Units 1–3

- Mollie: Hey, Luke, long time no see.
- Luke: Mollie! What are you up to these days?
- Mollie: Well, I'm really busy. I'm learning the guitar this year. I'm taking guitar lessons. Actually, I'm going to my guitar lesson right now.
- Luke: No kidding! That's great. Are you playing in the school band?
- Mollie: Oh, no, I'm just starting. I can't play very well. What about you?
- Luke: Well, I'm not taking music lessons, but I'm learning a new language this year.
- Mollie: Really? Are you learning German? Or Spanish?
- Luke: No, I'm not. I'm learning Italian.
- Mollie: That's awesome. Are you studying it at school?
- Luke: No, I'm not. My uncle is Italian. He's teaching me at home.
- Mollie: That's fantastic! And are you playing soccer these days?
- Luke: No, I'm not. My brother is playing on the school soccer team this year, but I can't play very well.
- Mollie: So, where are you going now?
- Luke: I'm going to Sam's house.
- Mollie: Hey, we should get together sometime.
- Luke: That's a great idea. Give me a call sometime, OK? Bye, Mollie!
- Mollie: Bye, Luke.

- Lucas: Karen, do you get up early?
- Karen: Well, on weekdays I get up at seven thirty. But on weekends I get up at about nine thirty. What about you?
- Lucas: I get up at eight thirty. Then I have breakfast and I walk to school. I always get to school early.
- Karen: Wow! You're lucky. I take a bus to school, and I'm sometimes late. I have lunch at school. What about you?
- Lucas: Actually, I don't. I come home for lunch.
- Karen: Well, I usually get home at about five thirty. I do my homework before dinner.
- Lucas: Really? I have dinner at about seven thirty and I do my homework after dinner. I don't like homework!
- Karen: Hmm ... I like science homework. That's my favorite class.
- Lucas: I like gym class. Do you?
- Karen: Not really. I never exercise.
- Lucas: Hey! #On Sundays I play volleyball in the park with my classmates. There are five of us on the team. You should come, Karen!
- Karen: That's a good idea!

Units 7–9

Ryan: Hi, Aunt Alice.

Alice: Hello, Ryan. How's your new school? Do you like it?

Ryan: Yes, I do. It's great.

Alice: How do you get there? Does your mom drive you?

Ryan: No, she doesn't. I walk to school. I have breakfast at seven thirty, I leave home at eight o'clock, and I get to school at eight thirty.

Alice: That's good. What about the teachers?

Ryan: They're OK. Ms. Phillips is my favorite teacher. She teaches us science. We have science class on Wednesdays and Fridays. I like science. I want to be a doctor when I grow up.

Alice: That's great! Do you study languages, too?

Ryan: Well, this year we're studying Spanish. I want to learn German, too, but we're not studying German this year.

Alice: And what about music? You can sing, right?

Ryan: Yes, I can. I have singing lessons at home once a week, on Mondays. And guess what? Next Friday I'm singing in a concert at school!

Alice: Next Friday! Oh, no. I'm on vacation next week. I'm going to Florida. I can't come to the concert.

Ryan: Don't worry, Aunt Alice. Next time!

Dani: Is this your room, Jane?

Jane: Yes, it is.

Dani: Really? It's neat.

Jane: Yeah, I'm not messy. I'm pretty neat.

Dani: You have a brother and a sister, right?

Jane: Yes. Tony is my brother. I love my brother, but he's very messy.

Dani: Is he older than you or younger?

Jane: He's fourteen, and I'm sixteen. But Tony's very tall. He's taller than me!

Dani: No kidding? Is he good at sports?

Jane: No, he isn't. He plays soccer twice a week at school, but he doesn't like it. He likes music. Actually, he's practicing the guitar in his room right now.

Dani: What about your sister?

Jane: My sister, Maggie? Maggie's older than me. She's twenty. She works at a store in the mall. She sells laptops and tablets.

Dani: Wow! Does she like computers?

Jane: Sure. She loves them. She wants to be a computer programmer when she's older. She's very smart. She's smarter than my brother. She's smarter than me, too!
