Souvenirs

Q: I'm visiting Lima this summer with my parents. I want to buy some special souvenirs for my friends. What advice can you give me?

Beata, 14

A: For girls, buy some jewelry. There are some beautiful Peruvian rings and necklaces. Do your friends like earrings? Buy some silver ones for them. Why not buy wrist bands for boys with their names on them? They're SO cool.

Q: My parents are going to New York this weekend. What can they buy for me and my brother?

Matt, 13

A: Candy! They should buy you both some traditional American candy. It's all delicious! They can also buy you and your brother a T-shirt or a key ring with "I love New York".

Q: What about Tokyo? My grandparents are going there soon.

Hideyo, 14

A: They should buy you a lucky cat, a maneki neko. They're really cute. Or some traditional Japanese shoes, geta. Don't try and walk in them, you need to practice!
