocolate and calmly popped it into his mouth. She (14) never saw / had never seen such rude behavior in her life, so still staring at him, she (15) picked up / had picked up a piece and ate it. By now, he was staring back. He picked up another piece and ate it. So did Erica. Finally, there was only one piece left. Erica (16) took / had taken it.

The man stood up. He said, "Look. If you're that hungry, buy yourself a donut!" He (17) slammed / had slammed a dollar bill down on the counter and stormed out. In her entire life, she (18) was never / had never been so shocked. Muttering to herself, Erica began to gather up her things. Suddenly, she stopped, standing as still as a statue. There, under her newspaper, (19) was / had been her chocolate bar, exactly where she (20) put / had put it before the whole fiasco began.

If the agent (the person or thing doing the action) is unknown or obvious from the context, it's better to use a passive form. However, if the person or thing doing the action needs to be emphasized, it's better to use an active form.

The spyware is being used to collect information about college students. (Agent is unknown.)

Social networking sites have been used in criminal investigations. (Agent is clear from context.)

A criminal organization has created this virus, not an amateur hacker. (Agent is emphasized.)

The passive is very rarely used with the present perfect continuous. Use the passive of the present perfect instead.

People have been posting more videos to the Internet this year than ever before.

More videos have been posted to the Internet this year than ever before.

1 For each pair of sentences, is it better to use the passive or active form?

Choose a or b.

1. ☒ a. More U.S. employers will likely allow access to social networking sites.
☐ b. Access to social networking sites will likely be allowed.
2. ☐ a. Soon, inventors will invent smartphones that don't require a battery.
☐ b. Smartphones that don't require a battery will be invented soon.
3. ☐ a. Most cell phone companies are now offering unlimited-use plans.
☐ b. Unlimited-use plans are being offered now.
4. ☐ a. Teachers might be teaching more high school students with educational computer games.
☐ b. More high school students might be taught with educational computer games.

2 Complete the sentences with the correct active or passive form of the verb in parentheses.

1. Recently, social networking sites have become (become) popular with all age groups.
2. Every week, free software _____ (download) on computers everywhere.
3. In the years to come, podcasts _____ (use) more often in educational programs.

7B Negative and tag questions for giving opinions

Use past negative and tag questions to offer an opinion about a past event and invite someone to react.

Wasn't it weird how the manager's microphone kept turning on and off during his speech?

Didn't it seem like the manager's speech would never end?

Shouldn't the company have provided us with coffee before the speech?

The manager's speech was really boring, wasn't it?

The manager has given some pretty boring speeches, hasn't he?

The manager's speech had just put about everyone to sleep when the fire alarm rang, hadn't it?

In informal spoken English, they can be used as the pronoun in tag questions when the subject is somebody, someone, everybody, everyone, nobody, or no one.

Everyone we know had a cell phone in school, didn't they? Yes, they did.

Somebody has hacked into your computer, haven't they? Yes, they have. / No, they haven't.

Use an affirmative tag question when the subject is a negative, such as nobody or nothing.

Nobody left any voice mail messages, did they? Yes, they did. / No, they didn't.

1 Turn the statements into negative questions.

- It would have been great if telemarketers had never gotten my number.
Wouldn't it have been great if telemarketers had never gotten my number?
- It was awful how much paper we wasted on fliers that nobody read.
- Jill should have kept her text messages much shorter.
- It was weird how those pop-up ads made my computer freeze.
- It seemed like we spent all day looking for an Internet café.
- It would have been great if we could have paid less for our computer.
- We should have spent less time playing video games as kids.
- It was sad how Mark got really addicted to social networking sites.

2 Complete the sentences with tag questions.

- There were several voice mail messages for me, weren't there?

10A Relative clauses and noun clauses

In some relative clauses, the relative pronoun (who, that, or which) can be omitted.

In an object relative clause, a relative pronoun (who, that, or which) is optional. Relative pronouns are only required when they function as the subject of a relative clause.

My friend told our classmates a secret. I had told him that secret.

My friend told our classmates a secret (that) I had told him.

In a subject relative clause, a relative pronoun (who, that, or which) is necessary because it functions as the subject of the relative clause.

I have a roommate. She never cleans the kitchen.

I have a roommate who never cleans the kitchen.

- 1 Choose the sentences where the relative pronoun (who, that, or which) is optional.

- ☒ 1. The restaurant that we had dinner at last night overcharged us.
- ☐ 2. One thing that makes me sick is really selfish people.

10B Simple and complex indirect questions

If the beginning clause of an indirect question is in statement word order, the sentence is a statement and ends with a period.

I'm curious about why he didn't complain to the landlord.

I'm not sure who is responsible for repairing the roads.

The big question is if / whether we can get the city officials to listen to our concerns.

If the beginning clause of an indirect question is in question word order, the sentence is a question and ends with a question mark.

Do you have any idea if / whether I need a visa to visit China?

Could you tell me where I can go to pay my parking ticket?

Don't you wonder how a place with such poor service stays in business?

1 Rewrite these sentences using the words in parentheses.

- I'd like to know who should be responsible for keeping our city clean.
- Tell me what I have to do to get my driver's license.
- When the next meeting will be is something I haven't found out yet.
- I wonder if I should complain about my neighbor's loud parties.

11A Present unreal conditional with unless, only if, and even if

To ask a follow-up question after a yes/no question, a shortened conditional can be used, especially in spoken or informal English. The positive shortened conditional is if so, and the negative shortened conditional is if not.

Would you consider lying to a good friend to avoid hurting your friend's feelings? If so, what kinds of things would you lie about?

Are you sure your friends are loyal and trusting? If not, you shouldn't tell them your secrets.

1 Match the yes/no questions on the left with the follow-up questions on the right.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Would you say anything if a colleague called you by the wrong name? c | a. If not, what would you say? |

12A Future perfect and future perfect continuous

www.irLanguage.com

When using the future perfect or future perfect continuous, the particular point in the future is often referred to in another part of the sentence.

By this time next year, your commitment to language study is going to have gotten stronger.

On August 1, I will have been living overseas for six months.

After a few months, you're going to have made real progress with English.

Before next spring, he will have finished most of his course work.

By the time you arrive in New York, Marisa will have already received the package you sent.

When the van arrives, I will have been packing for two days, and I probably won't have finished.

Before I leave for Paris, I will already have sold my house and put my things in storage.

After I finish this, I will have completed everything on my "to do" list.

1 Underline the words in each sentence that refer to a point in the future.

1. By the spring, Nate will have visited over a dozen different countries.
2. When the end of the week arrives, I will have written four exams.
3. Before long, I'll have been working on this puzzle for an hour. It's impossible!
4. I can't believe he's still sleeping! At 11:00, he'll have been sleeping for 12 hours.

9. We're late. By the time we get there, they _____ (finish) dinner.
10. On Friday of this week, Kara _____ (travel) for two months.

12B Mixed conditionals

Conditionals can appear in many forms. They can describe how situations in the past affect situations in the past, the present, or the future.

Use a past form in both the if clause and the result clause to talk about true events in the past.

When I was younger, if I didn't behave well, my parents were disappointed.

If we got lost during our trip last year, we just asked someone for directions.

Use the past perfect in the if clause and would / wouldn't have + the past participle of the verb in the result clause to talk about hypothetical situations in the past that had effects on the more recent past.

If I had been born with a good voice, I would have started my own band a long time ago.

Use the past perfect in the if clause and would / wouldn't + verb in the result clause to describe hypothetical situations in the past that have effects on the present.

If I had studied harder when I was in school, I would have a better job today.

Use the past perfect in the if clause and would / wouldn't + verb in the result clause to talk about hypothetical situations in the past that have effects on the future.

If she had booked her flight before now, she would be in Paris next week.

If I hadn't taken a year off from school, I would be graduating this June.

Complete these sentences with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

- As a kid, I always enjoyed (enjoy) school if I _____ (like) the teacher.
- If I _____ (study) harder last year, I _____ (not have to) repeat the course this year.
