1 Picture 3

Audio script  01

I was so proud when I won the art prize. I actually painted the picture very quickly. I was going to do a portrait of my sister, but she couldn't sit still for long enough. In the end, I decided to paint some fields near our house. I know that doesn't sound very exciting, but it's a place I know very well. I play there with my friends, so I have lots of happy memories of it. It also means that I could work on the painting in my bedroom. I'm really pleased that people can recognize the scene that I've painted. In the foreground, there's a low stone wall and some trees to the left. There's an old farm building on the right. It looks as if it's about to fall down. There are usually a lot of sheep and cows in the field, but I only decided to put a few in, as I'm not very good at painting them. They look more like dogs and horses! Because I painted my picture in the fall, there weren't many flowers around, but there are lots now. If I paint the same scene again in the future, I'll add more flowers. Away in the distance are some hills. We don't have any mountains near us, though. The landscape isn't dramatic, but it's pretty and I love it.

Jackie What did you like best about the activity center, Charlie?

Charlie Well, it was really cool spending a week with all my friends. But I missed my mom and dad, of course.

Jackie And did you take part in many activities?

Charlie Yes, lots. I didn't try everything, but on the first day I tried the rock climbing and the paragliding, which I absolutely loved.

Jackie So you aren't afraid of heights, then?

Charlie No, the higher the better. I enjoyed the rock climbing because you have to work as a team. It's a lot harder than it looks. The paragliding was amazing – just like being a bird!

Jackie What else did you do?

Charlie I spent an afternoon mountain biking. You get to go really fast, and you need to pay attention to where you're going. I fell off twice!

Jackie What about water sports? Did you do any water skiing?

Charlie ... uh, no. I didn't go anywhere near the water. It looked so cold!

Jane What's the most exciting journey you've ever been on?

Pete It was definitely the ride in the hot-air balloon.

Jane That sounds fantastic!

Pete It was. There were about eight or nine of us altogether. That was more than I was expecting. But it didn't matter because we all had a great view.

Jane Was it mainly children?

Pete No, there were all sorts of ages – even a boy and his grandpa!

Jane So how did it feel when you left the ground?

Pete It felt strange. You don't realize that you're moving at first, but then you're up and away over the trees. Suddenly, you can't hear the traffic any more, and you feel as if you're in a world of your own.

Jane So what did you see?

Pete We flew over my house and our school, and saw the team at soccer practice.

Jane Did they see you?

Pete Well, they saw the balloon, but not me. It's amazing how everyone waves when you're in a balloon.

Jane You're doing it again next month, aren't you?

Pete Yes, I can't wait. I'm really looking forward to it.

The Torwell Museum has a wide range of machines and devices that show the best in international design over the years. Of course, most of these items have been replaced with more advanced technology. But if you look, you'll see that the ideas behind the older machines are very similar to the modern equipment we have today. There are all sorts of things, from early washing machines to printers and cameras. You'll be amazed by the size of these objects. For example, a calculator in the museum that is the size of half a desk is now the same size as a credit card. And you won't forget the early computers in a hurry. In the Torwell Museum there's one from thirty years ago. That's not a very long time, but when it was originally installed in the office, the floor had to be rebuilt and made stronger. Now, a computer the size of your hand would be much more powerful.

Audio script 05

When you take a walk in the countryside, there are some basic rules you should follow. First of all, if you're planning to go a long way, or want to explore the hills, you should check the weather before you leave the house. In the countryside, the weather can change very quickly, and it can be very dangerous if you get cold and wet, especially if you're wearing the wrong sort of clothes. Also, take water and a good map. Once you're in the countryside, make sure you follow any signs. If you have to open a gate to get into a field, make sure you close it again. Keep your dog, if you have one, near you at all times, and don't let it run near any sheep. Don't walk on the plants, or pick the flowers, and always take your litter home. Think of it as walking in someone else's garden. The countryside is for us all to enjoy.

We went on a school trip to the beach last week. It was great. We went to a beautiful old fishing village called Robin Hood's Bay, in the south of the country. They don't do much fishing there any more, but it's still a fascinating place. The houses are very traditional, and they're connected by very narrow streets. Our teacher, Mr. Grayson, took us for a walk along the beach. There were lots of rocks, and interesting things to look at in the rock pools. Mr. Grayson told us where there was the wreck of a ship. Obviously, we didn't see it ourselves, as it was underwater. Ryan Casey asked if there were any icebergs nearby, but Mr. Grayson just laughed.

When we arrived at the hotel, we were shocked. It was terrible. The hotel was really small and old. It was between two really tall office buildings, not next to the park, as it said in the advertisement.

*At the reception desk, we discovered that the receptionist didn't speak English at all. That was OK, or so we thought, as Martin had learned a few phrases of the language ... but the receptionist didn't understand that, either. We had to wait ten minutes for the manager to come and help us.
We had to take our own bags up to our rooms. This was really difficult for grandpa, who has a bad back. Dad told him to leave his suitcase at reception; Dad came back later to get it himself.*

We were even more worried when we saw the rooms. We were expecting them to be small, but the one that Tommy and I were staying in only had a tiny window that was too high to see out of.

In Mom and Dad's room the radiator was hanging off the wall and, as if all this wasn't terrible enough, the closet door was broken. Breakfast the next morning was terrible! Our table was dirty and two of the chairs were broken. There were no clean spoons or knives. The coffee was cold and there was no milk. What a vacation!
