- Tony: Hello?
Bill: Hi, Tony!
Tony: Hi. Is that Bill?
Bill: Yes, it's me, Bill. Where are you, Tony? Are you at home?
Tony: Yes, I am. I'm in my house in Los Angeles. What about you?
Bill: I'm at home in Chicago. The weather's terrible here. It's cold and rainy today. My parents are at work, and my sister is at the movie theater. I'm bored!
Tony: Too bad. It's sunny here in Los Angeles!
Bill: What's your neighborhood like?
Tony: It's nice. There's a hotel next door, and there's a park across the street.
Bill: That's great. Is your house big?
Tony: Well, there are four bedrooms, and a big living room. I'm in the living room right now.
Bill: Wow! You're lucky. Our apartment is really small. There are two bedrooms, one for my parents and one for me and my sister. But it's a nice apartment.

- Wendy: David, let's go to Frank's birthday party this evening. It's at eight o'clock.
David: No, let's not. Listen, Wendy, there's a great movie on TV tonight. Let's stay home.
Wendy: No way! Frank is my friend. I should go to his party. And you're my brother, David. You should come, too.
David: OK. Let's go. What should I wear?
Wendy: Mmm ... this T-shirt is cool.
David: The red one?
Wendy: No, the blue one. And these shoes are perfect for a party.
David: Which ones?
Wendy: The black ones.
David: OK. What about these pants?
Wendy: You shouldn't wear those. They're too old. You should buy new ones.
David: What? Today?
Wendy: No problem. We can go to the mall.
David: Mmm ... OK.
Wendy: Hey – there's a piano at Frank's house! I can't play the piano at all, but you can play really well. And Frank can play the guitar.
David: And you can sing well. We can play together. Cool!
