About

1 Unit-A&B

introduces twenty target words in each unit, organized into Parts A and B with ten words each.

2 Word List

presents each word with a descriptive image, a phonetic transcription, and an example sentence. Synonyms and antonyms are also included to help students expand their vocabulary. A writing line is provided as well, allowing students to practice writing each word themselves.

3 Use the Words

A practices synonyms and antonyms, and British English words are marked as BrE.

B matches definitions with target words to understand word meanings.

C completes sentences using target words in context.

Reading for Vocabulary in Context

Why Do People Have Nicknames? TR 03

Some people have long names, so their friends use a short name or even just an initial. For example, "Alexander" might be called "Alex."

Nicknames can be cool, friendly, or even silly! My friend Mia's real name is Michelle, but everyone calls her "Mimi" because she's cute and sweet!

Sometimes people tease others with mean nicknames, but that's not nice. Nicknames should make people feel happy.

Look around your class—do your friends have nicknames?

Maybe your last name became your nickname, too!

Questions 1-3

For each question, choose the correct answer.

1 Why do people use nicknames?

a Because they don't know their real names.
b Because nicknames are longer.
c Because some real names are long.

2 What is true about Mia's nickname "Mimi"?

a It is her real name.
b It shows she is cute and sweet.
c It is a mean nickname.

3 Which words describe good nicknames in the passage?

a mean, rough, boring
b cool, friendly, silly
c loud, noisy, rude

Questions 4-6

For each question, write the correct answer to complete the sentence.

4 Because some names are long, people use shorter names or only initials.

= Some people have long names, so their friends use a short name or even _____ an initial.

5 Michelle is my friend Mia's real name, but people call her "Mimi."

= My friend Mia's real name is Michelle, but everyone _____ her "Mimi."

6 Teasing someone with a mean nickname is not a nice thing to do.

= Sometimes people _____ others with mean nicknames, but that's not nice.

Questions 7-10

For each question, write the correct answer. Write one word for each gap.

Example 0 Some

0 Some people have long names, so their friends use a short name or an 7 _____. For example, "Alexander" might be called "Alex." 8 _____ can be cool, friendly, or silly! My friend's 9 _____ name is Michelle, but we call her "Mimi." Good nicknames make people happy, but 10 _____ nicknames can hurt feelings.
