What is fusion cuisine?

Fusion is putting together at least two different things. Fusion cuisine refers to combining ingredients—and sometimes cooking techniques—from more than one culture. This could mean adding an unusual spice to a traditional dish, or it could mean using different ways of preparing food and ingredients from a variety of cultures.

Fusion cuisine became popular in restaurants in the 1970s. While many people think it is a new discovery, the idea has actually existed for hundreds of years. European explorers brought "exotic" foods like tomatoes, oranges, and rice back from their travels. People liked these foods so much that they began using them in traditional European menus.

The key to great fusion is choosing the best elements of various cultures' cooking and combining these to create new dishes. The goal is to come up with new, interesting dishes that surprise and delight our tastes.

One example of fusion cuisine is adding spicy chilies from Latin America to traditional Asian dishes, such as Japanese hand rolls with jalapeños. Another popular result of fusion is the wrap. Tortillas, originally from Mexico, are now filled with everything from teriyaki beef to curried chicken.

Anyone can create fusion cuisine. Make flavor and excitement your goals. Remember: Variety is the spice of life!

June Hobbs: Hi, I'm June Hobbs for Radio WKEY. I'm here at the opening of the new restaurant La Casita. People have been very excited to try the traditional Mexican food at this hot new restaurant. Let's get their opinions. Ma'am, what's your name?

Tina: Tina.

June Hobbs: Tina, how is your dinner?

Tina: Delicious! I don't care for red meat or fish, so I'm having the chicken enchiladas. They are great—really spicy, and I'm crazy about spicy food.

June Hobbs: Great. And you, sir?

Jeremy: Hi, I'm Jeremy. I really like this restaurant because they have healthy dishes. I avoid salt and oil, and they don't use much in their dishes.

June Hobbs: So the food is delicious and healthful. And you, sir. Please tell us your name and what you are having for dinner.

Ryan: My name's Ryan. I don't remember the name of my dish, but it's delicious! It tastes sweet and spicy at the same time—very interesting.

Vincent: Vincent.

June Hobbs: Vincent, don't you care for your dinner?

Vincent: Yes, it's great, but I'm saving room for dessert.

Katie: Katie.

June Hobbs: Katie, are you saving room for dessert, too?

Katie: Definitely. I'm a real chocolate addict. I'll eat anything with chocolate!
