

On Safari

Audio CD Section 4: Expanded Story

Mom is driving the car. Dad is taking pictures of the animals. Colin is looking at the animals. They are happy. Let's see what's in the safari park.

(Page 4) They drive on the road and look for animals. Mom stops the car. What do they see? Zebras! Zebras look like horses with black and white stripes. They watch the black and white zebras. Zebras like to eat grass. Do you like to eat grass? What's next? Mom drives the car.

(Page 8) Mom sees a family of monkeys. She stops the car. Colin likes monkeys. They watch the monkeys. Monkeys play games and eat bananas. Colin likes to play games and eat bananas, too, but he is not a monkey. Look! There's a monkey on the car. What a naughty monkey!

(Page 10) Good-bye monkeys. It's time to see the big strong elephants. They watch the elephants. Elephants drink a lot of water. Colin likes the elephants. He likes their big ears. He likes their long noses. How many elephants can you see?

(Page 12) Colin wants to see the lions. Look at Colin now. He looks like an angry lion. Grrrrr! The lions are hungry. They are eating lunch. Dad is eating, too. Dad is lucky to be eating in the car. He doesn't want to eat with those hungry lions.

(Page 14) It's 5 o'clock in the afternoon. It's time to go home. Colin is happy. He saw many animals in the safari park. He saw zebras, kangaroos, monkeys, elephants, and lions. The lions are his favorite animals. Which is your favorite animal?
