

Can for permission

1. Match the requests for permission with the pictures.

Can I please replace these batteries?

Can we please borrow your laptop?

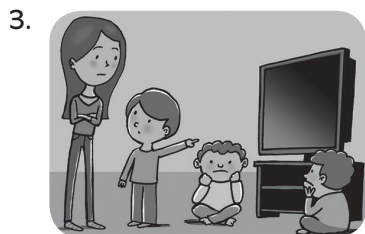

Can I please turn off the music?

Can we please turn on the TV?

Can I please use your charger?

Can I please use your charger?

2. Put the words in order to make requests for permission. Use question marks.

1. borrow / your pencil / I / Can

Can I borrow your pencil?

2. please / Can / your laptop / use / we

3. to your blog / I / upload / Can / these photos

4. the children / with your game console / play / Can / please

5. your phone / my sister / use / Can

6. take a photo / please / I / Can / with your digital camera

7. this evening / borrow / the car / I / Can

8. I / Can / turn off / the TV / please

3. Write requests for permission, according to the situations. Use the verbs below.

borrow download play turn off use wear

1. You need to use your friend's laptop.

Can I borrow your laptop?

2. You want to study, but your sister is playing music.

3. Your friend has some cool earrings.

4. You are bored. Your friend has a game console.

5. Your friend has some great photos. You want them on your tablet.

6. You need to phone your mom. Your friend has a phone.
