

The present perfect with superlatives

1. Choose the correct words.

- This is the worse / worst cold I've ever had!
- That's the most disgusting medicine I've ever / I ever tasted!
- Sammy says it's the best movie he's ever saw / seen.
- This is the nicer / nicest birthday I've ever had!
- That was the most difficult exam we've ever done / we ever did.
- It's the faster / fastest train I've ever traveled on.
- That was the most exciting game I have ever watched / ever have watched.
- She's the most beautiful singer I've ever hear / ever heard.

2. Use the words to write statements. Use the present perfect and a superlative.

- horse riding / is / dangerous / sport / I / ever / try
Horse riding is the most dangerous sport
I have ever tried.
- that / was / exciting / movie / I / ever / see

- Dr. Roberts / is / kind / doctor / I / ever / have

- that / is / fast / he / ever / run

- that / is / funny / thing / I / ever / see

- that / was / good / vacation / we / ever / have

- Mrs. Watson / is / strict / teacher / I / ever / meet

- this / is / nice / medicine / I / ever / taste

3. Complete the second statement so it has a similar meaning to the first. Use the present perfect and a superlative.

- I've never met such a nice person as Sara.
Sara is the nicest person I've ever met.
- I haven't read a book that's more exciting than this.
 This is _____ _____ read.
- I haven't eaten a more delicious pizza than that.
 That was _____ _____ eaten!
- She hasn't had a worse sore throat than this.
 This is _____ _____ had.
- I've never bought more expensive jeans than these.
 These are _____ _____ bought.
- I've never had a better grade than this on a math test.
 This is _____
 _____ had on a math test.