Simon's parents went away for a week and he stayed at home. They are coming home tomorrow and Simon has some problems. Read the email he sent to his sister, Beth.

Dear Beth

Mum and Dad are coming home tomorrow morning and I need to be ready for them. I drove the car into the front fence last week and I broke a headlight. I also used all the petrol. On Monday I played basketball in the dining room and I broke a lamp. On Tuesday I practised my electric guitar and the neighbours complained. On Wednesday I invited ten friends over for a meal and they ate all the food in the freezer. Then yesterday I had a party but everything was OK after that. Please reply soon.

Simon

Beth writes an email back to Simon. Write the advice she gives him using should, shouldn't, had better or Why don't you. Use some of the ideas in the list below.

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| repair the fence | ask the neighbours to help |
| buy a new lamp | stay in the house alone again |
| take the car to the garage | buy some more food |
| play basketball in the garden next time | have another party |
| tell Mum and Dad about the party | buy some more petrol |

Dear Simon

This is what you should do:

You should repair the fence. You'd better buy a new lamp.

Reading Part 4

- Read this text and answer the questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D.

Last Saturday I came to your shop to buy some jazz CDs. I came away with none of them. The last time I came to your shop was two years ago and you sold every kind of music. Now you sell exactly the same as all the other shops – only pop music. Why don't you sell jazz? There is nowhere in this town you can buy a jazz CD. The sales assistants are pleasant and helpful and I asked them why you sell just pop music and videos. They didn't know. The shop was nearly empty so maybe you should ask the customers what they want to buy.

- 1 What is the writer trying to do?
A complain about something
B apologise about something
C advertise something
D sell something
- 2 Why is the writer angry?
A The sales assistants were rude.
B He could not buy what he wanted.
C The shop sold only CDs.
D He went to the wrong shop.
- 3 How is the shop different from two years ago?
A It is busier.
B It doesn't have enough staff.
C It is smaller.
D It doesn't sell jazz CDs.

Reading Part 2

- The people below (1–5) all want to see a film.
- Below are eight film reviews.
- Read the film reviews and decide which film (A–H) is most suitable for each person.

- 1 Eleni enjoys comedies with a happy ending.
- 2 Sofia likes adventure films which are exciting from beginning to end.
- 3 Matteo would like to see a historical film which has a good story.
- 4 Robert likes watching science fiction films. He likes both cartoons and films with real actors.
- 5 Julia would like to see a love story with some famous actors. She enjoys films which contain singing and dancing.

A The Girl in Black is a story about something that happened 400 years ago. Two young people meet and fall in love but the young man has to go away to fight in a war. The story starts well but then nothing really happens.

B The Circle of Life is a film everyone should see if they want to go home feeling cheerful. I couldn't stop laughing. There is one sad part in the middle but everything is all right in the end. Jules Verity, the star, normally sings and dances in films so this is a change for him.

C The Last Time stars Jennifer Nolan and Peter O'Bride. We follow their lives separately for the first half of the film until they meet and fall in love. I hadn't realised that it was a musical – this is the first time these well-known actors have appeared in one.

D The clothes the actors wear in Cramer Place are lovely. It is a true story which takes place in the nineteenth century in an old house. It is actually difficult to believe this really happened and I found it impossible to guess the ending – you just have to wait and see. The acting is wonderful.

E The Blue Country is an action film with a difference because it is also funny (until the end when everyone dies). Most of the action actually comes at the end and I did find the first half a little boring.

F I hadn't heard of any of the actors in The Lost Journey but I'm sure we'll see them again. The film takes place on a small planet in the future. It is rather difficult to believe but it has a good story and is well acted. I loved the ending which I hadn't expected.

G The Tree is a cartoon film which contains some wonderful songs. Most of the voices are done by very famous actors and I enjoyed trying to decide who they were. The action takes place in a forest and small children might be frightened by this.

H The Path to Nowhere is the latest in a series of films starring Des Riley and Tom Carver. It starts with a car chase, there is plenty of action in the middle and it finishes with a helicopter following the two men as they try to escape in a boat. I couldn't wait to discover what happened.

Reading Part 3

- Read this text and decide if the sentences 1–6 are correct or incorrect.
- If a sentence is correct, put a tick (✓).
- If it is incorrect, put a cross (✗).

- 1 Stella has three sisters. ✗
- 2 Stella's mother was a photographer.
- 3 Stella met Naomi Campbell and Kate Moss for the first time at her fashion show in 1995.
- 4 Everyone was surprised when Stella McCartney was on the front page of the newspapers.
- 5 Stella had jobs in fashion before she left college.
- 6 Stella thinks about the kinds of clothes famous models like to wear when she is designing.

Stella McCartney was born in 1972, the daughter of pop star Sir Paul McCartney. She is the youngest of three sisters. One sister is a potter and the other sister does the same job as their mother used to do – she works as a photographer. Stella's brother, James, is a musician. Stella first hit the newspaper headlines in 1995 when she graduated in fashion design from art college. At her final show, her clothes were modelled by her friends, Naomi Campbell and Kate Moss, both well-known models. Unsurprisingly, the student show became front-page news around the world. Stella hadn't been in the news before as a fashion designer but she had spent time working in the fashion world since she was fifteen. In March 1997, Stella went to work for the fashion house Chloe. People said the famous fashion house had given her the job because of her surname and her famous parents but Stella soon showed how good she was. She designs clothes which she would like to wear herself, although she's not a model, and many famous models and actors choose to wear them. In April 2001 Stella went to work for another famous fashion house, Gucci. We are sure to hear much more about Stella in the future.

Reading Part 4

- Read the text and questions below.
- For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer – A, B, C or D.

I bought a computer from you three months ago. Unfortunately, my computer has gone wrong several times and each time I have brought it back to your store and you have repaired it for me. This is not very convenient for me because I live in a flat and the computer is heavy. But you say you cannot come and collect it and you cannot send a computer engineer to my flat. I know some people can repair their own computers, especially if it is a small problem but I cannot do that. I now have a new problem with this computer. I am really tired of bringing it to your store. I haven't had the computer very long so I think you should replace it. I spoke to one of your assistants on the phone this morning and he was quite rude to me. I chose your store because it was recommended by several friends. Unless you do what I ask, I will not recommend your store to anyone I know and I will tell my friends what has happened. None of them has had problems with their computers and I expect they are thinking of coming to you again when they need more equipment.

- 1 What is the writer trying to do?
 - A recommend a computer store
 - B find out some information about a computer
 - C complain about her computer
 - D explain what is wrong with her computer
- 2 What does the writer say about her friends?
 - A They have had their computers repaired several times.
 - B They encourage other people to use this computer store.
 - C They have stopped using this computer store.
 - D They know how to repair their own computers.
- 3 What does the writer want the computer store to do?
 - A collect the computer and repair it
 - B come to her flat to repair the computer
 - C give her advice over the phone
 - D give her a new computer

Reading Part 3

- Look at the sentences below about a town called Stevening.
 - Read the text to decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect.
 - If it is correct, write A.
 - If it is incorrect, write B.
- 1 There is a good variety of places to stay in Stevening. A
 - 2 The Tourist Information Office charges for booking rooms.
 - 3 You can rent a tent at the campsite.
 - 4 There used to be a traditional market where Stevening Mall is now.
 - 5 You cannot park outside the Tourist Information Office after 9 am.
 - 6 You can buy medicine in the Mall.
 - 7 If you join the Sports Club, it is cheaper during the evening than during the day.
 - 8 You can register for swimming lessons at the Leisure Centre.
 - 9 You must buy a ticket for the Kerrow Hills bus at the Tourist Information Office.
 - 10 The train stops near the top of Kerrow Mountain.

Welcome to Stevening

The town offers excellent accommodation at all prices. You can stay in a simple but comfortable family home or small guesthouse, or try the international dining room and beautiful rooms at the Grand Hotel. You can book a room by phoning or emailing the owner. You can get a list from the Tourist Information Office in St Hugh's Square, which is open between 9 and 5 on weekdays. For a small fee, the staff can make reservations while you wait.

There is also a campsite near the town. Space is usually available for small tents, but large groups should contact the manager in advance to check that there will be room for them.

Stevening has two main shopping areas, the new Stevening Mall and the traditional market area, which includes St Hugh's Square and several attractive narrow streets around it. Please note that motor vehicles are only allowed into the Square between 7 am and 9 am. The Mall has over forty shops, including a department store, clothes shops for all ages, sports shops, a chemist and a supermarket.

For sport, visit the Stevening Leisure Centre, which offers indoor tennis, volleyball and a fitness centre. You can pay for a half day, or join the Sports Club, which allows you to use the facilities all day for no charge and at a special discount in the evenings.

The swimming pool is open from May to September. Classes are held in the pool between 3 and 5 every afternoon except Sundays. Details of courses are available at the Leisure Centre but it is only possible to book a course at the pool office.

From Stevening, it is easy to visit a number of places of interest. The peace of the Kerrow Hills is a short free bus ride from the town centre. Maps can be obtained from the Tourist Information Office. Keen walkers may climb up Kerrow Mountain, but less active visitors can also enjoy the wonderful views by taking the little train which stops just below the top of the mountain and walking the last few metres.
