READING

1 Read the text. Tick (✓) the correct option to complete the sentences.

On This Day in History

23rd April is an important day in history around the world. Many people know it as the birthday of the famous English writer, William Shakespeare, but this wasn't the only thing in history on 23rd April.

William Shakespeare lived from 1564 until he was 52 years old in 1616. He went to school in Stratford-upon-Avon. In 1590 he went to live in London and worked as an actor in a theatre. When he was in London he started to write plays for the theatre. There are 37 plays and many students around the world know some like Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet, and Macbeth.

In 1972 thousands of miles away, on the same day, John Young and Charles Duke walked on the moon. At the time they were two of only 12 men to do this. The first was Neil Armstrong on 21st July 1969. John Young and Charles Duke were two of the astronauts on Apollo 16.

Twenty years after this walk on the moon, on 23rd April, the American fast-food company McDonald's opened its first restaurant in China. On that first day 40,000 people visited this new McDonald's in Beijing and had something to eat! Today there are more than 2,500 McDonald's restaurants in China.

On 23rd April in 2005 Jawed Karim watched the first video on YouTube. Jawed is from Germany but he went to live in the United States with his family in 1992 when he was 13 years old. He studied computer science at university and started YouTube in 2005 with two friends.

Example: William Shakespeare lived from _____.

A 1564 B 1590 C 1616

1 There are _____ plays for the theatre by Shakespeare.

A 27 B 37 C 52

2 Between 1969 and 1972 _____ men walked on the moon.

A two B three C twelve

3 Neil Armstrong was the _____ man to walk on the moon.

A first B second C twelfth

4 Jawed Karim lived in _____ between 1979 and 1992.

A China B Germany C the United States

5 Jawed Karim started YouTube in _____.

A 1979 B 1992 C 2005
