

Object pronouns

1. Match the subject pronouns with the object pronouns.

- | | | |
|---------|----------|---------|
| 1. I | g | a. her |
| 2. he | ___ | b. us |
| 3. we | ___ | c. you |
| 4. it | ___ | d. them |
| 5. you | ___ | e. it |
| 6. she | ___ | f. him |
| 7. they | ___ | g. me |

2. Complete the statements with the object pronouns below.

her him it it me them them us

- This is a great movie. I love it _____.
- Take these onions and put _____ on a plate.
- Listen to _____. This is important.
- We are good dancers. Watch _____.
- John is a great singer. Listen to _____.
- Susan is late. I'm calling _____ on the phone.
- My neighbor's children are young. I'm babysitting _____ tonight.
- There's one sandwich on the table. Do you want _____?

3. Read the conversation. Then complete the conversation with the correct object pronouns.

Milo: Are you going to the baseball game tomorrow?

Jane: Baseball? No! I hate (1) it _____! I'm going to a movie called The Field.
Do you want to come with (2) _____?

Milo: Are you going with Steve? I don't like (3) _____.

Jane: No, I'm going with Sarah. Do you like (4) _____?

Milo: She's OK. Alright, I'll come with (5) _____.

Jane: We're meeting at my house. My dad is driving (6) _____ to the movie theater.

Milo: OK, cool. What kind of movie is it?

Jane: It's about baseball.

Milo: But you hate baseball!

Jane: I know. But Robert Pattinson is in (7) _____ – and I love (8) _____!