

Midterm Exam –Written: Listening

Speak Now 1. Midterm Exam.

Listening 1.

- A: What time do you want to get up tomorrow?
B: Let's get up early. I want to get an early start.
A: OK. How about seven thirty?
B: That sounds good. We can eat breakfast and then do something fun. It's our first day on the island, after all.
A: That's true. So what do you want to do tomorrow? What do you think about kayaking? It looks fun.
B: Oh, I don't know. It seems kind of boring to me. Let's do something more exciting. How do you feel about jet skiing? It looks really fun.
A: Sure. Jet skiing sounds great. What time are the classes?
B: There is one class at nine o'clock, and one at eleven thirty. We can go to the nine o'clock class, right after breakfast.
A: Perfect. Let's go to bed early tonight so we can get up early tomorrow.
B: OK.

Listening 2.

- A: Hey, Roger. You have a new colleague at work, right?
B: Yes. I do. Her name's Sharon. She's great.
A: Really?
B: Yeah. She's really smart. She studied economics and marketing in school.
A: She sounds kind of serious.
B: Yeah. I guess, she is. But she's really friendly and funny too. Everyone in the office really likes her.
A: Is she new in town?
B: Yeah. I think she's from New York or somewhere.
A: Why don't you ask her to come here for dinner on Friday night?
B: Sure. That's a nice idea. What time is good for you?
A: Around seven.
B: OK. I'll send her a text message now.
A: That sounds great.

Question 4: Conversation

A: Hey, you're in my psychology class, aren't you?

B: Yeah, I think so. I'm Maggie. Nice to meet you.

A: Nice to meet you, Maggie. My name's Anil.

B: Sorry. Can you say that again? What's your name?

A: Oh... it's Anil... A-N-I-L. It's Indian. My family is from India.

B: Got it. Nice to meet you, Anil.

A: So what did you think of today's lecture?

B: Well, I'm a math major, so I don't really like psychology very much.

A: Really? I'm a sociology major, but psychology is my favorite subject. I don't like math very much.

B: Hey... I have an idea. Maybe you can help me study psychology and...

A: ...you can help me study math. That's a great idea!
